WOULD LIKE TO GIVE $1,000,000 TO BELGIAN RELIEF COMMISSION

American Who Raised Cargo of Flour and Saw it Distributed, Praises Work Highly.

New York, Jan. 31.—"I am able to say without reserve that although I have had occasion in the past to inspect many methods of public relief in various countries, I have never before seen one that can compare in efficiency, thoroughness and wisdom with the system now being employed in Belgium through the combined efforts of the Belgian Relief Commission and the Comité National," said Mr. William C. Edgar on his return from Belgium.

Mr. Edgar adds: "Furthermore, if I had a million or five million dollars placed at my disposal for the relief of the Belgians, I would not hesitate for a moment to put it at the command of this organization, confident that it would employ it to the best advantage of the people, and that not a dollar would be wasted, or misapplied."

It is frankly stated that Mr. Edgar went to Belgium skeptical of the efficiency with which relief was being dispensed, but his own statement above is sufficient to show that he was convinced of the value of the work being done by the Relief Committee.

Mr. Edgar's trip was in the interests of the "Northwestern Miller" of Minneapolis, a publication, which was applied to the purchasing of flour and sending it to Belgium.

DEGENERACY AND ALCOHOLISM

Degeneracy is an ugly word denoting an equally ugly fact, but if we may take the verdict of Dr. MacNicol, a famous New York surgeon, chosen by President Roosevelt to make investigations abroad into the effects of Alcoholism and Narcotics, it is the end to which the intemperance races are hastening.

"A hundred different intermediary agencies may contribute to the undoing of the race," said Dr. MacNicol, as quoted in the report of the 18th Convention of the Dominion W.C.T.U., 1913, "but back of all stands alcohol as the chief degenerative factor. The great burden of drink is not borne by the drinker, but by his children. The children of drinking parents present a large percentage of functional and organic diseases. A degeneracy appalling in magnitude threatens to destroy this Republic," he added. Let this degeneracy continue at the same rate for 100 years and there will not be a native-born child five years old in the United States.

In Canada, as in the United States, patriotism demands an effective check on the reckless consumption of liquor and at this time in particular, patriotism demands further that every man and woman of Ontario should do his or her part to take away the approach of intemperance from this Province.

Judge Audette, in his report regarding damages to vessel-owners because of the cessation of open sea sailing, allows but $60,633 for claims of $9,290,000.

OPENING OF SOLDIERS' CLUB

all of which he said suggested "the perfect man" with which he coupled the name of Mr. Coulter. The building he said was evidence of remarkable liberality on the part of the John Morrow Screw & Nut Co. They had been generous to a fault, he said, recruits were necessary and he urged the young men to do their part.

Mayor W. J. Elliott.

Mayor W. J. Elliott was the next speaker. He spoke in appreciative terms of the generosity of the Morrow Co., and went on to say that he had learned from a returned soldier who had travelled extensively, that the building was one of the finest for the purposes he had ever seen. He also referred to the generosity of the John Morrow Screw & Nut Co., in connection with the British Red Cross campaign when they contributed over $700. The speaker also took occasion to emphatically contradict a rumor that officers of the 18th Battalion received a bonus for each recruit. He also paid a tribute to Mr. H. E. Robinson who supervised the work at the Club.

Major Gibson.

The sincere thanks of the officers and men of the Ingersoll Company were tendered to Mr. J. A. Coulter and the John Morrow Screw & Nut Co., by Major Gibson, as well as to Mr. Robinson for the good work he had done. He extended a welcome to everybody in the town and country to visit the soldiers at the Club. He referred to what he had previously stated and added that he did not want any one to hide behind what he had said as an excuse for not enlisting.

J. A. Coulter.

There was tumultuous applause when Mr. Coulter was called upon and the audience sang, following the cheers, "For he's a Jolly Good Fellow." Mr. Coulter indicated the interest that he felt personally in the men and that of the firm he represented. He mentioned that the Morrow Co. was the first firm to undertake a certain kind of work in connection with munitions in Canada, and he believed he would be pardoned for saying so, but that they were doing it better than any other firm. He also mentioned the tremendous figures in connection with orders that had been received, some of them for screws and percussion primers reaching close to the two million mark in each case. He mentioned that he could not give too much praise to his men. He mentioned that a number of the men of the works had enlisted and that more would likely follow. At this juncture he handed over the keys to Major Gibson, announcing at the same time that the Club would be kept up after the war for soldiers who might be wounded or desired the advantages it offered. Major Gibson replied in appropriate terms.

During the evening in addition to music by the orchestra, songs were sung by Mr. Walter McCutcheon, of London, and Pte. Harry Dickson, while Mr. J. Ronan, entertainer, of London, greatly pleased the audience.

SEVEN RECRUITS ADDED SUNDAY

word. He spoke of the keen personal interest he felt in the great conflict and of the endeavor he would make as Chaplain to be a true friend to every man of the 18th Battalion irrespective of religious denomination. So far as this was concerned he said they did not know that he was a Presbyterian.

A vocal duet by Little Jack and Allen Horton in a manner that won the appreciation of the audience. This was followed by a song by Harry Dickson and chorus.

Lieut. Roy Russell.

A short, crisp address was given by Lieut. Roy Russell, who presented in a convincing manner the duty that faces the young men. He told of the necessity of the hour, and that it was the aim of Britain to not only protect civilization but to do some good to the Germans as well. He referred to many amusing excuses he had heard on the part of young men when approached to enlist.

Major Gibson.

Major Gibson, spoke clearly and strongly. At the outset he thanked the people for the support they had

TO RUN-DOWN WOMEN

Detroit Woman Tells How To Regain Strength.

Detroit, Mich. "I was in such a run-down condition I had no ambition to do anything. I had a chronic cough and cold and nothing seemed to give me any relief, and I was gradually getting worse, until a friend advised me to try Vinol, which I did. After the first day or two it seemed to put new life into me, the tired worn-out feeling began to disappear, I regained my appetite and was able to get a good night's rest. The cough gradually wore away, and I am now feeling like myself again, so that I can do all my housework and go about my duties as usual. Vinol is certainly a wonderful medicine," Mrs. W. E. Waters, Detroit, Mich.

Vinol restores health and strength in conditions like this, because in a natural manner it increases the appetite, tones up the digestive organs, enriches the blood and strengthens every organ in the body.

We guarantee that Vinol will do the same for any run-down person in Ingersoll, or give back their money. John E. Gayer, Druggist, Ingersoll.

he had endeavored to say at the meeting where his remarks had been viewed in another light. He did not wish to be understood as trying to bully anyone.

Major Gibson then called for recruits and several went forward.
