HEIRESS CONTINUES TO SHIELD WAITER

Declares She Will Make Trouble If Her Father Prosecutes Him.

Chicago, Jan. 13.—Roberta de Janon, he 17-year-old heiress to the millions of her grandfather, Robert Buiste of Philadelphia, came face to face with Fred Cohen yesterday for the first ime since they were arrested here fololice station. With tears streaming own her face the little girl rushed to the man her father claims ruined her life. Seizing both his hands in hers she renewed promise to shield him from the anger of her relatives.

"Do these people make you admit anything?" the waiter asked. "No, indeed," replied the girl who from the oment of her arrest has sought to assume all blame for her escapade. "You are sure you did not admit anything," Cohen persisted. "No, I did not," she said. "Well, if you do,"

Since their capture Roberta has declared determinedly that the fault for the escapade was hers, and that Cohen only had consented to plans she made. At every turn she has tried to shield the middle-aged man who left his wife to accompany her.

Cohen accepts the girl's sacrifice without a qualm. He reiterated to the police that he had run away with Roberta only when she threatened to kill herself if he stayed at home. He declared that he had been hypnotized into doing a thing for which he had no taste.
