John, Mel- and sampling of bar for assay, ille Perry, Francis Kermode, George Sheldon Williams, Norman W. F. Rant. Charles H. Ellicott, C. E.; H. R. Ella, H. M. Finlayson, S. F. Tolmie, V. S.: D. Hallam, R. P. Clark, H. S. Croft, C. E.; H. R. Self, T. R. Wright, H. H. Molony, the Ven Archdeacon Scriven and

The committee also resolved that in future tickets for the club's luncheons must be purchased by 6 p. m. the night prior to the lunch. The new rule is made owing to the fact that at a recent lunch 107 persons were present while but forty tickets had been secured the day before. As a consequence the caterers' resources were unduly taxed. Frank I. Clarke, the secretary-treasurer intimates that he would be obliged if those desiring to become members would enclose the annual fee along with their applications to save delay and correspondence.
