The Bridge Scheme

It Still is a Living Thing.

Premier Emmerson to Visit Hartland Soon.

The Hartland Bridge scheme, which some months ago so much filled the minds of the people in this section, will soon again come to the front. Hon. Messrs Emmerson and Tweedie were in Woodstock on Monday and one of the county members informs the ADVERTISER that in two weeks the premier will come to Hartland when the government will be prepared to do its share in the matter that was managed by the delegates sent to Fredericton.

Every man should now give his attention to the matter, and as many as possible should manage to get together at the time of Mr. Emmerson's visit so that all may know the import of it without trusting to rumour.

BAPTIST CONCERT

Was Profitable and Enjoyable.

The concert that the young people of the Baptist Church have been preparing for some time came off last Tuesday night. The house was well filled and judging from the vigorous applause each number called forth, the programme was very entertaining. Nearly all the pretormers responded to encores.

The farce was very laughable, and all the actors did very well considering that it was their maiden effort for nearly all of them. Mr. Allen Rideout made a villiannish villian and Charles Rideout took the roll of clown to perfection.

Following is the programme:—
OPENING CHORUS... "Hail to Our Beautiful Queen."

READING:..... Miss Cameron.

TABLEAU:..... "Caught in the Act."

SOLO..... Miss Estabrooks.

SONG & TABLEAU:..... "Tenting on the Old Camp Ground."

DUET:..... Mrs. Curtis and Miss Kimball.

READING:..... Miss Thistle;

INSTRUMENTAL TRIO:..... Cornet, Violin and Organ.

READING:..... Miss Brooks.

SOLO:..... Miss Kimball.

TABLEAU:..... "Fifty years ago."

QUARTETT:..... Miss Kimball, Mrs Curtis, Prof. Fox, Mr. Campbell.

DIALOGUE:..... "Punkin Ridge."

SOLO:..... Miss Reid.

BANJO SOLO:..... Miss Estey.

TABLEAU:..... "Belle of Hartland."

CLOSING CHORUS:..... "Homeward Bound."

The proceeds go towards procuring an organ for the church and was upwards of $40.

The Sunken 'Merrimac.'

The sinking of the United States coal ship in the channel of the entrance to Santiago harbor makes another brilliant act for record in the world's war annals. Under the cover of night, manned by half a dozen brave men, the vessel steamed stealthily under the grim muzzles of the enemies death-dealing battery.

Capt. Hobson steered the craft into the narrowest part of the channel, Steam was shut off, anchors cast, and as all hands took to the little boat men sea-holes were opened and several torpedoes that had been placed in the hold were fired. The "Merrimac" sank at once.

The Spaniards captured the whole of the crew, but in recognition of their great bravery the Admiral, under a flag of truce, announced his willingness to make an exchange of prisoners. In the meanwhile they are being treated with greatest kindness.

The sinking of the ship effectively blocks ingress or egress to the harbor, and the Spanish fleet, if within, will be unable to get out.

SUNDRY NOTES.

Gleaned from various sources.

News of all kinds.

The saw mills in St. John are re-suming work.

Peter Sacobi, a well-known Indian of the St. Mary's reserve, was drowned from his canoe at Oromocto, Saturday.

In the parish of Sussex, on Thursday Wm. Tribe was fined $50 for beating his horse to death in March last. The fine was allowed to stand.

There was a basket social at Newburg on Tuesday evening and the sum of $40 was realized, which is to go towards a fund for purchasing a bell for the R. C. Church.

Sawyer's Mill which for several days was shat down on account of inability to secure cars for shipment, is now running over time, to finish an important American order that is waiting.

Thursday night at McAdam Junction S. Thompson and two others occupied a room in the Junction House. Mr. Thompson awoke and found that while he slept someone stole $80 from a wallet in his pants.
