STANDARD PATTERNS

Another Lot of Those Mill Ends of Fine Gingham, Chambrays, Plain and Fancy,

And Cotton Wash materials of every description. The lengths run from one yard to 12 yards, and there is enough of every pattern to make a shirt waist or child's dress. A good many of the lengths have sufficient in them for shirt waist suits. These remnants have been priced at the same rate as those we had a short while ago.

Two Special Lines of Ladies' White Corset Covers.

These are both to sell at 50c., but are the regular 75c. corset covers. One style has two rows of hemstitched tucks across front, with one row of lace insertion, lace trimmed around neck and armholes. The other style has two rows of lace insertion down the front, and has lace trimming around neck and armholes. These are made from extra good quality of white cotton and are the daintiest corset covers we have ever seen for this price.

Ladies of Saint John and Vicinity:

The cheapest place to get stylish and fashionable suits or skirts or Raincoat made to order after the New York System, is at SIDEMAN'S.
I am the only man here who makes a Raincoat on the Tailor-made System. My prices are positively the lowest. For $10.00 you can get a very stylish, up-to-date suit. For $20.00 you can have a skirt made to order. The prices for Raincoats are about half as elsewhere. A big discount is allowed for cash. You can have any reasonable sum to pay for goods if you wish it. I have the largest assortment of the most beautiful and fashionable costume cloths on hand. It is for your benefit to call and inspect my stock and styles before buying elsewhere.
If unable to call, send postal, and I will send samples and estimates.

PERSONALS.

H. A. Powell, K. C. of Sackville, was in the city Saturday.

Walter Jones, the cashier of the Pelican and British Empire Life Insurance office in Montreal, is in town and takes a trip across the Atlantic on the Lake Erie.

C. E. Dalton, inspector of boilers and machinery for N. B. and P. E.
Island, is home from a trip to New York.

R. J. Carless, of St. John, N. B., registered at the Canadian government office, London, England, recently.

W. C. Hagen, a popular member of the Bank of Montreal staff in the St.
John agency, has been appointed to the St. John's, Nfld. branch and will leave for the colony about Wednesday morning.

Hon. Wm. Fuglesy was in much better health yesterday and will likely be able to go to Fredericton tonight or tomorrow.

Mrs. J. B. Manson has returned from the Canadian and American millinery conventions.

Mr. and Mrs. Jas. F. Robertson left Saturday for Punta Rasa, Florida.

J. Ernest Bourke, of the finance department, Ottawa, has been ordered south for a rest. He has been ill.

Mrs. Olive, secretary of the Tourist Association, and her sister, Miss Shaw, left Saturday evening for New York.

Mr. and Mrs. Percy Sharp, and Miss Sharp, of Birmingham, Eng., who have been visiting in Nova Scotia, have returned to Carleton.

WEST INDIA SERVICE BROKEN.

Str. Orinoco Will Not Come Here This Trip—Freight Goes to Halifax.

The West India line steamer Orinoco left Bermuda on Saturday afternoon for Halifax, where, after discharging her inward cargo the steamer will be put in dry dock to undergo her regular half yearly cleaning and painting. The time involved will prevent her from making St. John this voyage, and consequently the cargo for and from St. John will both have to be forwarded by rail at the expense of the steamer.

NORDICA IS COMING.

The fact that the famous Nordica is to be heard down here in St. John, so far from the great musical centres, has come as a surprise to every one in this vicinity. Nevertheless it is true, and April 11th will be a red letter day in the history of entertainment in St.
John, as upon the evening of that date Nordica will appear in the Opera House, and not to sing but two numbered in a programme, as is usually the case in such events, but the great prima donna will probably sing in the vicinity of 15 times, affording an opportunity for judging a great singer in songs of various character. The subsequent list is still at Leary's, and as only those who sign it will secure seats the first day the plan opens, the necessity for becoming a subscriber is readily recognised. Subscriptions for the lower priced seats will now be as well as, and doubtless the list will shortly be filled.

F. G. Spencer's contract is a big one, besides printing and managing the Nordica concert here, he is doing likewise in Bangor and Halifax.

The prima donna will be heard in the former city April 8th, and the latter on the 8th. It will be a matter of interest as to which of the three cities will best support so large an undertaking.

IMPORTANT NOTICE.

It is important that all participants in tonight's grand ice masque in Victoria Park should be on the ice before the middle of the band programme, as the judges will commence their duties at that time and the usual custom. The prospects of an augmented number of masqueraders has brought this decision about. Those intending to take part will bear this notice in mind as it may be of importance to them if they are late. Those intending to take part

TODAY'S FUNERALS.

The funeral of Miss Julia Teresa Kilborn was held this afternoon at 2.30 o'clock from the residence of her parents, 20 Elm street. The funeral service was conducted by Rev. Father Carleton at the New Catholic cemetery.

The body of the late Miss King was interred in the late residence at 2.30 this afternoon to the old St. Peter's cemetery, where burial took place.
Father Carleton conducted the services.

The funeral of Carl Millersted was held this morning at 9 o'clock. Requiem mass was celebrated in St.
Peter's church and the remains were interred in the new Catholic cemetery.

LOOKS LIKE SPRING.

There is very mild weather all over eastern Canada at present. At Toronto and Montreal it is raining today and at nearly every other place rain is threatening.

The highest temperature in the city today was 34 above at noon. The lowest temperature was 23 above. The wind today is from the south at 5 miles an hour. Rain is predicted.

JUDGE CARLETON SWORN IN.

John L. Carleton received this morning from Ottawa the commission authorizing him to hold the eastern county court and later in the day was sworn in by the chief justice. He leaves this evening for Woodstock, where he will tomorrow open the Carleton county court.

SALVATION ARMY CHANGES.

NEW YORK, March 7.—The World this morning says: "It is believed in the Salvation Army, although denied at the Army headquarters yesterday, that Commander Booth Tucker will retire soon from the command in America to do literary work in London and will be succeeded by Commander Thomas B. Coates, now in England."

POLICE COURT.

Magistrate Scores Some Sheffield Street Habitués.

At the police court this morning Jos.
Mahoney and John O'Leary were fined eight dollars for drunkenness.

About midnight on Saturday the police had to be called into John Dugans' house on Sheffield street to quell a row.

Two of those present were Alex. Howie and Peter Britt. Howie was arrested and charged with drunkenness and assault, but the witnesses not being present he was remanded.

Britt was also charged with common vagrancy and frequenting houses of ill-repute on Sheffield street. No evidence could be given to show how the prisoner lived; in fact he had no home and was not known to do any work. He had spent the last few nights in various houses of the description kept both by black and white women. When arrested he was drunk and when examined at the police station thirty cents and a bottle half full of liquor was found on him. On Sunday afternoon he indulged in a fit which Dr. Berryman, who was called in, diagnosed as being due to the effects of liquor.

Magistrate Hittchle said that if he had his own way he would have the police order every white man off that street, and if he sentenced him then he would give him nine months in jail.
He, however, remanded him.

POLICE SEARCHING.

For the Man Who Stole and Abandoned Short's Horses.

Early Saturday afternoon the coach and horses of Thomas Short, which so mysteriously disappeared Friday morning, were found in an out-of-the-way place about four miles from the city. Close to the veterinarian's place not far from Moosepath trotting park, the outfit was discovered in great depths of snow. Both horses were dead, and from the terrible mangled in which they were bruised, their death must have been attended with great agony.

The coach was brought into the city and the horses will be buried.

There is now good reason for believing that the outfit was stolen and that the thief drove the horses into the place in which they were found to avoid suspicion. The outfit was met on the March Road between 2 and 3 o'clock Friday morning by a young man coming towards the city. This young man halted the driver, but the latter drove on without answering.
The police are on the case.

VETERANS WIN AGAIN.

Old Time Curling Champions Still Invincible.

In the St. Andrew's curling rink Saturday night, another game was played between the veteran champions of 1891 and a picked rink from St. Andrews. The St. Andrews curlers this time were the challengers, but as in the previous game, about a week ago, they were doomed to defeat at the hands of the invincible veterans. The score at the close stood 15 to 12.

Following the rink:—

Champions, 1891. St. Andrews.
Wm. P. MacKay, Wm. P. MacKay, C. P. Olive, Alfred Clarke, Geo. Kimball, Wm. A. Barker,

A large number of spectators watched the game and enthusiastically cheered the veterans as they piled up their score.

At the close of the game luncheon was served.

MEN OF THE DAY.

Julian Hawthorne, in his recent volume concerning his father and his father's friends, tells an interesting anecdote of how he started writing:—

"My profession is not literature, but engineering," he said. "While I was waiting for another job, after leaving the Dock Department, I happened to write a short story for fun, and sent it to Harper's Weekly. It was accepted and I got $50 for it. That seemed an easy way of making money while I was out of engineering work, and I dove a great deal of writing, but have never for a moment ceased to hope for an order for a bridge or a canal. It may come any day. I am young yet, only fifty-seven."

DEATH OF MRS. ROBT. CUNARD.

The death occurred this morning of Mrs. Anne Cunard at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. Thomas Lawrence, 80 Paradise Row. She had only been a few days with pneumonia.

Mrs. Cunard was the widow of the late Robert Cunard, a well known resident of Indian town, who died about thirteen years ago. She was a daughter of the late Henry Fisher, of Fredericton.

She leaves to mourn for her, five children, Mrs. Lawrence, with whom she lived; Mrs. E. F. Maine, of Dorchester; Miss J. S. Cunard and Albert B. C. Cunard, of Boston, and Miss Emily Cunard of this city.

NOTED MEN DEAD.

NEW YORK, March 7.—A cable to the American from Bloemfontein says: Baron Halkett of Hanover, some time husband of Miss Sarah Phelps Stokes, died here yesterday. Baron Halkett was married to Miss Stokes in 1880 in New York; they were divorced two years later.

PROBATE COURT.

The accounts in the estate of the late Jane Caroline Leavitt were passed today and also the accounts in the estate of the late Charles E. Harding.
C. P. Sanford, proctor in both cases.
