CHRISTMAS TREES FOR ROYALTY,
BULLETS FOR COMMON PEOPLE.

How Emperor Nicholas and Family Will Celebrate Orders to Troops and Police to Shoot All Subjects.

POTS DAM, Germany, Dec. 22—Twelve large Christmas trees from the forest of Rominten have been set up in the Shell Hall of the new palace, one of the largest apartments for the Emperor and Empress, their six sons, Princess Victoria Louise, the Crown Princess and her baby and Princess Eitel Friederich. The Emperor has articles brought to him from which he chooses gifts, but the Empress and the other members of the imperial family go shopping in the streets of Berlin daily, beginning a fortnight previous to Christmas. The members of the royal families of Europe make a large interchange of gifts at Christmas. A wagon load of parcels destined for other courts was despatched December 20th.

RIGAM, Dec. 21—Ten terrorists were executed here at sunrise today. They belonged to a band guilty of a series of robberies, bomb outrages and murders, extending for months, and were also concerned in a plot to kill Baron Moeller-Sakomelsky, governor-general of the Baltic provinces, which was frustrated by the arrest of two of the leaders.

BERGASPOLO, Dec. 21—In consequence of fears of attempts by terrorists to assassinate the naval commander, Admiral Skrydloff, commander of the Black Sea fleet, has instructed the services to show no respect for any suspect, and to shoot any suspects without challenging.

NINE LOST IN WRECK OF WHALING STEAMER

NEW YORK, Dec. 22—A despatch from Buenos Ayres to the Herald says: "The Argentine steamship Cachalote, coming from the South, has brought here the captain and 25 seamen of the Norwegian steamship Fritiof which was wrecked during a whaling expedition at St. George in the Antarctic on November 20. Nine of the crew were lost in the disaster. The Fritiof is the same vessel that was sent in November, 1903, to rescue the Nordenskiold Antarctic expedition."

NEW AMENDMENTS
STRONGLY SUPPORTED

Though Opposition Papers in France Condemn Move And an Officer of the Church Hints at Further and More Serious Complications With the Vatican

PARIS, Dec. 22—The Republican press today expressed satisfaction at the adoption yesterday, by the majority of 413 to 168 of the Government's bill amending the separation law of 1886. The opposition organs indiged in violent denunciations of the new measure. The Figaro likens the Government to a cowardly hand manufacturing a new engine for oppressing the defenceless, in order to amuse its Jacobinical passions. The paper of the Cardinal Richier, speaking in the name of the Archbishop of Paris, is quoted as daily foreshadowing a Papal veto of the new legislation which is classed as "More unsatisfactory than the preceding one and a step towards 'perdition.'" In conclusion the person quoted remarked that so long as the Government declines to negotiate with the Pope a modus vivendi is impossible.

CHRISTIAN WORK
THROUGHOUT WORLD

A Condensed Statement of What is Being Done.

Number of Missionaries With the Amounts of Money Raised in Foreign Countries—United States Leads

BOSTON, Dec. 22—A statement of the Evangelical forces now working in the non-Christian world made public today, shows a total of 29,388 stations and out-stations; 6,750 men and 6,038 women missionaries; 70,700 native laborers; 1,249,968 communicants; 1,120,802 under instruction; and an income of $18,005,746. American women missionaries outnumber the men 3,031 to 2,048. Native contributions were $1,232,299 and the total income of American societies was $2,690,321. Great Britain has 3,150 male and 1,990 female missionaries, with an income of $7,298,097. There are 290 missionaries in China. Protestant communicants in Japan number 48,087. Of the eighty-nine missionary societies in India, thirty-two are American. The foreign workers number 3,447, and the 541 hospitals and dispensaries this year cared for 2,000,656 patients.

MARATHONS LIKELY TO GET THE RINK

Underwriters Find That There is Little Danger From Fire—Matter Will Be Settled on Monday.

The Marathons may yet be given permission to use the exhibition building as a hockey rink. In fact, it is quite probable that the militia department will accede to the club's wishes. Peter Clinch on behalf of the fire underwriters has visited the exhibition building, and although his report is not to be read until Monday, he has stated that the officials of the militia nature has been removed from the building.

Col. White, D. O. C., sent a report today to the militia department at Ottawa. He stated that the risk of a fire starting in the building was not so great now. Mayor Sears, the honorary president of the Marathons, said this morning that the officials of the club now confidently look forward to getting the required permission. He stated that the club had met with every wish of the fire underwriters and had gone to considerable expense in making the building fireproof.

A reply from the militia headquarters is expected on Monday. On that day the underwriters meet, and Mr. Clinch will submit his report. Judging from indications today the Marathons will yet win out.

The Latest Argument in the Moncton Campaign.

Violators Allowed Ten Days to Pay Their Fines—Collins Is Happy in Prison at Hopewell

MONCTON, N. B., Dec. 22—Hon. H. R. Emerson, Minister of Railways, passed through this morning en-route to his home at Dorchester to spend the Christmas holidays.

On account of the excessively heavy Christmas trade it was necessary to divide today's Maritime express into two sections. Both were heavy trains. A fine of two hundred dollars which must be paid within ten days with the option of going to jail for thirty days was imposed on Patrick Gallagher, of the Minto Hotel by Magistrate C. A. Steeves this morning for Scott Act violation. The ten day provision is now a departure making the issue of commitments more definite. Gallagher did not appear to defend.

The latest development in the Scott Act crusade is the claim set up that policemen are developing a taste for intoxicants through orders received to taste the liquor for the purpose of evidence in bars they visit. This morning in court Geo. P. Thomas, who has been prominent in defending Scott Act cases, drew attention to the fact that when they first started out, officers were content with tasting one kind of liquor, and now they are not satisfied with less than four varieties.

Schofield Wheaton, arrested yesterday on the charge of stealing eighty-five dollars from Henry White, was this morning dismissed by Magistrate Kay, on the ground that the evidence was not sufficient to send him up for trial.

Magistrate Stuart, of Albert, before whom the preliminary examination of Collins was conducted, says the prisoner is happy and cheerful in jail at Hopewell Cape and has become very fleshy since his confinement.

Disreputable Specimen Given
Sound Advice and Three Months Jail—A Wild Man from Lowell, Who Made Trouble in a Drugstore.

In the police court today Thomas Conboy was charged by Policeman Ross with being drunk, shouting and being a habitual frequenter of Hannah Lane's house of ill-repute on Sheffield street. The prisoner pleaded guilty to drunkenness but not guilty to the second charge.

Ross testified that for two years on every occasion that he was on the Sheffield street beat Conboy was living in Sheffield street houses, usually with Hannah Lane, a colored woman. The officer said he never saw Conboy work other than put up the shutters on Hannah's windows at night. He saw him there on Sundays and week days. The house was one of ill-repute and the proprietress was a questionable character.

Before sentencing Conboy the magistrate told him that he was one of a few names of white men who live with colored people in the Sheffield street area. Those colored people are all right to leave in their own occupations. But, Conboy, you are only past thirty years, and if some years ago you were told that you would sink to become a runner for a Sheffield street dive kept by colored women you would have undoubtedly laughed at such a thought. Just think what it is to have evidence given that the only work a policeman sees you do is putting up the shutters for such a house.

You are a big, strong looking man and there is work to do for such as you, but a person who knew you just a few years ago and would look at you now, would hardly know you. There are some other white men who associate with colored people in the Sheffield street area who are not only members of the town who might take dollars. Conboy was fined eight dollars or thirty days for being drunk and was told he was liable to nine months on the other charge, but to place the blame on persons could not come and get him out of jail he would be sent to jail for three months without a fine, for being a frequenter of Sheffield street houses.

John Hearty and Michael Flanagan, two of the Empress of Ireland crew, were charged with being drunk in the west side ferry house. Policeman Hughes said the men were not only drunk but were awaiting an opportunity of creating trouble with others. The magistrate fined each $8 or one month jail with hard labor.

James Devine, another steamer employe, said he had some drink and did not lose his mind. "The only slipper on the blooming Canadian ice." The policeman said he did not only slip, but fell, and was charged with lying drunk on Water street. $5 or one month jail.

Branford Carroll was charged with drunkenness and disorderly conduct, and breaking bottles in the drug store of H. E. Coupe on Main street. Mr. Coupe said the man acted like a drunk man, was threatening, asked to be allowed to warm himself and then demanded that Mr. Coupe give him something to eat. On being refused and advised to go elsewhere, Carroll said that witness had more money than he and would have to give up. In a tussle to get him out of the shop, the stranger tumbled the scales on the floor, and knocked the bottles of drugs about and destroyed in all about eight dollars' worth. Carroll acted like one demented in court this morning. When asked where he belonged he said Lowell, and would only tell the court once. He wanted to know why they didn't put him on the right train, that he was turned away from every door in the city. He acted quite wildly and was handed over to Detective Killen to transport. The magistrate said that the immigration officers were quick in not allowing such persons to enter the States but it was a strange thing that frequently such characters are dumped in St. John.

The prisoner had a razor, $18.35 and other articles on him.

Leonard Frame, a well built boy of 15 years, was charged by his widowed mother with disorderly conduct, breaking windows and assaulting her in her boarding house on Harrison street. The mother said he was a bad boy and she could do nothing with him.

The youth said that his brother was given more attention than he was and it was in a scuffle with the landlord that the trouble occurred. He was remanded.

KILLED BY FOOTBALL

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 21—Injuries which he received in a football scrimmage are believed to have contributed to the death here today of Henry Jean Pasavant, a Newtown military academy student. The young man was kicked in the back while playing football at school and was laid up for some time. When he came home for the holidays he was stricken ill.

DOG LICKED HIS HAND, HE DIED FROM HYDROPHOBIA

Tragic Death of a Pleasant Valley Man—Met Fate While Caring for His Suffering Pet

NEW YORK, Dec. 21—Frank Butkanski, 28 years old, of Pleasant Valley, died at a hospital here yesterday of hydrophobia, caused by a pet dog mauling his hands. Butkanski was employed by Dr. V. S. Jones, of Pleasantville, as a handy man. Among the physician's pets was a Newfoundland dog to which the young man was much attached. The dog retreated the fondness. Last October the Newfoundland dog was attacked by a terror, which probably had rabies, and was terribly bitten. Butkanski nursed his pet with the utmost care and tenderness, and the animal to show its gratitude, frequently nuzzled his hands. The dog's wounds healed, but early in November it began to sicken, losing the use of its hind legs. Butkanski treated it until its case became hopeless, and it was then killed.

Last week Dr. Jones noticed that Butkanski was behaving strangely, and he suggested a trip to this city. They went to a hospital, and on Wednesday night, Butkanski became delirious, death resulting yesterday.
