The very creditable display of fireworks and the pleasing boat parade on Lily Lake last evening was in charge of the Neptune Rowing Club.

Mr. R. S. Craig wishes that due credit may be given to Yngvar Somalison who has been given to Yngvar Somalison who has been given to Yngvar Somalison.

Much sympathy will be expressed for Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Shewan on the death of their infant daughter, who passed away at Middleton, N. S., yesterday.

DEPRESSION PREVAILS IN CUBA JUST NOW

J. D. O'Connell Home on a Visit Says That There is Very Little Doing.

J. D. O'Connell, owner of the old Sabanilla plantation in Cuba, arrived in the city a few days ago.

Speaking of conditions in Cuba, he stated that the country has been in a rather unsettled condition since the rebellion of last August.

Mr. O'Connell states that the chances for young men in Cuba are poor, the wages paid there are no higher than in Canada.

ANTHRAX IN MEN AND CATTLE

W. Randall, a young man belonging to Upper Gagtown, is reported as having contracted anthrax, a disease deadly to men and animals, although not very common among the former.

Dr. Frink was called to Upper Gagtown in connection with the outbreak of the disease. Now Mr. Randall is laid up with it and his life is despaired of.

Anthrax is an infectious disease quite common among cattle and which always has a fatal termination. It seldom attacks man but when it does is usually fatal.
