KNOCKED OUT BY JESS WILLARD, JOHN YOUNG NEVER RECOVERED; ARRESTED FOR MANSLAUGHTER

Los Angeles, August 23.—John J. (Bull) Young, a cowboy heavyweight pugilist, died in a hospital here today of injuries received at the Vernon Arena last night, when he was knocked out by Jess Willard.

Immediately after his death, warrants charging manslaughter were issued against Willard and eleven others connected with the fight, while legislators, clergymen and clubwomen revived the demand for an anti-vice fight bill in California.

The operation on Young's skull to relieve the cerebral hemorrhage which followed the knockout in the eleventh round of his scheduled 20-round fight with Willard, was first announced a success, but rapidly proved otherwise. The pugilist remained in a state of coma, from the time he received Willard's right uppercut to the jaw until his death this morning, when surgeons who operated on him stated that death was due to concussion of the brain.

When Young's death was made known to Sheriff W. A. Hammell, who had placed the principals concerned in the fight under technical arrest last night, warrants for twelve were issued by Deputy District Attorney Arthur L. Veltso. The warrants charged the following with manslaughter.

Through arrangements with the attorney for the Pacific A. C., under whose auspices the fight was staged, nine of the accused men promptly surrendered themselves to Under-Sheriff Robert Brain. Three others, Cameron, Webster and Anslinger, seconds for Willard, it was promised by the attorney, would appear in court not later than Monday.

The nine who surrendered themselves were arraigned before Justice of the Peace Summerfield, who set August 29 for their preliminary examination and fixed Willard's bond at $5,000, and the others at $1,000 each. The bonds were provided by James J. Jeffries, former heavyweight champion of the world, and John Brink, cabaret proprietor, and the accused were given their liberty.

It was said the defence of the men would be based on a ruling of Judge Frank R. Willis, of the criminal department of the Superior court, that contest licensed by municipalities were legal. His decision was rendered two or three years ago in the case of George Memsic and Ad Wolfast, who were arrested for prize fighting. It was declared the Young-Willard contest conformed to the ordinances of Vernon, an incorporated city.

Referee Eytan declared the only "hard blow struck in the fight was the knockout punch," and that "until the finish no damage was done." He said there had been "no occasion for stopping the fight."

Sentiment against prize fights grew rapidly during the day, among many classes of citizens, with clergymen voicing their protests in the afternoon papers and legislators being quoted as predicting the death of prize fighting in California.

JAY WILKES' HAPPY LAD THE WINNER

Saturday afternoon's racing at Moosehead was probably the best and most closely contested of any yet put up by the Driving Club. The weather no doubt went a long way to prevent a much larger attendance, but it was the last heat of the free-for-all was raced in a heavy downpour of rain, but in no way interfered with the fast time the different classes were hanging out after each heat.

The bay gelding Luck, owned by John Glynn, stepped away Saturday in the free-for-all with Thos. Hayes as driver, and had for company Jay Wilkes, driven by Jas. Brickley, and Nelsie P. driven by Wm. Brickley. It took four heats to decide a winner in this class, after some very close finishes Jay Wilkes taking first, third and fourth heat while the mare captured the second. Luck was very close second the first and third heat.

Class A brought out a new addition to the trotting class in a big brown gelding, Happy Lad, owned by Geo. Lawson. This horse showed considerable class by his performance on Saturday winning the event in straight heats in fast time, considering it was his first appearance on a track. No doubt he will be heard from again. Chas. Crawford's mare Nan Patterson securing second place and the West Side Horse Ed C taking third.

HALIFAX YACHT RACE.
Halifax, Aug. 24.—The yacht race for the Crescent cup was sailed in a gale of wind on Saturday afternoon and was won by A. F. Macintosh's Gem, which beat out R. A. Corbett's Zetes by four minutes. The latter boat had won the cup twice and wanted this season's race to become the permanent owner of the trophy. All the boats raced under the reefed sails.

The Statement.
When the league was organized, for which the Marathons Baseball Club was the first, the owners of the St. Croix team were assured the Marathons would be a good footing and would meet their current expenses and bills. While the cost of Mr. Leonard from Feb. 15 up to the organization of the league amounted to within the vicinity of $50.00 including his salary, travelling expenses, time spent in Bangor, St. Croix and Fredericton, at the meeting held here in St. John, in which the clubs were supposed to be all represented, $400.00 of this was to be borne by the four clubs. So far, the owners of the Marathons Club have not received a dollar from any of the clubs for organization expenses, although they received assurance from all the clubs that this would be paid. On the 31st July, when the St. Croix club players were in St. John, the matter of their salaries that were due up to that time was laid before the owners of the Marathons club and at that time Mr. Conoley, who was one of the best pitchers in the league, was under offer to the Lynn club for $400.00. Mr. Leonard assured the Marathons owners that if they would put up $400.00 to pay off what was due to the St. Croix club players for salaries that the Lynn club would take over Conoley at this figure and that from that time on the Marathons would be able to go on and pay their current expenses. Mr. Leonard was sent to St. Stephen and a sale of shortstop McPherson to the Lynn club was made. Mr. Conoley was sent to Lynn and as he did not make good there, the Lynn club released him, with the result that this amount of money is still due to the Marathons owners. They have had no connection, assumed no liability or in any way allied with the St. Croix players, outside of loaning them this $400.00. The money was advanced to Mr. Leonard purely in the interest of good clean baseball to see if the Maine and New Brunswick League could not be carried through to a successful finish, as for the past few years there has always been a collapse at this time, when the clubs go behind. Any stories or reports that are around that connect the Marathons management with the owners of the St. Croix or Bangor players are absolutely false.

As stated above, the owners of the Marathons assumed no liability or are in no way whatever connected with the St. Croix club or Bangor club. In the meantime Mr. Leonard negotiated a sale of shortstop McPherson to the Lynn club for which $300.00 was received by St. Croix, and this enabled the St. Croix club to pay off their salaries to August 15, and thus with the receipts that would be received from this out would probably be able to finance the season's playing. The owners of the Marathons Baseball Club have in the past assumed and paid organization expenses, umpires, etc., and the Marathons have been very much in the league would reimburse them for same and it is to be very much regretted that the clubs have not carried out their agreement to do so, as it is very unfair to ask one club to shoulder and advance for another club's deficits. The expenses that the management have been put to this year have been beyond question the heaviest ever experienced in the history of baseball in this city, and from this out all clubs will pay their legitimate bills and stand on their own bottom, or they can look somewhere else for money to finance it, as the Marathons management have invested much money in this matter now that they fail to see why they should be called upon for any more, in fact, the only thing that will receive consideration will be the legitimate bills contracted for the Marathons.

Navy Developed YANKEE RECRUIT
Ray Cooper, the Petersburg pitcher recently bought by the New York Americans for $1,500, received his baseball training while in the United States navy attached to the St. Helena naval training station, Norfolk, Va. A year ago Cooper was the star slaban of the "Salina," as the team of the receiving ship Franklin in the Twin City Amateur League of Norfolk is known. He won the pennant for the Salina, registering twelve victories to four defeats.

The following is a statement from the St. John club have met their obligations in the money line regarding the organization of the New Brunswick and Maine League and that the St. Croix or Bangor have not paid up what is due.

BALL LEAGUE BLOWS UP; ST. CROIX TEAM DISBANDED; MARATHONS MAKE STATEMENT

The last New Brunswick and Maine League game of the season was played on the North End grounds Saturday afternoon for the reason that the St. Croix team has been disbanded and the 1913 league which has been on a totter for the past couple of weeks blew up Saturday afternoon. pin club and for the purpose of giving Fredericton and St. John fans some first-class baseball for the next three weeks the Marathons and Fredericton team have arranged to play a series of thirteen games, commencing today.

There has been a great deal of talk among the fans that the Marathons club owners were also the owners of the St. Croix team, and also had something to do with the Bangor team. A statement which follows shows that these were only rumors and nothing more.

The Last Game.
There was a good crowd of people at the North End grounds on Saturday afternoon to witness the St. Croix team and the Greeks at battle. Donor van was in the box for the locals and for the four innings that the game lasted he held the visitors down to one lonely single. The clever young fellow who has been playing outfield for St. Croix but who was sent in to twirl for his team in this game. With only one out in the fourth inning he had been touched up for nine hits, one of these a two bagger and another a three bagger, and still another a home run over the left field fence by Flaherty in the third inning.

Two singles and a sacrifice gave the Greeks a run in the first inning. A two bagger, a single, a sacrifice, an error and a three bagger looked big in the second inning. Only one run was scored. A home run, a base on balls, a stolen base and a single netted two more runs in the third inning. The fourth inning was a case with Parier, the clever young fellow who has been playing outfield for St. Croix but who was sent in to twirl for his team in this game. The afternoon's sport was very ordinary, all of the winners simply playing with their fields. "Longshot" Cox was behind two of the victors, Baring and Derby Worthy, each fresh from series of victories over the Maine half-mile tracks.

The biggest field of the final day's programme started in the 2 1/4 pace, Natalie laid back till rounding into the home stretch in each of the heats and then handily breezed to the front.
