THE SEMI-WEEKLY TELEGRAPH, ST. JOHN, N. B., SATURDAY, DECEMBER 19, 1903.

Queens-A. M. McRae, Pownal, 1st; C. Burke, Charlottetown, 2nd. Kings-John Robertson, New Perth, 1st; D. J. Stewart, Aitkins Ferry, 2nd. The prize winners in the beef animals as far as your correspondent could gather are as follows: showing the kind of a head a good animal should have, a short head, good forehead, short thick and rather round neck. The top of the shoulder should be rounding, the crop should be full behind, the should-er a good suring of rib wall muscled or er, a good spring of rib, well muscled on the lion, and the width carried well back are as follows:-Cat le: to the tail head. A good animal should have a good girth, broad on the breast, these qualuies gives the animal a good constitution. A good underline should be found on every animal that is a good feeder. When an animal had these qualities it would be found profitable.

Hon. John Dryden, minister of agricul-ture for Ontario, led in the discussion, he said he always had a liking for farm animals and was heart and soul with the farmers in anything he could do to ad-ance their interests. Prof. Grisdale, of Ottawa, was called o the front of the ring and gave some Awards Made in Swine and Beef Competitions Tuesday - Ontaformation on the proper constituents of eding rations. rio's Minister of Agriculture Tells. Another packed auditorium awaited the peakers, when they ascended the platform speakers, when they ascended the platform at 8 o'clock this evening. Col. H. M. Campbell ably presided as chairman and first introduced W. S. Sparks, of Canterbury (England), who was to speak on horse raising. He sug-gested that the prizes given at the agri-cultural shows in Canada, should be given direct to the farmers as they were in nine cases out of ten, the raisers of the horses He strongly urged the importnine cases out of ten, the raisers of the horses. He strongly urged the import-ance of breeding only from sound ani-mals, and suggested that it would be safer for farmers to bread heavy horses as they would earn their living much earlier in life. He illustrated his remarks by some very fine lime light views.

Hon. Mr. Dryden.

Hon. Mr. Dryden. Hon. John Dryden received a hearty re-ception as he came forward to speak. He started by saying that agriculture was the greatest industry in all Canada be-cause it is the fairest source of produc-ing wealth and quoted figures to prove his statements. It could be best advanced, first, by organization by which the indi-vidual farmers were got together and would learn from one another; second by

Wife Thought She Would Develop Them, and the Result is Suit for Divorce.

Oakland, Galif., Dec. 16 --When Henry Hedenson, a local real estate dealer, whose chief divension is photography, neglected to take the undeveloped films from his' camera he got himself into more scrious trouble than would the average photogra-pher by such slight oversight. Hedenson might have taken pictures only for their artistic significance. His wife thought so, and at last became so in-terested in his success that she desired to aid him. Having learned the process of developing, she thought she would sur-prise her husband and bring out certain undeveloped films which he had left in his camera after a picture-taking trip. The rest of the story is short. Mrs. Hederson went into the dark room with Oakland, Calif., Dec. 16 -When Henry The rest of the story is short.
