CHATHAM.

Chatham, N. B., March 12.—Since the coming of Lent social affairs have subsided to a very great extent and the gayety which reigned supreme in former weeks is now a thing of the past, but all are looking forward to the entertainment to be given by the young men of St. Michael's R. C. T. A. Society on St. Patrick's Day in their new Opera House.

The large and brilliant at home given by Mrs. L. J. Tweedie at government house on Thursday afternoon from 4 until 6.30 proved, as was anticipated, most enjoyable. The house was beautifully decorated with a profusion of cut flowers and smilax. The drawing room was beautified with pink and cream roses and pink carnations, while in the dining room yellow daffodils predominated, smilax being used with good effect in a latticing of the windows and around the fire place. An orchestra stationed off the hall furnished delightful music. Mrs. Tweedie received her guests in the spacious drawing room, and was assisted by her daughter, Miss Tweedie. Mrs. Tweedie wore a very handsome gown of white lace over lavender silk and Miss Tweedie looked very charming in an exquisite white cloth gown. Mrs. Ernest Hutchinson and Mrs. George Watt poured tea and coffee and Mrs Allan A. Anderson dispensed ices and jellies. Mrs. Frances A. Ritchie, Miss Hutchinson, Miss Nellie Goggin, Miss Gillespie and Miss
