MANUFACTURERS MISPECK MILLS, - - St. John, N. B.

ALL WOOL GOODS, Vin: HEAVY and LIGHT GREY CLOTH; HEAVY GREY and SCARLET FLANNEL MISPECK TWEED.

ALSO: MARKETS. FIRST CLASS COTTON WARPS. The above named Seasonable Goods are all of SUPERIOR QUALITY, manufactured from the eary best materials, and warranted to give satisfaction.

30 OPDERS FROM THE TRADE RESPECSFULLY SOLICITED.

45 Warehouse—Reed's Building, Water Street.

Ber 1 Lidew JIE W Jety WOODWORTH, Agent, LARRIGANS, &c.

On Hand-1000 Pairs No. 1 Larrigans,
No. 2 do
150 doz. Prime Country Socks,
100 " Fair do do 100 " Fair do do Mitts.

100 Lined and Srapped Horse Blankets, Tul.

200 Pair Homespun Pants, 100 Homespun Jumpers, 120 dozen Homespun Shirts,

REEFERS, OVER COATS, HOOD COATS. HATS, CAPS, PANTS & VESTS,

With a large variety of Goods suitable for the Woods, AT THE LOWEST LIVING PRICES EVERITT & BUTLER,

J. L. STEWART. .... EDITOR

FRIDAY, DECEMBER 13, 1872.

areeley's last will is a follows:

and certain relatives whom Mr. Greelev desired should be accepted as the last the executors, directed that real estate and stocks should be sold, and the proceeds divided between the daughters

after the death of Mrs. Greeley, subject my decease, one of them shall be sold, un der the rules of said Association, to the extraordinary proceeding for Mr. Williams, a professed friend, to go into court and try to sow seeds of discord between sisters so devoted to each other as Ida and Gabrielle were. He said that there was no dispute between them about the property. Gabrielle was sat-that Ida should control her (Gabrielle's) half the property. Her guardian was satisfied. Her guardian's counsel's did not object to the will, and he could not see why Mr. Williams had troubled himself about it. The property belonged to the children. They should have it. The Aid Societies and other benevolent in stitutions could survive without abstract.

ing the sustenance of orphan children.

examination of Susan H. Lawson im-signing of the will-

to the following legacies:

Wholesale Warerooms, 55 and 57 King Street.

SEWING MACHINE Frize List for 1879.

Oabinet Goods. VICTORIOUS EVERYWHERE

-Flated Goods, oco.

Osborn First Prizes

Osborn Second Prizes.

35 First Frizes: 3 Second Prizes, and Two

J. D. LAWLOR, Agent,

BARNES & CO. Printers, Booksellers, Stationers,

BLANK BOOK MANUFACTURERS. nov 21 ly 58 Prince Wm. street

MOORE'S Sign Painting ESTABLISHMENT.

47 Germain Street.

WILLIAM DUNLOP, WHOLKSALE AND RETAIL DEALER IN

Flour, Groceries & Liquors. No. 40 CHARLOTTE STREET.

159 Union Street. GEORGE MURDOCH, isfied with the will. She was willing Harness Maker, AND DEALER IN

Strict attention paid to Jossing and United States Hotel,

HEAD OF KING STREET. Fronting on King Square. ON and after December 1st, the price of Board will be ONE DOLLAR AND TWENTY-FIVE CENTS per day should proceed at once to prove the will be made for Permanent JAMES HINCH.

by the subscribing witnesses, and the CARD.

ROBERT J. LEONARD. Ship Broker & Commission Merchant.

OFFICE. Merrist's Building, Water Street,

SAINT JOHN, N. B.

rational: he was asked questions which he answered, and shook hands with a Intend after the acknowledgment of the will; there was a recognition of myself by him previous to the introduction of the will; Air. Stuart held the will before Mr. Greeley's eyes and asked him the questions alluded to in regard to his signature and

Mr. Williams sought an interview ing a compromise, but they would not see him. There is no doubt but an exsee him. There is no doubt but an ex-tic women will have to be multiplied, and son, the housekeeper, was the only person that society outside of their walls will lose in the house who seemed to know anything that Mr. Greeley must have been insane much of its life and spirit. when he signed the will giving all his property to his daughters. The fact that Ohio Railroad broke through a bridge at he wrote it some time previously when South Branch, Md., Wednesday evening. fund that the Herald proposed to raise the engineer, conductor and brakeman lived there, and receiving an affirmative for them, as the property will go into were injured, but not seriously. he pockets of the lawyers.

their servants. Those who are familiar with the wreck modern fire engines left," etc. The Daily Tribune. make of the houses they play into can easily understand the anxiety of the proinguish the fire without outside assistauce, but nothing can excuse their forinmates were exposed. They will hardpublisher of the N. Y. Tribune, and ly escape censure from the Coroner's Isaiah T. Williams, Horace Greeley's old friend and counsel, are making to prevent the earrying out of his death bed disposition of his property, has awakagement of the Crown Lands. Tuesday front quarters and head are cat like. ned considerable indignation. Mr. Mr. Chauveau introduced a bill on the I, Horace Greeley, of the town of New Castle, Westchester county, State of New York, aged 61 years, being in fair bealth, and in the possession of my mental faculties, revoking all former wills, do make this my last will and testsment:— Itim I) last will and testament:—

Itim I). I give and bequeath all the property of which I may die possessed, including lands, mortgages, bonds notes of hand, debts, stocks, dues and obligations, to my eldest daughter, Ida L. Greeley, one half to be by her used at her own discretion in the education and support of her sister Gabrielle. The other morety to be hopeward in every right. reduction of the price of their lands. Mr. Joly and Mr. Holton taunted Mr. fren 2 1 give and bequeath my gold watch, usually worn by me, to my second laughter, Gabrielle Miriam Greeley, aforewitness my hand and seal this 9th day of November, 1879.
(Signed) Horace Green, [L. S.]

intended to share his property with, and produced a will made in 1871, which he will and testament of the deceased. This will, of which Samuel Sinclair is one of

I bequeath to my brother, Nathan Barnes Greeley aforesaid, and his wife Ruhama, the free and uninterrupted use, for life, or either of them, of my farm lying in the township of Wayne, Eric County, Pa., aforesaid. And I further bequeath to whichever of his sons the said Nathan BarnesGreeley may designate, the reversion or remainder of one half of said farm, to heing my understanding and purpose that being my understanding and purpose that said son shall live with and take care of said Nathan Barnes and Rubama Greeley to the end of their several lives.

I direct that if any share or shares in the Tribure Association shall remain to me at my decrease over a them shall be add any highest bidder, and the proceeds, without deduction or abatement, be paid over as my bequest to the Children's Aid So-

Two thousand dollars to my sister, Margaret Greeley Bush, in case she sur vives me; and in case she should not, but ther daughter, Evangeline Bush, shall survive me, then the said sum of $2000 shall be paid to her, my said sister's daughter Evangeline Bush.
One thousand dollars each to my sister.

Arminda wife of Lovewell Greeley, and Arminda, wife of Lovewell Greeley, and Esther, wife of John F, Cleveland, or to their surviving children respectively, in case they or either of them shall die before unwarrantably interfered. It was a most bing her face with her green hands, recently, so poisoned herself that her face was terribly swollen. By kissing her little the Protestant Episcopal order of the Sismediately began. She detailed the Mr. Stuart held the will up in front of Mr. Greeley, and asked him in my pre-sence if that was his last will and testasence if that was his last will and testament, and whether that was the signature and seal; Mr. Greeley said, "Yes." Mr. Stuart then asked Mr. Greeley if he would have Mr. Hare winness the will and he said "yes:" Mr. Stuart next asked Mr. Greeley if he would have Mr. Haines for a witness, and he said "No." Mr. Stuart then asked Mr. Greeley if he would have Montreal snoo shoe crabs have commenc-

Aunty Lawson to witness the will, and he said "yes," this was between 5 and 6 p. m; there was no delay in signing my name after that I arrived at Dr. Choate's between two and three o'clock of the same laws and three o'clock of the same laws. A new curling club-the Cale been organized in Toronto. In Guelph, Ont , Robt, Chance fell and broke his leg while dancing a polka at the St. Andrew's ball.

At Fort Garry a discharged volunteer amed Dupont entered the barracks Friday | Mercer street police station and hurriedly evening and deliberately shot a volunteer The Halitax papers say the Dalhousie Cozzen's done of ill fame, 10 Neilson College building is to be sold and a larger Place. Captain Byrne and Sergeant Carbuilding erected in the suburbs of the city; penter immediately went to the house, and it flatters itself there may yet be a They found the immates in a great state of Harvard on the Peninsula of Halifax. A negro woman in Paducab, Ky., has the Captain could obtain any particulars with the sisters, for the purpose of effectceases talking." If this is to be taken as third floor lay the dead body of a girl a precedent, we fear that asylums for luna known as Maud Merrill. Mary Ann Alli-

A treight train on the Baltimore and the following facts were gleaned:

reply, inquired the location of her room. The city of Hannibal has a harmles lunatic who imagines himself as equal to The latest news from the scene of the the Almighty, and stands at the water's you in." the fear of injury from water prevented farther upon the shore! He explains to furniture they sacrificed the lives of his gaze upon the sun, and directs the

A raccoon cat, being a cross between the two animals, has been developed in Ontario. prietors of the Fifth Avenue Hotel to ex-in appearance it closely resembles a cat found in the woods, and was thought at niece and am going to give myself up." getfulness of the danger to which the first to be a young raccoon until its sigular The Quebec Government has been it stops or is any way surprised it sits on provided for the sale of limits by public claim to the benighted people of the Nutauction, two months' notice of which should be given, with every necessary information such as description and upniormation such as description and upset price, in the official Gazette. It also set price, in the official Gazette. It also provided that settlers holding lands in the limits granted would have the right to cut timber on their own proporty, and the amount of duties would go in of the people. It is his best hold on their

come one of the principal winter ports of Canada. Its harbor is accessible at all seasons, and is perfectly safe. A line of railway should connect it with the coal mines, so that Atlantic steamers would always be sure of a supply on call.

NOTES AND NEWS.

NOTES AND NEWS.

NOTES AND NEWS.

The new Y. M. C. A building in Toropto is now nearly completed. It will cost to the Bahman intellectually and physithreatened to have been marked valmarked valmark gun and gave his leg the contents. He his "Hindoo Tribes and Castes, as repre door. imped of and did sot use the whip that sented at Benares":-"Endowed with an gun and gave his leg the contents. He finised off and did, sot use the whip that time.

Evans, the Northwood murderer, devotes his entire time to reading she lible and has called for a Baptist minister with whom he wished to converse. With others he is reserved and sullen.

Because a man had his nose nearly bitten off in Toronto, a few sights since, his entaged friends sprinkled with ink the house in which the event took place. And the householders are indignant.

William Wolf and Valentine Baum, Cincinnati butchers, had a fight Monday, in which the former stabbed the latter to the heart. He stepped to the bar, took a drink of whiskey, walked off and has not been arrested:

Miss Greenough, a young French lady of Holyoke, Mass., was run over by Conductor Clarke's train at Palmer. Mass, and crushed to death, Monday. She had at tempted to get on the train after it started and the sad result was that her body was literally out in two.

A lady by handling green velvet and rubbing for face with for green hands, recently, so poisoned herself that her lace

By an incoming English steamer there

Clever Escape from Penitentiary.

Ins. "Hindoo Tribes and Castes, as represented at Benates": "Endowed with an opworful, hind—white by long habit, perpetuated from a powerful, hind—white by long habit, perpetuated from an powerful, hind—white by long habit, perpetuated from a powerful, hind—white by long habit, perpetuated from an powerful, hind—white by long habit, perpetuated from an powerful, hind—white by long habit, perpetuated from an powerful, hind—white by long habit, perpetuated from any ower least than a powerful, hind—white by long habit, perpetuated from any ower least than a powerful, hind—white by long habit, perpetuated from any ower least to the tumost keen in the nature of the truck her in the lace with his face with the power in the case of the rate

The convicts, John Riley and Robert boy before she knew of the poison, she communicated it to him, and his face was called the Sisters of the Poor. The order fession, and won their liberty, not by Athens has made a contract to have her lished in the United States. Of this instistreets lighted with gas. When the work is done a modern Diogenes will have no need of a lantern, but it will be usele s for him to prosecute his search among the gas. Navy of England, and from her first takcompanies, even by the brilliant light of ing of the veil, in which she was the third pacity to become acquainted with much their own lamps.

It is not a subject to become acquainted with much their own lamps. member of the order, her life has been sig-The unlicensed murderers, the blunder-ing apothecaries' clerks, are at it again. Christian charity. She has been well known in London for some years, and has cago lately gave a dose of corrosive subbeen frequently praised for her services by limate for calonel, and when told of the fact was unable to comprehend that the had charge of the fever hospital at Manfact was unable to comprehend that the mistake was a serious one.

In Mr. Gilbert's new burlesque of "Happy Arcadia" he foreshadows a feminine millennium where bonnets shall be only a ha'penny apiece. This will be a service to morality. The chaplain of a London flouse of Correction for woman reports that the allumements of dress had been the chief occasion of the downfall of a large proportion of its inmates. This is a sad truth which the records of other institutions confirm. Is fashion a crime?

In Mr. Gilbert's new burlesque of "Happy Arcadia" he foreshadows a feminine chester, when no other person could be obtained to brave the dangers of the position. She had charge also of the University Hospital in London, when the cholera was raging with such fatality. At the Queen's request she also nursed Earl Devereaux of Knowle when dangerously ill. In the bloody path of the Franco-Prussian was a forgery, sent by Riley through outside. In that same day a fine turnout with a coachman in livery, drew up tith the hacks in front of the prison. The telegraph operator directed Riley to bring one of the convicts to him of whose services he had need, but instead of so doing he despatched another convict and turned his attention to matters of his own. In a dark hole or niche under the stairs Riley and Happood humanity. The tyrder in London has thus far been supported by the generosity of private individuals interested in its welliance. Nice clothes, false whiskers and glossy limits and service to support the position. She had charge of the position. She had charge also of the University Hospital at Manchester and the choester, when no other position. She had charge also of the University Hospital at Manchester and the choester, when no other he position. She had charge also of the University Hospital at Manchester and the cholera was raging with such fatality. At the Queen's request the also nursed Earl Devereaux of the cholera was raging with such fatality. At the Queen's the cholera was raging with such fatality. At the Qu

MAUD MERRILL'S MURDER. Mundered by an Unknown Assassin— Escape of the Murderer—A Despe-rate Struggle for Life—Coolness of

Shortly after four o'clock yesterday afternoon a young woman rushed into the informed Sergeant Carpenter that a woman excitement, and it was some time before concerning the murder, and from her THE MURDER. About 3.45, a well-dressed man, about in good health, will tend to weaken this The locomotive and twenty loaded coal 40 years of age, rang the street door boll, argument. Should the litigation con-tinue long the orphans will need the Rutherford the fireman, was killed, and Allison. He asked her if Maud Merrill

"Go to the third floor, back room, and rap," said Mrs. Allison, "and she will let The man made no reply, and walked notel calamity in New York shows that edge and commands the river to rise no leisurely up stairs. About fifteen minutes had elapsed from the time the man was the proprietors from giving the alarm the crowd that the reason why he does admitted to the house when Mrs. Allison save the perishing inmates of the ser-vants' quarters. In trying to save their until it was too late for the firemen to this, is to prevent a second flood, which his heard a noise up stairs as if some one was movements of "old Sol," saying: "A little noise, and had got about half way up the farther to the right, a little farther to the stranger, whom she had admitted, coming coming down stairs.

but all its actions are raccoon. It was the man. "I have just shot and killed my The man had his hands in the pockets of proportions became developed. It is the his overcoat, and walked so slowly and appeared so unconcerned that Mrs. Allison chievous in its disposition. It has the pe-culiar pacing walk of a raccoon, and when A minute after he left the place Mrs sharply assailed on account of its man- its hind quarters like that animal. The Allison went up stairs to Maud Merrill's room. The door was closed and she rap. A dentist in Mer.den, Conn., has aban- ped two or three times without eliciting subject. He explained that the measure doned his implements of torture to pro an answer. She turned the knob and found turn to his digging and boring in the laws of the people. It is his best hold on their sensibilities, and the surest way of bring ing thereto a sense of their fallen and corrupt condition.

would on the left side about ten menes to the left of the median line, and about three inches below the nipple.

As soon as Mrs. Allison recovered from her fright she attempted to waise Mand from the floor. Mand was dead. Horrified at what had happened, and almost speech-

Mr. Joly and Mr. Holton taunted Mache Chauveau with having been forced to yield to pressure, and construed the adoption of the new policy into an acknowledgment of abuses under the old system.

A case of considerable importance to kid glove importers is now pending in the U. S. Treasury Department. A Boston firm represent that they have a manufactory in Naples producing kid gloves made of sheep skins. The invoices are represented to the police station. The murdered woman was about twenty years of age. She was born in Cork, Ireland, and had been in this country about two sented to have been marked at cost price, and had been in this country about two forms the fight she attempted to waise Manufactory to the fight she attempted to waise Manufactory to make the fight she attempted to waise Manufactory to make the fight she attempted to waise Manufactory to make the fight she attempted to waise Manufactory to make the fight she attempted to waise Manufactory to make the fight she attempted to waise Manufactory to make the fight she attempted to waise Manufactory to make the floor. Manufactory at what had happened, and almost speech less with fright she. Allison recovered from the fight she attempted to waise Manufactory to make the floor. Manufactory at what had happened, and almost speech less with fright she. Allison recovered from the floor. Manufactory at what had happened, and almost speech less with fright she attempted to waise Manufactory at what had happened, and almost speech less with fright she. Allison recovered from the floor. Manufactory at what had happened, and almost speech less with fright she attempted to waise Manufactory at what had happened, and almost speech less with fright step floor the floor. Manufactory at what had happened, and almost speech less with fright she attempted to waise Manufactory at what had happened, and almost speech less with fright she attempted to waise Manufactory at which floor the floor. Manufactory at what had happened, and almost speech less with fright she attem beavers made a strange transfer tion, and they wandered about in full staft of the telegraph operator. Finally sliely remarked, looking toward the mysterious coachman, "Well, the carriage is waifing, we had better go now." and with formal bows to the only official there they took their departure. In a moment they were in the carriage and whirled out of sight. A quarter of an hour afterward they were missed, but from that time to this all search has failed to find them.

Church Robbery. The congregation of Dr. Talmage's Tabernacle, in Brooklyn, had their services Amusementsvaried last Sunday by as unusual and un- Notice to Contractors-For-nearly six months, a series of unaccountable robberies of the church contributions have been going on, and all at- Wool Goodstempts to unravel the mystery were un- Photographsavailing. The sums contributed were put into long boxes which were in turn placed in pigeon holes either side the Doctor's Bankrupt Stockpulpit; but before they could be emptied Bankrupt Saleof their contents by the Treasurer immedisappear, even though they were in plain sight of the congregation all the while. As one of the deacons was seated As one of the deacons was seated in his pew a few weeks ago, he saw one of the morey boxes slide inward in its hole, tuntil even the long handle disappeared, and then return to its place. The same phenomenon was observable in all in turn, and after the service the deacon examined the rack but could see no chance for the mysterious retrograde movement to take place. A couple of detectives were immediately set at work, however, and after several Sundays' watching, yesterday several Sundays' watching, yesterday caught Judson Shotwell, a 17 year old son of the sexton, who crept under the platform and ingeniously removed the wood-work from behind the boxes. Finding that his manœuvres had been found out he told the whole story. He said his brother, Long-street Shotwell, knew he robbed the boxes boys had brought upon themselves and him, he wept like a child. Both the young Montreal photographers are complaining that some of their craft ply their work on Moffat, A. M.; Ruías Rogers, D. M.; John

It is now believed that the spurious A. Paul, D. of C. mortgages and worthless deeds manufactured and sold by the Hudson County, N. J., ring, will foot up near $500,000. Seth Turner, President of the Shoe and bed Wednesday night in a New York horse and was waiting instructions. car. He had $25,000 in one pocket which escaped. The thieves secured nothing of Nursery Rhymesnahoqui Mrs. James Dugan, aged 55, was found in the cistern of the house in which she benefit this evening, playing "The Pretty lived, in Bangor, yesterday. She had Panther."

been missing since Monday. She is sup posed to have fallen in while getting water. Paul May, the young German charged with murder for having agreed to commit suicide along with Hermann Nagel, at tried at the Central Criminal Court, and and Toys, Dolls, &c., at Della To., or a verdict of "Not Guilty" was returned. There are several cases of small-pox in the vicinity of Bangor, and the Commercial says: "Our young lady compositors sprinkle carbolic acid on all items containable absence of the jury in the arson case affing the words small-pox or varieloid. They say there's nothing like being on the safe spectator. On his throne reclined the siderable importance, inasmuch as tradesdelirium tremens, aroused the inmates of the hotel shortly after midnight, and on The Daily Tribune is not excelled as their proceeding to his room he levelled a city advertising medium. revolver and fired three times in succession.

Fortunately, although one of the bullets treal, Tuesday. The prisoners awaiting entence were arraigned and condemned.

ectured in Bangor Wednesday night. The Commercial says: "Owing to the cense of kerosene smoke floating like a halo Solomon Allingham, and Alexand around the orator's head. During all this were appointed inspectors. A ste

LOCALS. For a list of Agents for the DAILY TRIBUNE see first page. For advertisements of WANTED, LOUT. FOUND, FOR SALE, OF TO LET, see Auction

New Advertisements. Advertisers must send in their favors efore 12 o'clock noon, in order to insure evangelical a proceeding as the capture of a thief and the reception of his confession.

A Silk Dress for a Christmas Present— Manchester, Robertson & Allison T. R. Jones

> AUCTIONS. E McLeod Paper Collars, China Ten Sets, &c-W. D. W. Hubbard

J. Boies De Veber

The wise man at Washington predicts another gale. Our coast is counted in on the occasion. The steamer New Brunswick, up to a late hour last night, had not left Boston, owing to the heavy snow storm and north easterly gale prevailing. Personal. Dr. Tupper is expected here this week. The Chief of Police being somewhat indisposed is confined to his house.

Alderman John Kerr left for Boston last night. Owing to the illness of Mr. Palmer Mr. and levied black-mail on him every time after he had made a raid. Over $600 has Tuck opposes Mr. Kerr in the case of Jack of the lines of Mr. Palmer Mr.

been abstracted in this way and been used for pocket-money by the sexton's sons. We be the father heard of the disgrace his elves and shake, drags, etc. The officers of Eldon, No. 2, L. O. L, elected this year are as follows : F. N.

Sundays, and are petitioning the Council Walsh, Chap; Jas. Eliott, Treas.; S. D. to enforce the by-law to prevent it. Crawford, Sec.; S. Keatley, Foreman Com.; A private despatch received here late last night stated that Charlottetown har bor was fast freezing and that the steame

> Dollie Bidwell played "The French Spy" last night to a good house. She takes her

Subscribe for the DAILY TRIBUNE, and have it delivered at your residence every

To know where to find the she Chelsea, England, in August last, was best assortment of Christmas Famoy Co's., Fancy Repository, King street.

dec13-3i Waiting for the Verdict. learned Judge, his long gown gracefully believe that under the revised census the feet placed on a chair and the TRIBUNE bepopulation of the various Provinces will fore his eyes. Beneath sat the venerable placed about as follows; Province of and respected clerk of the Circuits, also ntario, 1,620,855; Quebec, 1,191,575; occupied with the latest news, while New Brunswick, 288,777; Nova Scotia, around the barristers table were grouped 387,800; and Manitoba, 2,011. The city learned counsel and ambitious attorneys, of Halifax will number a population of sitting with eyes closed, calculating the The Cornwall Gazette says that it is no iron grasp of the law. Students, bewilder-The Cornwall Gazette says that it is no secret that Sir George Cartier's English physicians look upon his recovery as hopeless, and in consequence the firm of Cartier, Pominville & Betournay is being wound up, Mr. Pominville baying been appointed Collector of Customs at Montreal, and Mr. Betournay having received a Judgeship in Manitoba. ship in Manitoba.

Sounsel; the others sat listlessly in the dock.

During the absence of the Judge and Supreme Judicial Court of Maine that an assignment of wages not yet due is invalid, however good the consideration of the instrument may be, and even although it had been accepted by the employes of the assignment in writing. This decision is of consideration of the instrument may be an accepted by the employes of the assignment in writing. This decision is of consideration in the consideration of the Judge and prisoners the monotony was relieved by the delivery of a few strong sentences from Mr. Powers, who occupied, pro hac vice, the desk and seat of the Clerk. Mr. Powers displayed not only great forensic powers, but his knowledge of the rules of harmony. siderable importance, inasmuch as tradesmen have been in the habit of taking such assignment of wages as security for goods sunday night at a small hotel near the from his speaking ability, it could not be railway station, Montreal, a carpenter denied that Mr. Skinner's gown became named O'Malley, being attacked with him like a thing of beauty.

What is Her Name ? The Bangor Commercial says : "That St. grazed the hotel-keeper's head, no serious injury was done, and the police soon had the offender arrested.

There are 57 cases inscribed for hearing at the Court of Quarter Sessions at Monatthe Court of Quarter Sessions at Monatth

Two were sentenced to three years each in About 7 o'clock this morning fire was the Penitentiary, for burglary and theft; discovered in the office of Mr. George two more for larceny, will be sent there Thomas, Water street. The fire apparently for two years each. One of the latter, on hearing his sentence, in a very violent manner threatened to take the life of the Judge, who was obliged to order the police ly. The timely discovery of the smoke to remove him from the dock, a duty which was with difficulty performed.

Frederick Douglas, the colored orator, combustible ship stores. Meeting of Creditors. oldness of the night and frost in the A meeting of the creditors of Mr. Geo pipes, the hall was filled with a dim religi- Mills, an insolvent, was held at Greenwich. ous light .. so dim that Mr. Douglas could K. C., vesterday. A large number of pernot read his manuscript, and a kerusene womentended and of these forty had claims lamp not half filled was brought to the over $100, and were entitled to vote for reading desk. After a few minutes it assigned. Mr. 6; W. Burbidge was chosen flickered and went out, the inimitable inthe chilled andience kept time with their the affairs of the insolvent showed the nafeet and hands to imaginary music, and in sets to be $17,000 and the liabilities $13. the dusk looked like shadows, and, doubt 600. Four attorneys and a number other of gentlemen were present from St. John.