LADIES' BLOUSE-WAIST, WITH FITTED LINING.

No. 9378.—Another illustration of this blouse-waist is given at figure No. 166 B in this number of THE DELINEATOR.

Taffeta silk was here selected for this very attractive blouse-waist, which is supported by a well-fitted lining closed at the center of the front. The back has fulness in the lower part laid in closely-lapped plaits at the center and on its smooth upper part is applied a square yoke overlaid with lace net. Narrow square-yoke portions similarly overlaid with net form the upper part of pretty side-fronts that have full lower portions gathered at their upper edges and at the waist; and between the side-fronts is seen an ornamental center-front which is smooth at the top, gathered at the bottom and formed in groups of five tucks. The entire front puffs out in a graceful way, and the closing is made at the left side. The smooth effect at the sides is due to under-arm gores and the one-piece sleeves have coat-shaped linings which are gathered at the top; they are prettily trimmed at the wrists with ribbon. Similar ribbon forms a belt and stock, both of which are closed at the left side under a ribbon bow. The mode is suitable for dress wear if made of silk or fine woollet, while more simple waists will be made of serge or cashmere. A silk center-front would improve waists of woollen goods. Gimp or lace bands may be used to trim.

We have pattern No. 9378 in seven sizes for ladies from thirty to forty-two inches, bust measure. To make the garment for a lady of medium size, requires four yards and three-eighths of goods twenty-two inches wide, with three-eighths of a yard of lace net twenty-seven inches wide to cover the yokes. Price of pattern 1s. or 25 cents.

LADIES' RUSSIAN BLOUSE-WAIST. (TO BE MADE WITH A PEPLUM IN SQUARE OR ROUND TABS OR WITHOUT A PEPLUM.) KNOWN AS THE MOUJIK BLOUSE.

No. 9366.—This blouse-waist is a handsome Russian style known as the Moujik blouse. Black velvet was here used for it and a charming decoration is arranged with knife-plaitings of satin ribbon and passementerie in two widths. The back and fronts are plain at the top but have fulness at the bottom drawn in gathers that are tacked
