

the unveiling of the Louisburg historical monument in that year. His Honour m. July, 1859, Joanna, 2nd dau. of the late Sir Edward Kenny. Mrs. D. is V.-P. of the Local Council of Women for N. S.—Government House, Halifax, N.S.

"Few men possess better knowledge of Nova Scotia."—Can. Gazette.

DALY, Hon. Thomas Mayne, Q.C., is the 2nd s. of the late Thos. Mayne Daly, a well-known Con. politician who sat in the old Can. Assembly, and also in the Ho. of Commons after the union, by his wife, Helen McLaren, dau. of the late Peter Ferguson, of Stratford, Ont. B. at Stratford, Aug. 16, 1852, he was ed. at U. C. Coll., was called to the bar, 1876, and removed to Man., 1881. He was one of the first residents of the present town of Brandon, and was its first Mayor, being elected 1882. He had previously sat in the Stratford Town Council, and was Chairman of the Public Sch. Bd. Mr. D. was apptd. Chairman of the Western J. L. Dist. Bd., was a Bencher of the Law Soc. of Man., a mem. of the Bd. of Education of Man., and Presdt. of the Brandon Lib.-Con. Assn. He was created a Q. C., by the Earl of Derby, 1890. Returned for Selkirk to the Ho. of Commons at the g. e. 1887, he continued to hold a seat in that body up to the g. e. 1896, when he declined renomination. He entered Sir John Thompson's cabinet as Mr. of the Interior and Supdt. Genl. of Indian Affairs, Dec. 5, 1892, and continued to hold that portfolio up to the retirement of the Bowell Administration, Apl., 1896. In May, 1896, he was sent on a mission to Eng. and France in connection with a scheme for a complete reorganization of the Can. immigration system. Previous to leaving he was presented with a handsome testimonial to mark the Western stockmen's appreciation of his management of the Dept. of the Interior. While in Eng. he served as a del. to the Third Commercial Congress held in London, 1896. Towards the close of that year he opened an office in Rossland, B.C., for the practice of his profession. Politically he is a Con.; in religious faith, a member of the Ch. of Eng. He has always favoured Imp. Federation. He m. June 4, 1879, Margt. Annabella, dau. of P. R. Jarvis, of Stratford, Ont.—Brandon, Man.; Rideau Club; Manitoba Club.

DANA, George Augustus, legislator, is the s. of the late Alonzo B. Dana, formerly of Rensselaer, N.Y., who came to Brockville, Ont., 1809, and was thrice elected Mayor of that town. B. and ed. at Brockville, he has served as an ald. and as a water comnr. there, and has been twice elected to the mayoralty. Mr. D. held a comm. in the 42nd Batt. V. M., 1866-70, and he was on the directorate of the Can. Central Ry. previous to its incorporation with the Can. Pac. Ry. At present he is a contractor. A Lib. in politics, he was returned to the Legislature in that interest for Brockville, g. e. 1894. He is the author of "County Luck" and other plays.—Brockville, Ont.

DANDURAND, Raoul, barrister, is the s. of the late Edipe Dandurand, merchant, Montreal, by his wife, Marie Marguerite Roy. B. in Montreal, Nov. 4, 1861, he was ed. at the Montreal Coll. and graduated B.C.L. at Laval Univ., 1882. In Jan., 1883, he was called to the bar, and became a partner of his cousin, the late Joseph Doutre, Q.C., Montpelier. He still practises in that city, and is at present head of the firm of Dandurand & Brodeur. Conjointly with Chas. Lanctot he has published a treatise on criminal law, and manuals for justices of the peace and for police officers. He was apptd. a Dist. Magte., by the Mercier Admn., 1888, and was created a Knight of the Legion of Honour by the French Govt., 1891. A Lib. in politics, Mr. D. has served as Presdt. of the Club National, and has taken an active part in all political contests in Quebec during recent yrs. He has had the main responsibility in the organization of his party since