

the commission, either by the testimony of witnesses or by other evidence, that anything has been done or omitted to be done in violation of the provisions of this Act or of any law cognizable by the commission, by any carrier, or that any injury or damage has been sustained by the party or parties complaining, or by other parties aggrieved in consequence of such violation, the commission shall forthwith cause a copy of its report with respect thereto to be delivered to such carrier, together with a notice to such carrier to cease and desist from such violation, or to make reparation for the injury so found to be done, or both, within a reasonable time, to be specified by the commission; and if, within the time specified it is made to appear to the commission that such carrier has ceased from such violation of law, and has made reparation for the injury found to be done, in compliance with the report and notice of the commission, or to the satisfaction of the party complaining, a statement to that effect shall be entered of record by the commission, and the carrier shall thereupon be relieved from further liability or penalty for such particular violation of the law.

19. Whenever a carrier violates, refuses or neglects to obey or perform any lawful order or requirement of the commission, the commission or any person interested in such order or requirement, may apply in a summary way, by petition, to the county court or superior court of the judicial district in which the carrier complained of has its principal office, or in which the violation or disobedience of such order or requirement occurs, alleging such violation or disobedience, as the case may be; and the said court may hear and determine the matter, on such short notice to the carrier complained of as the court deems reasonable; and such notice may be served on such carrier, its officers, agents or servants in such manner as the court directs; and the court shall proceed to hear and determine the matter speedily as a court of equity, and without the formal pleadings and proceedings applicable to ordinary suits in equity but in such manner as to do justice in the premises, and to this end the court may, if it thinks fit, direct, and prosecute in such mode and by such persons as it appoints, all such inquiries as the court thinks needful to enable it to form a just judgment in the matter of such petition; and on such hearing the findings of fact in the report of the commission shall be prima facie evidence of the matters therein stated; and if it is made to appear to the court, on such hearing or on the report of any such person, that the lawful order or requirement of the commission has been violated or disobeyed, the court may issue a writ of injunction or other proper process, mandatory or otherwise, to restrain the carrier from further continuing such violation or disobedience of such order or requirement, and enjoining obedience thereto; and in case of any disobedience of such writ or other process, the court may issue writs of attachment or any other process of the court incident or applicable to such writ or other process, against the carrier, and if a corporation, against one or more of its directors, officers or agents, or against any owner, lessee, trustee, receiver, or other person failing to obey such writ or other process; and the court may, if it thinks fit, make an
