Crown and Bridge work New System Bridgework

Bridgework is the modern method of filling space caused by one or more missing teeth—without the use of a plate to cover the roof of the mouth.

It permits the fullest enjoyment while eating and does not interfere with the sense of taste.

It is performed without pain, is permanent, and in every way comfortable, being strong, clean, light and agreeable to the tongue and gums.

Even if the tooth be decayed and broken down to the gum line, and the nerve dead, the root can still be successfully treated and crowned, and restored to comfort and utility.

A Chat with Our Readers

JULY, the month of Western Exhibitions, is again with us, and on the 10th inst. the great Agricultural and Industrial Exhibition of Winnipeg will swing open its doors after many months of preparation. It will be followed in quick succession by Brandon and other cities and towns. At the two cities named this magazine will have tent accommodation for the benefit of its subscribers, and every reader will be made cordially welcome. When in Winnipeg a visit from you would be very much appreciated by us. The Western Home Monthly building is situated right in the heart of Winnipeg's commercial centre, at the corner of McDermott Avenue and Arthur Street. It might interest you to see the huge and extensive plant that is necessary for the production of a modern magazine, such as we aim to give you each month.

In July Western people take a brief respite from their labor, and meet together at fairs, to wonder afresh at their own growth, and to contemplate on the possibilities that as a people appear before them. It is a time when the products of the field, the forest and the mine, are brought side by side with the products of the shop, the mill and the factory. When town and country meet in friendly admiration of each other's powers and progress, when there is a common holiday which brings delight to young and old. It is not to be wondered that the people of this land grow enthusiastic as they reflect on the progress made and consider that the country has to offer.

Here are the contents of the July number. We feel confident that they will be found pleasing, interesting and instructive:

The publishers of this magazine have watched with keen interest the all round development that has taken place in all the Western provinces and have endeavored to keep the publication well advanced in the march of progress. That we have succeeded to a somewhat commendable extent is proved by the favor and appreciation of over 40,000 subscribers. Yearly they spend their good money freely with us, and the general opinion expressed is that they would not be happy without their favorite magazine. It is now in the sixteenth year of its career, started when the territory which it now covers so well, from the Great Lakes to the Pacific Coast, was but very sparsely populated. Even in these days it quickly made its way, and found a place in the affections of all our people who read the English language. We are told by our canvassing agents that in some districts it is rare to find a home that does not receive the magazine, and indeed many of our readers are now paid up to 1916, 17 and 18. We appreciate that summer is a busy season for many of our people, but even while in the midst of work preparatory to the harvest many opportunities are accorded our friends for saying a good word for the Western Home Monthly. Some of your neighbors may be recent arrivals in your district, and they would appreciate your courtesy in drawing their attention to a magazine which they would really enjoy reading, and which is essentially a Western magazine, published in the West for Western people.

Would you mind looking at the premium offers in this issue? They are really extraordinary value, and so seasonable that they will at once appeal to you. There is a splendid hammock of the very best make, and a complete fishing outfit, which will give you all manner of pleasure.

Rural Mail Route, No. 1, Adanac, Sask., April 15.

Dear Sirs,—I must write and tell you that I am more than pleased with my first number of the Western Home Monthly. It is well worth the money, and would not do without it now for any price. It is my best friend when I am all alone on Sundays out on these prairies. The journal does liven me up, for it contains good wholesome reading, to say nothing about hints and other articles worth reading.

Yours sincerely,
Fred E. Bowden.
