

River tours to continue

An experimental program which took Mississauga secondary school students on a tour of the Credit Valley watershed last year will be continued.

Geography and environmental studies students will have an opportunity in November, December and April to take the all-day watershed tour provided by the Credit Valley Conservation Authority (CVCA).

CVCA education officer George Roberts begins the day with a short in-class discussion. Then the students get a first-hand view of some of the water management problems in the 1,100 square kilometre Credit River watershed.

Students see examples of erosion and erosion control projects; flood control works such as dykes, diversions and channelizations; subdivision developments and their effect on water quality; and recreational use of conservation land, among other things.

There is no charge to Peel schools for the program. Teachers interested in participating should call Roberts at 451-1615.

Foster child

Lee has led a harsh life

Twelve-year-old Lee is a likable, responsive girl who has lived a harsh life.

With a spontaneous laugh and affectionate manner, Lee very much wants a foster family in which she is the only child.

She is often mistaken for being older due to her physical maturity, a factor that has led to harassment in the past.

A couple who are warm and secure in their own relationship, with affection to spare for this vulnerable girl would be ideal. Lee becomes easily attached so it is important for the adults to be sincere in their caring for her.

The Children's Aid Society will provide a daily rate of $8.47 for Lee's care, clothing and allowance.

Interested parties are asked to call 791-5151.

Clean City on display

Mississauga, the first city in Canada to adopt a litter-prevention program sponsored by Keep America Beautiful, will have a display installed at the upcoming annual convention of the Association of Municipalities of Ontario (AMO).

The convention is to be held at Toronto's Royal York Hotel Aug. 17 to 20. In a press release from Mississauga Clean City Campaign, Mayor Hazel McCallion says the 1,200 delegates should benefit from Mississauga's experience in the campaign.

The Mississauga campaign is looking for additional volunteers. Anyone interested should call 276-9282.
