Mr. Dunning has shown me your wire of October 28th, mentioning public reception Regina, Wednesday, November 20th, four to six; evening, Armouries, eight o'clock. Stop. I much hope it will be possible to have reception an hour earlier. Stop. Otherwise I would ask you kindly to arrange for reception from four to five. Stop. I find it absolutely necessary with heavy meeting in evening to have some chance of rest after afternoon reception. Stop. With kind regards,

Mackenzie King.
