

Ottawa, August 19, 1912.

Sir,-

I beg to acknowledge the receipt of your favour of the 17th instant, advising the Department that one Angus Dan G ----, an Indian, has been committed for trial on a charge of rape, and that he has asked you to defend him, and you want to know whether the Department will guarantee the costs of the defence.

In reply I beg to say that there does not appear to be any reason why the Department should undertake the defence of this Indian.

Your obedient servant,

Asst. Deputy and Secretary.
