

THE NUMBER OF MAN

The Climax of Civilization

By PHILIP MAURO

*Counsellor-at-Law, Author of "The World and Its God,"
"Man's Day," "Life in the Word," etc.*

Paper covers, 50c; by mail, 56c; cloth, 75c; by mail, 82c.

All thoughtful and observant people who are perplexed by the rapid changes in modern life will read with deep interest "The Number of Man: The Climax of Civilization." Interest in this author's works is increasing with every book from his pen; and the ever-widening circle of appreciative readers has eagerly welcomed this work, which sheds light upon the perplexing conditions of society, and the equally perplexing sequence of disquieting events which the daily newspaper reveals to us.

"There is not a dull paragraph in the 350 pages."—The Baptist.

"This book is one of great interest, and worthy of careful study with one's Bible."—The English Churchman.

THE WORLD AND ITS GOD

By PHILIP MAURO

New edition; enlarged and extended with additional chapters. Price: Paper, 15c; cloth, 35c.

The volume is written from the standpoint of one who was for upwards of twenty years an implicit believer in the main doctrines of Materialism.

MAN'S DAY

By PHILIP MAURO

Price: Paper, 50c; by mail, 56c; cloth, 75c; by mail, 82c.

Comparing the present age with past and future periods of time, the author describes, in the light of God's Word, the real characteristics of the age in which we live. Mr. Mauro gives utterance to the deepest truths in the simplest language; and his constant appeal to Scripture inspires confidence as with reverence and fidelity he marks the "signs of the times."

A. SIMS, Publisher of Christian Literature
805 Gerrard St. East, Toronto, Ont., Canada