The real heroines of every day are in our homes. Frequently, however, it is a mistaken and useless heroism.

Women seem to listen to every call of duty except the supreme one that tells them to guard their health. How much harder the daily tasks become when some derangement of the female organs makes every movement painful and keeps the nervous system unstrung? Irritability takes the place of happiness and amiability; and weakness and suffering takes the place of health and strength. As long as they can drag themselves around, women continue to work and perform their household duties. They have been led to believe that suffering is necessary because they are women. What a mistake!

The use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will banish pain and restore happiness. Don't resort to strong stimulants or narcotics when this great strengthening, healing remedy for women is always within reach.

FREE MEDICAL ADVICE TO WOMEN.

FREE MEDICAL ADVICE TO WOMEN. If there is anything in your case about which you would like special advice, write freely to Mrs. Pinkham. No man will see your letter. She can surely help you, for no person in America has such a wide experience in treating female ills as she has had. She has helped hundreds of thousands of women back to health. Her address is Lynn, Mass., and her advice is free. You are very foolish if you do not accept her kind invitation.

For proof read the symptoms, suffering and cure recited in the following letters:

recited in the following letters:

"Drar Mrs. Pinkham:—I wish to express to you the great benefit I have derived from your advice and the use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. My trouble was female weakness in its worst form and I was in a very bad condition. I could not perform my household duties, my back ached, I was extremely nervous, and I could not eat or sleep, and the bearing-down pains were terrible. My husband spent hundreds of dollars to get me well, and all the medicine that the doctors prescribed failed to do me any good; I resorted to an operation which the physician said was necessary to restore me to health, but I suffered more after it than I did before; I had hemorrhages of the womb that nothing could seem to stop.

"I noticed one of your advertisements and wrote you for advice, I received your reply and carefully followed all instructions. I immediately began to get stronger, and in two weeks was about the house. I took eight bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and continued following your advice, and to-day I am a well woman. Your remedies and help are a Godsend to suffering women, and I cannot find words to thank you for what you have done for me."—Mrs. Lottie V. Naylor, 1328 N. J. Ave., N.W., Washington, D. C.

pound I was completely cured. I am now a well woman and able to do all my work.

"I think your medicine one of the best remedies in the world."—Mrs. J. M. Lee, 141 Lyrdal St., Newcastle, Pa.

"Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done a great deal for me. I suffered so much from falling of the womb and all the troubles connected with it. I doctored for years with doctors' and other remedies but received only temporary relief.

"I began taking your medicine, and had not taken it long before I was feeling better. My husband said that I should keep right on taking it as long as it gave me relief from my suffering, as I could not expect to be cured by one or two bottles. I did so and am now able to be on my feet and work hard all day, and go to bed and rest at night. Thanks to your Vegetable Compound I am certainly grateful for the relief it gave me. It is the mother's great friend. I would not be without it in my house, for when I feel tired or out of sorts I take a few doses and feel all right.

"I would recommend your medicine to all tired mothers, and especially to those suffering as I was."—Mrs. R. F. CHAMBERS, Bennet, Neb.

The London Express prints this poem with a double reading. Read it as it stands and woman is highly flattered, but read alternate lines (one and three, two and four of each verse) and the sentiment is very much the reverse:

Happy a man may pass his life If he's directed by a wife; If free from matrimonial chains He's sure to suffer for his pains

No tongue is able to unfold The virtues in woman you behold; The falsehoods that in woman dwell Are almost imperceptible.

In woman's heart you'll see appear Truth, darling of a heart, sincere; Hypocrisy, deeit and pride, In woman never can abide.

He assumed a splendor even outvying royalty, and, like all favorites, grasped at riches and honors. At length the conduct of the Queen-Dowager and Mortimer became so openly scandalous that young Edward resolved to take action. The guilty couple resided in young Edward resolved to take ac-tion. The guilty couple resided in Nottingham castle, where every pre-caution was taken to secure their safety. A strong military guard was placed at the gates at night, while the keys were conveyed to the Queen. Eland, the governor, however, had been won over to the side of the young King. By him, Edward's followers were admitted through a passage under the castle still called "Mortimer's Hole." Making their way to the bedchamber the party burst open the door and killed two of Mortimer's friends who attempted to make a defence. Queen Isabella rushed in terror from her bed, imploring her "sweet s" "gentle Mortimer." "sweet son" to spare her in," were in vain. Yours, Mine and Ours.

Yours, Mine and Ours.

An excellent paper of anecdotes of Churchmen is contributed to the August number of Blackwood's Magazine by "Sigma." The writer tells several stories of Blomfield, Bishop of London. One of these arose out of the complex character of the Bishop's plentiful domestic circle, it appears that his Lordship married twice, and in both unions had been blessed with progeny, while his second wife was a widow, who, besides supplementing her second husband's family, had imported an independent brood of her own. "In my experience, the children of ecclesiastics do not, even under normal conditions, always exemplify the Christian unity so solemnly enjoined from the parental pulpit, and with such a blend as that which I have just denoted, it is scarcely surprising that unruffled peace was not invariably present unfer normal conditions among the miscellaneous offspring, the Bishop's roof. On one occasion when an unequal battle was raging fast and an unequal battle was raging fast and an unequal battle was raging fast sundy by the impetuous entrance of his day, "What is it, my dear?" he inquided with ill-concealed testiness. 'Oh, Bishop, 'she replied in agonized accents, 'quick, quick, there's not a moment to lose! Your children are siding with my children, and are murdering our children!"

The native Andamanese women have a curious custom. When a man dies his wife prepares his skull and wears it hanging at her side. There it answers ure her and in it she carries her jewels, her money and as much more of her valuable property as it will contain.

In some of the Swiss valleys the inhabitants are all afflicted with goitre or "thick neck." Instead of regarding this as a deformity they seem to think it a natural feature of physical development, and tourists passing through the valleys are sometimes jeered by the goitrous inhabitants, because they are without this offensive swelling. Thus a form of disease may become so common habitants, because they are without this offensive swelling. Thus a form of discase may become so common that it is regarded as a natural and necessary condition of life. It is so, to a large extent with what are called diseases of women. Every woman suffers more or less from irregularity, ulceration, debilitating drains, or female weakness, and this suffering is so common and so universal that many women accept it as a condition natural and necessary to their sex. But it is a condition as unnatural, as it is unnecessary. The use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription strengthens the delicate womanly organs and regulates the womanly functions, so that woman is practically delivered from the pain and misery which eat up ten years of her life—between the ages of fiftern and forty-five.

"Favorite prescription" makes weak women strong and sick women well.

used to meet many famous men and women. In which connection he recalls how on one occasion the Dean, taking the hand of a new arrival, said: "Come here, Matt, and let me bring you face to face with the man who says you are only a miniature Goethe." The new arrival was Matthew Arnold, to whom Mr. McCarthy had applied this expression in his history. But it was somewhat embarrassing to have the fact recalled in this way. Matthew Arnold, however, happily relieved the situation by the observation: "If you could only convince me that I am a miniature Goethe, how proud you would make me!"—Westminster Gazette. A well-known English surgeon was imparting some clinical instruction to half a dozen students who accompanied him in his rounds the other day. Pausing at the bedside of a doubtful case, he said: "Now, gentlemen, do you think this is or is not a case for operation?" One by one the students made their diagnosis and all of them answered in the negative. "Well, gentlemen, you are all wrong," said the wielder of the free and flashing scalpel, "and I shall operate to-morrow." "No, you won't," said the patient, as he rose in his bed; "six to one is a good majority; gimme my clothes."

single anointing preceded by a hot bath with Cuticura Soap, and followed in the severer cases, by a dose of Cuticura Resolvent, is often sufficient to afford immediate relief in the most distressing forms of itching, burning, and scaly humours, permit rest and sleep, and point to a speedy cure when all other remedies fail. It is especially so in the treatment of infants and children, cleansing, soothing and healing the most distressing of infantile humours, and preserving, purifying and beautifying the skin, scald and hair.

Cuticura Ointment possesses, at the same time, the charm of satisfying the simple wants of the toilet, in caring for the skin, scalp, hair, hands and feet, from infancy to age, far more effectually, agreeably and economically than the most expensive of toilet emollients. Its "Instant relief for skin-tortured babies," or "Sanative, antiseptic cleansing," or "One-night treatment of the hair," or "Use after athletics," cycling, golf, tennis, riding, sparring, or any sport, each in connection with the use of Cuticura Soap, is sufficient evidence of this.
