

INDIAN INDUSTRIAL SCHOOL

Few towns in America are so ideally situated from an hygienic standpoint, and certainly none between the Great Lakes and the Rocky Mountains can compare with Battleford in point of beauty. The Indian Industrial School, under the able management of Rev. E. K. Matheson, is proving a mighty educational factor, and can justly claim a place among the first in the Province. There is at present an energetic move towards securing the location in Battleford of a Catholic boarding college and the ssionate wish exists that an institution of this nature and of no small proportions will be located here in the near future.

The above description of our school system will undoubtedly impress upon the mind of the reader that Battleford possesses the greatest possible educational opportunities.
