

Les prisonniers de guerre américains décédés à Québec de 1812 à 1815

---

(Suite et fin)

— James Still, private soldier in the United States twenty-second Regiment of foot, from the state of Connecticut, a prisoner of war, aged twenty eight years, died august the thirty first, and was buried september the second in the year of Our Lord one thousand eight hundred and thirteen.

By me, Salter-Jehosaphat Mountain, officiating minister at Quebec.

— John Lewis, private soldier in the United States ninth Regiment of foot, from the state of New-York, a prisoner of war, aged forty-three years, died september the first and was buried september the second in the year of Our Lord one thousand eight hundred and thirteen.

By me, Salter-Jehosaphat Mountain, officiating minister at Quebec.

— Stephen Smith, private soldier in the United-States ninth Regiment of foot, from the state of Massachusetts, a prisoner of war, aged twenty-nine years, died september the fourth and was buried september the eight, in the year of Our Lord one thousand eight hundred and thirteen.

By me, Salter-Jehosaphat Mountain, officiating minister at Quebec.

— William Clarke, private soldier in the United States ninth Regiment of Foot, from the state of Massachusetts, a prisoner of war, aged nineteen years, died september the fourth, and was buried september the eight in the year of Our Lord one thousand eight hundred and thirteen.

By me, Salter-Jehosaphat Mountain, officiating minister at Quebec.

— A man unknown, supposed to have been an american prisoner of war, was found drowned in the river St-Lawrence september the seventh and was buried september the ninth, in the year of Our Lord one thousand eight hundred and thirteen.

By me, Salter-Jehosaphat Mountain, officiating minister at Quebec.

— Horace Hooker, a volunteer in the United States army, from the state of New-York, prisoner of war, private soldier, aged twenty-five years, died september the ninth, and was buried september the tenth, in the year of Our Lord one thousand eight hundred and thirteen.