

her streets, saying little to passers by, but living in the friendship and esteem of all. His last public service was the re-organization of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty. His earnest and intelligent utterances on that occasion will not soon be forgotten by those who were present."

A. A. STOCKTON.

U. E. Loyalist Memorials.

TORONTO, January 28, 1902.

TO THE EDITOR OF ACADIENSIS,

St. John, N. B.

SIR,—On looking over the back numbers of ACADIENSIS, which as a new subscriber I have just received, I observe a reference to the manuscripts of evidence taken by the U. E. Loyalist Commissioners in 1785 and subsequent years, which are deposited in the Congressional Library at Washington. The U. E. Loyalists' Association of Ontario, aided by a grant towards the expense made by the Provincial government, have had a copy made of these manuscripts, which is now in my possession. It is intended to publish these when arrangements can be made and a grant obtained for the purpose from the Provincial Governments of Nova Scotia, New Brunswick and Ontario. The thirty-five volumes (so called) contain about 1,200 pages. The work of getting this copy made, which was one of considerable difficulty, was undertaken at the suggestion of Mr. James Bain, Librarian of the Toronto Public Library, who himself examined the manuscripts, and, with a great deal of trouble and personal expense, succeeded in making the necessary arrangements.

Yours truly,

E. M. CHADWICK.