THE CHEAPEST PLACE.

(Weekly Scotsman).

"The cheapest place in the world is Antioch, in Syria," says a returned-traveler. "Being on the Mediterranean the climate is just right in the colder months. I once passed a winter there, and all it cost me was a pound a week, though I leased a fine house and kept three servants. For the house I paid twenty shillings a month rent, while the servants were satisfied with two shillings a week. Mutton cost there half-pence a pound Eggs were a penny a dozen, and chickens twopence half-penny each. The finest of fresh fruit and vegetables (in February, too) were so cheap that they were not sold in quantity. You got all you wanted for so much per week. All I required for my household cost me one shilling weekly. An American resident of Antioch told me that he and his family lived comfortably of £35 a year."

NEW ZEALAND'S LOW DEATH RATE.

The British Empire Review says that the general death-rate for New Zealand is 8.8 per 1,000. This is the lowest rate yet recorded. The same statement may be made with regard to the infantile death-rate, 51 per 1,000. These two death-rates, and also the death-rate from consumption—5 per 10,000—are the lowest recorded in any country. On the other hand, though there had been an increase in the birth-rate last year, New Zealand, with the exception of South Australia, has the lowest birth-rate in Australasia.
