To the careful Bible student the Scriptures present a wonderful pic-ture of the victory of Love, or Mercy, over Justice in God's great Plan of the Ages for man's recovery from the fallen condition into which the human race was plunged by the disobedience of Adam, the father of mankind. The Bible shows how our mighty Creator was able to provide for the rescue of the race from the penalty of DEATH, pronounced upon our first parents and inherited by all of Adam's posterity; and how this rescue could be accomplished with-out violation of the Divine decree or of the principle of justice, which God declares to be the very foundation of His Throne.—Psalm 97:2.

In the past, our lack of a knowledge of the true character of God has been one of our greatest difficulhas been one of our greatest difficul-ties. How could we copy the char-acter of the God of the Bible unless we understood Him? We have not properly known our God. Thus the Bible declares, "My people perish for lack of knowledge." (Hoses 4: for tack of knowledge." (Hoses 4: 6.) The necessary knowledge has been supplied by the Lerd in His Word; but in the main His people have permitted themselves to be drawn aside and misled by the great Adversary. By nature the highest organs of our head are those that tend ward love and reverence. Spirituality, veneration, hope, conscientious-ness, are the very highest qualities in our organism. Yet despite all this, error has been creeping in. The Bible tells us that the one to whom we should charge this imperfection is "your Adversary, the Devil."

God's work in the heart of the Christian is for the purpose of transforming him by the renewing of the mind.—Romans 12:2.

What a blessed thought it is, dear brethren in Christ, that we are get-ting rid of this blindness! The eyes of our understanding are indeed opening. The Apostle Paul thus prayed for the Church—"I pray for you, that the eyes of your under-standing being enlightened, ye may know what is the hope of your call-ing, and what the riches of the glory of His inheritance in the saints, and what the exceeding greatness of His power to us-ward who believe." (Ephesians 1: 16-19.) Further on, he prays, "that ye may be able to comprehend with all saints what is the breadth and length and height and depth, and to know the LOVE of Christ, which passeth knowledge, that ye might be filled with all the fulness of God."—Ephesians 3: 14-

True Love Founded Upon Justice. In our text the Apostle is showing us that in God's wonderful Plan for man's recovery from sin and death Divine Mercy, which means Divine Love, has triumphed over Divine Justice, and yet without impinging God's justice in the slightest degree. It is a very interesting and important study for us to learn just how this was accomplished; for if we do not see it clearly we shall have confused ideas of God's Plan as revealed in His Word. If we do see it clearly, many of the theological tangles which long have troubled and hindered us will be unraveled. We remember that it is written "Righteousness and Judgment [Justice] are the habitation of His Throne." God's whole Empire is Throne." God's whole Empire is founded upon Justice—not Love, but JUSTICE. We see the propriety of this. How else could He be the proper Administrator of the Universe! This statement does not conflict with the other Scriptural declaration, "God is LOVE." Justice is the very basis upon which true love is built. At first these two elements of the Divine character might seem to convine character might seem to con-flict, when we remember that while God's Justice demanded the punish-ment of the sinner, nevertheless His constitutes God's Justice, we must rid ourselves of the errors embodied in the creeds of the Dark Ages, whether these errors be Calvinistic, Arminian, or whatsoever they may be. We are astonished to-day at the monstrous errors held by some of these well-meaning forefathers of ours. Take, for instance, Jonathan Edwards, who doubtless was a wonderful man, of wide influence. believed in a literal Hell of fire and torture, into which the great major-ity of humanity were to be cast. He preached elequently upon the subject. When asked on one occasion whether Christians would not be unhappy in Heaven, knowing that the majority of their friends and relatives were suffering agony in Hell, he replied, "No; we shall be so changed that we shall not suffer in seeing our friends in Hell. We shall look over the battlements of Heaven and see their agony; and then, turning around, we shall praise God the louder that His Justice is made mani-

Minds Sadly Perverted. It seems past belief that an intelligent, sincere man could have so perverted an idea of justice. Can any sane mind to-day see any justice in a God who would create billions of human beings, with powers of feeling, with capabilities of the most acute suffering, who would permit them to be born into the world under conditions of weakness, prone to sin as the sparks to fly upward, surrounded by temptation, beset by evil angels, and who would then declare that if they did not live saintly lives and love supremely the God who thus created them they should be damned to an eternity of torture? Ah something is radically wrong with the brain of the man who can accept such a creed and worship such a God. Such is not the God of the Bible, but a monstrous Demon. The god that originated such a creed is 'the god of this world"—the Devil. No human being would ascribe such a character to any human parent. How, then, can any believe such a monstrous libel upon the character of the Ged of all grace! How strange that we should ever have been thus trapped by this wicked lie of Satan's!

Many who have long discarded the reeds of the Dark Ages still profess o believe them, and still retain mempership in the denomination which holds one or another of these creeds. No intelligent minister of our day believes these monstrosities of medieval doctrine. We need God's leading and teaching. The difficulty has been that we have leaned upon the creeds of human tradition, in-

Only a few highly figuratively statements could be so misinterpreted as Scriptures bear out this declaration.
Only a few highly figuratively statements could be so misinterpreted as to seem to teach otherwise. But when the symbolic character of such

when the symbolic character of such passages is recognized, they are seen to be in full harmony with the plain declarations of the Bible.

The pagan doctrines of the immortality of the soul, a trinity of gods, etc., are responsible for the great confusion of Christendom regarding the fundamental dectrines of the Word of God. There is not a word of Scripture for the almost universally accepted idea of the natural immortality of the soul. The Bible declares that man is mortal. How absurd the thought that God would so make a soul that even He could so make a soul that even He could not destroy it, under any circumstances, however desirable this might later prove to be! The generally accepted idea is that man HAS a soul. The Scriptural teaching is that man IS a soul. (Genesis 2:7.) It is man's physical organism that makes him superior to the brute creation. so make a soul that even He could The Doctrine of the Ransom.

What a marvelous mind must have been possessed by the perfect man Adam before his fall! The measure of the image of God possessed by mankind to-day is only what re-mains after the blighting effects of mains after the blighting effects of six thousand years of weakness and six. The perfect Adam, in his Maker's image and likeness, must have been a very wonderful and beautiful specimen of manhood, physically manually ma sically, mentally, and morally. The size and the shape of the head, the form of the features, the expression of the face, the poise and the car-riage of the body, the shape of the hands, the feet—all would proclaim the glorious perfection of the first

This perfect man brought the penalty of death upon his posterity, however, by reason of his disobedience of God's just commands. Therefore the whole Adamic race has been born in a dying condition. All man-kind came under sin and death con-

God's Justice demanded the punishment of the sinner, nevertheless His Love provided a way to bless that sinner, Let us see how the Word of God harmonizes these facts of theology.

This matter is very simple to understand in our day; whereas in the past our forefathers had great confusion on the subject. Many and cheated out of its dues; but Love gains the victory and provides the way out of the difficulty at the expense of the One through whom the short of whole Plan is consummated—our blessed Leve would override His Justice, and how this would be accomplished. Here was the difficulty at the way out of the difficulty at the expense of the One through whom the short of Walter Montgomery, a backelor farmer, aged 55 years, residing in the township of Madoc, was found in his drive house, and it is believed that the man was murdered. Mercy Finally Triumphant. The RANSOM is the very foun-dation of all of God's dealings with the race of mankind. It is even through that Ransom that He is now showing mercy. The Bible assures us that to the Logos, the Word, the Messenger — Michael, the Godlike One—God made the proposition that by the purchase of the whole race of Adam through His sacrifice He might obtain the honor and glory of Messiah—the epportunity of blessing the billions who had been condemned to death in Adam; and that then, as a reward, He should be supremely exalted, even to the Divine naturefar above angels, principalities, powers, and every name that is named.
—Hebrews 2:3; Philippians 2: 8-11. In God's due time, the Logos laid aside His glorious spirit nature, came to earth as a man, and by the grace of God tasted death for EVERY MAN. By purchasing the forfeited life of Adam, He purchases all who fell in Adam while yet unborn. It is only when we see the nature of man—that he is mortal, NOT immortal-and the penalty of sin-DEATH, not an eternity of torture—that we begin to see the significance of the death of our Lord esus Christ. He "gave Himself a Ransom [Greek, "antilutron," a Ransom [Greek, corresponding price] for ALL, to be testified in due time."—1 Timothy

2: 5. 6. For the Church the due time is in the present life. For the world it is during the thousand years of the Reign of Christ. All this is the triumph of Love over Justice. While Justice remains forever inviolate, yet Love is the victor. Mercy rejoiceth against Judgment—Justice. Christ and the Church will have the great work of uplifting the world from their degradation and of bringing them up to that full perfection. image and likeness of God, lost by Father Adam in Eden. Both Berlin and Sofia deny a retreat in this region, claiming that despite heavy attacks, many of which were delivered at night, the troops of the Central Empires and Bulgaria held their ground. The Roumanian invasion of Bul-

Bucharest makes no further reference to this move, but a wireless despatch from Rome, sent out by a news agency, declares that the "Roumanian raid was successful," in that it resulted in the destruc-tion of several Bulgarian military depots, and that the "invaders with-drew without the loss of a man."

Battle of the Somme Results in Slight Anglo-French Advances.

LONDON, Oct 10.-Local advances which bring the British nearer to Bapaume and the French to Peronne marked the fighting on the Somme. The battle has considerably diminished in violence since the setting in of bad weather, and although the artillery fire was heavy, no extensive actions were attempted.

In heavy fighting during Thursday night the Germans claim to have re-pulsed an attack made by the French gainst Fregicourt and Bouchaves aes, the sector where later General Foch's troops pushed forward. The German report indicates that reinforcements have been brought from the eastern front to withstand the allied pressure on the Somme. Gen. von Boehm-Ermoli, who for more than a year has been commanding an army in Galicia, is now one of the officers under Prince Rupprecht north of the Somme.

Under instructions from the con-sul general, Captain Wilson declined to give out further information. Consular officials said Captain Wilson's report first would have to be for-warded to the British ambassador at Washington before they could dis-cuss the sinking of the Strathdene. Members of the Strathdene's crew said that after they had pulled away from their ship, they saw the sub-marine approach the oil steamer Christian Knudsen, whose crew seemed to be getting ready to lower their beats. Offleers of the rescuing ship asserted the Strathdene's officers told them that the submarine was made fast to the tanker for three-quarters of an hour, taking oil, before that vessel was sunk.

Accounts of the torpedoing of the Strathdene, told on board the P.L.M. No. 4, by the rescued crew, corroborated Capt. Wilson's statement that his ship was fired on before the officers and crew got into the boats. Captain Yates of the P.L.M. No. 4 said Captain Wilson told him that when the submarine came alongside, eight er ten officers, including Cap-tain Rose of the U-53, boarded the Strathdene.
