BREAK SMITH'S NOSE AND KNOCK OUT HIS TEETH

MONTREAL, Dec. 28.—Showing superior condition and combination play, the champion Toronto won their first match of the N. H. A. season, when they beat Canadiens on Saturday night by 4 to 3, after a grueling contest. The quality of hockey served up by the champions and runners-up of a year ago was surprisingly good for the first of the season and did not drag at any time. The players cut out a killing pace in the early stages, and the Flying Frenchmen had to make frequent changes in an effort to keep a fresh team on the ice at all stages. This was where the winners had the edge on the locals, as they were enabled to send in more experienced and finished players as substitutes. The new-comers on the Frenchmen's line-up were Didier Pitre, who played last season at the coast, and Beliveau, who a year ago played with the Crescents of Halifax, in the Maritime League. The new man on the Toronto team was Carpenter, who was secured from Port Arthur. During a mix-up in the opening period Donald Smith had his nose broken, while in the second session he had three of his teeth knocked out through a blow from a stick in a scrimmage in front of the Toronto nets. This forced his retirement from the game.

OTTAWA TAKE OPENER FROM QUEBEC'S TEAM

QUEBEC, Dec. 27.—There was nothing fluky about Ottawa's victory over Quebec in the N. H. A. opening Saturday night. The locals were clearly out of condition, the Senators literally checking them off their feet. It was Ottawa's first win on Quebec ice since 1911, and it was a well-merited success. The score was 4 to 1, a pretty fair indication of the play. Ottawa has a splendidly balanced sextette, the forwards showing good combination, while Benedict's performance in the nets equaled Lesieur's best efforts. Crawford was easily Quebec's best on the evening's play, while Ritchie of Grand Mere, who made his N. H. A. debut, greatly pleased the fans and had the honor of securing Quebec's solitary tally on the finest individual effort of the match. A crowd of about 4,000, a large percentage being "boys in khaki," witnessed the game, which could hardly be called a first-class exhibition. The teams:—
Ottawa—Goal, Benedict; point, Merrill; cover-point, Shore; forwards, Gerard, Darragh, Broadbent.
Quebec—Goal, Moran; point, Mum-mercy; cover-point, Hall; forwards, Malone, Crawford, McDonald.

Referee—Riley Hern. Judge of play—D. Power.

ONLY GOAL OF GAME IS AGAINST KINGSTON

CLEVELAND, Dec. 28.—Trumble of Cleveland went in late in the second half Saturday night and shot the only goal of the game against Kingston Frontenacs. The play was fast and somewhat rough throughout, and the Frontenacs were in better form than on Friday. Their attack was a little better, but their defence had improved greatly. The line-up:—

SAGE TEA PUTS LIFE AND COLOR IN HAIR

Don't Stay Gray!—It Darkens so Naturally That Nobody Can Tell.

You can turn gray, faded hair beautiful and lustrous almost overnight if you'll get a 50-cent bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound" at any drug store. Millions of bottles of this old, famous Sage Tea Recipe are sold annually, says a well-known druggist here, because it darkens the hair so naturally and evenly that no one can tell it has been applied.
Those whose hair is turning gray, becoming faded, dry, scraggly and thin have a surprise awaiting them because after one or two applications the gray hair vanishes and your locks become luxuriantly dark and beautiful—all dandruff goes, scalp itching and falling hair stop.
This is the age of youth. Gray haired unattractive folks aren't wanted around, so get busy with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur tea to-night and you'll be delighted with your dark, handsome hair and your youthful appearance within a few days.

BRILLIANT RAID BY BRITISH CRUISERS AND SEAPLANES ON CUXHAVEN NAVAL BASE

Six of the Seaplane Fighters Returned—One is Missing, Lieut. Hewlett.

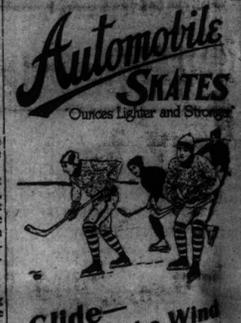

LONDON, Dec. 28.—Assisted by light cruisers, destroyers and submarines seven British naval airmen, pilots, seaplanes, made a daring attack Christmas Day on the German naval base at Cuxhaven, at the mouth of the Elbe. Six of the airmen returned safely, but the seventh, Commander Hewlett, is feared, has been lost, as his machine was found off Heligoland, wrecked.
What damage was done by the bombs thrown by the attacking party could not be ascertained, but the German report of the affair says that the raid was fruitless.

A DAYLIGHT ATTACK
The Official Press Bureau gave out the following statement to-day regarding the British raid on the German coast:—
"On Friday, December 25, the German warships lying off Schilling Roads, off Cuxhaven, were attacked by seven naval seaplanes piloted by Flight Commanders Oliver Hewlett, Boss and Kilner, Flight Lieutenants Miley and Edwards and sub-Lieut. Blackburn.
"The attack was delivered in daylight, starting from a point in the vicinity of Heligoland. The seaplanes were escorted by a light cruiser and destroyer force, together with submarines. As the ships were seen by the Germans from Heligoland, two Zeppelins and three or four hostile seaplanes and several hostile submarines attacked them.
"ZEPPELINS PUT TO FLIGHT
"It was necessary for the British ships to remain in the neighborhood to pick up the returning airmen, and a novel combat ensued between the most modern cruisers and the enemy's aircraft and submarines. By swift maneuvering the enemy's submarines were avoided and the two Zeppelins were easily put to flight by the guns of the Undaunted and Aetna.
"The enemy's seaplanes succeeded in dropping their bombs near our ships, but without hitting any of them. The British ships remained for three hours off the enemy's coast without being molested by any surface vessel. One of the returning airmen, Lieut. Hewlett, was picked up by British submarines, which were standing by. Their machines were then sunk.
"MACHINE WRECKED
"Six out of the seven pilots returned safely. Flight Commander Hewlett is missing. His machine was seen in a wrecked condition about eight miles from Heligoland, and the fate of the daring and skillful pilot is at present unknown.
"The extent of the damage by the British airmen's bombs cannot be estimated, but all were discharged at points of military significance.
"THE GERMAN ACCOUNT
"BERLIN, Dec. 28.—The German Admiralty made the following announcement Saturday:
"On Dec. 25, eight British ships made a dash into a German bay. Hydro-aeroplanes, conveyed by them, made an advance against the houbins of German rivers and dropped bombs on ships lying at anchor and a gas tank near Cuxhaven, without hitting them or doing damage.
"The hydro-aeroplanes were fired at, and withdrew in a westerly direction. German airships and aeroplanes reconnoitered against the British forces, and succeeded in hitting with bombs two British destroyers and one other vessel of the convoy. On the latter fire broke out.
"From the reference to a continuation of the fighting.
"From the reverted to Cuxhaven in the German announcement it would seem that the German river indicated but not named were the Elbe and Cuxhaven is a fortified seaport of Germany, 58 miles west-northwest of Hamburg. It is at the AVENGE EAST COAST RAID

Among the items given out by the Berlin Press Bureau to-day were the following:
"Commenting on the British visit to a German bay, Count Reventlow, the eminent naval authority, says it undoubtedly was an answer to the German bombardment of the British coast, dictated by the British Admiralty's desire to influence public opinion at home."
"RAID LASTED AN HOUR
"HARWICH, Dec. 28.—According to reports received here to-night, the British raid on Cuxhaven lasted for about an hour, but the atmosphere was so thick that it was difficult for the airmen to achieve their purpose, despite the excellent organization of the operation.
"It is stated on authority that neither British nor Germans suffered any casualties or serious damage, except the loss of the British commander, Hewlett, and four seaplanes.
"ACTION OF SINGLE SPOONFUL SURPRISES MANY
"Brantford people who bought the simple mixture of buckhorn bark, glycerine, etc., known as Alder-ika, are surprised at the INSTANT effect of a SINGLE SPOONFUL. This remedy is so complete a bowel cleanser that it is used successfully in appendicitis. Alder-ika acts on BOTH upper and lower bowel and ONE SPOONFUL relieves almost ANY CASE of constipation, sour or gassy stomach. ONE MINUTE after you take it the gases rumble and pass out. M. H. Robertson, Ltd., druggist, General Kelly-Kenny, who served in South Africa, died in Britain.

AN AMERICAN TRIBUTE.
(Wall Street Journal)
It has been said before in these columns that our foreign commerce depends upon Great Britain ruling the waves. She accomplished an enormous and largely unappreciated triumph in bottling up the German fleet from the outset. She is cleaning up the sporadic German cruisers which, with great gallantry, intelligence and skill, have made some avenues of maritime trade unsafe.
