RETURNED SOLDIERS IN CIVIL SERVICE

Government Determined Preference to be Given to Them.

MODIFICATION OF PENSION SCHEME

Premier Borden Spoke in Favor of Technical Training for Soldiers.

Ottawa, Feb. 10.—That preference will be given in future civil service appointments to returned soldiers who can fill these positions, and that the country will never allow a Canadian who went to the front, "to stand on a street corner and pass the hat," was made evident during yesterday's sitting of the House of Commons. Mr. W. S. Middlebro, of North Grey, precipitated a discussion on this subject when he moved a resolution declaring that in future civil service appointments properly qualified candidates who have served with the Canadian expeditionary forces should receive first consideration. That this was the general opinion of the House was indicated by the tenor of the debate which followed. The discussion was ended by the Prime Minister who read to the House an order-in-Council passed last Fall by the Government.
It was indicated in the Prime Minister's remarks that there may be modifications in the scheme of pensions tabled last session. Sir Robert Borden declared that the matter would be considered later in the session when it was hoped that more suggestions would be received from members of the House. The Premier said it was his belief that the Provincial Government were prepared to give preference to returned soldiers in appointments in their civil services.
TO TRAIN RETURNED MEN
He also expressed himself on the subject of technical training for disabled soldiers, which would fit them to carry out their own living, asserting that the best service which could be done any man was to enable him to make his own way.
After the adjournment of the debate on Mr. Middlebro's motion the House took up the estimates in various departments under the head of Civil Government. In Committee of Supply the Prime Minister announced that the Minister of Public Works of Toronto, and Marchand, of Montreal, as architects, to examine the walls of the burned Parliament Buildings and to report whether or not they could be repaired. The question had been raised whether the new building should conform to the plan of the old building or whether the new building would be possible to make a statue of the House.
Public Works department in preparing the Museum Building for occupation by Parliament came in for commendation by Hon. George F. Graham.
Sir Robert Borden announced during the sitting that the discussion of the question of prohibition raised by several members of the House on the other paper, would probably take place on Monday next. He also informed that Sir Thomas White would deliver his budget speech on Tuesday.

SMITH-DORRIEN HAS RESIGNED

Given Up African Command Owing to Ill-Health.

GENERAL SMUTS SUCCEEDS HIM

Minister of Interior for S. Africa Made Lieutenant-General.

London, Feb. 10.—General Sir Horace Lockwood Smith-Dorrien has relinquished the command of the British forces operating in East Africa, owing to ill-health, it was officially announced last night.
Last November, when the Union contingents for East Africa were being formed, the Government offered the command to General Smuts. For various reasons, he was then unable to accept it. Now it has again been offered to General Smuts, who, in the circumstances, accepted.
General Jan Christian Smuts, the Minister of the Interior, Mines and Defences of the Union of South Africa, has accepted the vacancy, with the rank of temporary Lieutenant-General, the announcement added.
On December 14, last, General Smith-Dorrien, who has commanded the British second army in Flanders, was appointed to the supreme command of the forces operating in East Africa. That he was in active command there was indicated as recently as January 25, when an official statement issued in London embodied a report from him on the satisfactory progress that was being made with the campaign.
While the British expedition against German East Africa was organizing in November, General Smuts was placed in command and early in December announced that the entire force asked for the expedition had been recruited. The sending of General Smith-Dorrien to Africa to take the supreme command of all the forces for the East Africa operations followed shortly thereafter.

Germany is Now Fearful of General Peace Meeting

Amsterdam, Feb. 10.—The Koelnische Volks Zeitung, discussing peace possibilities, asserts that Germany will never consent to enter a general peace conference, but will only consent to negotiate with each individual enemy. Germany takes the ground, the paper adds, that the general conference would give Great Britain the upper hand.

Originator of Raids Forgotten

Posterity Will Not Remember the Nation That Started Them.
London, Feb. 10.—The Daily Sketch to-day editorially argues against Zepelin reprisals. It says:
"We are fighting in this war for so great a cause that we must be very careful not to muddy it. Who it was that first began the air raids would be quickly forgotten by history—this would simply have been a ruthless war on both sides."

SQUINTING Is Not a Habit

"You should try to overcome that habit of squinting," is a bit of advice to old and young alike.

Skoda Factory Much Damaged

Three Hundred Killed, Several Hundred Injured, and Many Cannon Ruined.

By Special Wire to the Courier.
Paris, Feb. 10.—A despatch from Bucharest to the Balkan Agency, and which was delayed for five days, states that the damage to the Skoda armament factory in Bohemia was more serious than at first reported. Rumanian official circles, the despatch says, have received confirmation from Vienna of the destruction of all the cannon which were in course of manufacture, as well as all the plans and drawings in the draughting offices. The dead number nearly 300 and several hundred were injured by the explosion which caused the disaster and which is said to have been the work of criminals who employed melinite for the purpose. The despatch adds that the Austrian military censorship has prohibited the publication of any news of the disaster in Austria-Hungary.

ANTI-GERMAN SPIRIT BREAKS OUT IN WEST

Calgary Restaurants, Accused of Employing Germans, Smashed Up.

SOLDIERS DID THE DAMAGE

Neither Their Officers, Police or Firemen Could Stop Them.

Calgary, Feb. 11.—A mob of several hundred soldiers completely wrecked the White Lunch restaurant, on Eighth avenue east, last night, following up the work of destruction by wrecking the premises of the same concern on Ninth avenue.

A rumor that the manager had dismissed returned soldiers who had been hired as waiters, and had replaced them with Germans, was responsible for the attack.

F. H. Naegel, the manager denied that he had dismissed any returned soldiers, or that he had hired any Germans, but said that he had occasion to dismiss a man who had at one time been a soldier, but was not now with the overseas forces, and had notified the police and the military authorities.

Soon after nine o'clock about five hundred soldiers from four battalions ried to the scene. All customers were sent out and the doors locked. When the soldiers arrived the chief asked them to disperse and not to behave in an unruly manner. He was disregarded, and as a preliminary a shower of missiles went crashing through the plate glass windows. A woman was slightly hurt, and Police Constable Fraser so badly cut by flying glass he had to go to the hospital.

OFFICERS HELPLESS.
The policemen were swept aside like chips in a gale and soon the mob did its will with the place. The crowd was increased to two thousand and the officers were helpless. The furniture, fixtures and cooking apparatus were smashed to fragments. Marble counters and stands looked as though artillery shells had been opened and looted. Coffee urns and gas stoves were torn from their places. Electric fixtures were pulled down. The street outside was littered with wreckage. The safe was thrown down stairs into the basement, breaking the stairs. The fire department was called out, but could do nothing but look on while the surging mob of about seven hundred men with a number of civilians wrecked the restaurant.

DANCING ACADEMY ATTACKED
MacKinnon's dancing academy on the second floor was not spared. Civilians were mostly in evidence here, as it is said, it was not the intention of the soldiers to attack the academy. The windows were smashed and the
