CURING SKIN TROUBLES

So many people, both men and women, suffer from skin troubles, such as eczema, blotches, pimples and irritation that a word of advice is necessary. It is a great mistake for such sufferers and those with bad complexions to smear themselves with greasy ointments. Often they could do anything worse, for the greasy close the pores of the troubled skin and their condition actually becomes worse.

When there are pimples or eruptions, or an irritating or itching rash, a soothing boracic solution may help to allay the irritation, but of course that does not cure the trouble. Skin complaints come from an impure condition of the blood and will persist until the blood is thoroughly purified. It is well known that Dr. Williams' Pink Pills have effected the best results in many forms of skin troubles and blemishes. This is due to the fact that these pills make new rich blood, and that this new blood attacks the impurities that give rise to skin troubles and dispenses them; so that Dr. Williams' Pink Pills cure skin disorders from within the system—the only sure way.

It should be noted that Dr. Williams' Pink Pills have a beneficial effect upon the general health. They increase the appetite and energy and cure diseases that arise from impure blood.

You can get these pills through any medicine dealer or by mail at $2.50 a box or six boxes for $15.00 from Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

fifty yards in front of it digging a new line. At that time we were in line with the village of Courcellette, which had been occupied by the rest of our regiment after some heavy fighting.

The Fifteenth Division of Imperialists on our right, met with some difficulty here, and fell back again. For a time we were afraid of being cut off, but the gallant Fifteenth came back again and gained its objective. I may say that this was the first time the famous tanks were used. There was one lying in readiness behind us that night of the 14th. It came across with us that next morning and certainly put the fear of God into old Fritz. It did great execution, and the last I saw of it was lumbering up through Courcellette, grinding down everything that came in contact with it, its machine guns spitting fire from every loophole. By this time the German artillery had got very busy and were treating us to a heavy barrage fire.

I was wounded by Shrapnel.

We had just received orders to advance another hundred yards in order to link up our right flank with that of the Imperial troops, who were engaged in fierce fighting. I started across, got about thirty yards, when suddenly I thought the whole world had fallen on me. My rifle and bayonet were sent flying out of my hands; I shot forward on my face. A shell had exploded close beside me; a splinter about the size of a marble (it was really a shrapnel ball) had hit me on the elbow, smashing the joint.

Covered with mud, blood and my clothes in rags, I stood up and looked around. My arm was hanging useless at my side, so I decided there was no use in going any further. I made my way back to the rear over shell holes filled with dead and dying, over ruined trenches. Each minute I thought would be my last, as the German artillery by this time was making up for lost time. However, I reached the advanced dressing station. From there I was sent to Albert. I walked all the way, nearly four miles as the ambulances were too busy. Arriving at Albert I was immediately inoculated, as this is one of the first things they do. However, the wounded were coming in so fast that many men were sent on from here without being properly attended to. I travelled 30 miles down the line in a cattle truck with 40 others and no splint on my arm. I arrived at Clearing Station Chesley, 30 night of the 15th. Here I was immediately operated on and my arm put in a splint. By this time I was all in, the arm had swollen to three times its normal size, being twisted right around and festering discolored, due to infection. I was in this hospital for 24 hours, then I was removed to the 3rd Australian General in Boulogne. I was well attended to here, and after stopping 10 hours was sent across to England, arriving at Dover. From there to a hospital in the north of England, where I spent four and a half months. Later I was transferred to a Canadian hospital in Middlesex, and being pronounced unfit for further service was sent back to Canada.

I arrived here on April 1 and was discharged from the army in Toronto on May 20. I came back home here and am now one of the has-beens after spending fourteen months in France and Belgium as an infantryman.

I should like to say I saw all the ground taken from the Germans in the great advance on July 1, 1916; Albert Ridge, Posters, Contalmaison, Martinpuich, Thiepval, Monquet Farm; and I should like to pay a tribute to those troops who drove prostrate German regiments out of positions, which they had held for nearly two years. The 26th Ulster Division and also divisions of London troops were the men who accomplished this task. Men who a few short months previous were clerks, etc., and probably up to then had never handled a rifle before. In fact, while in training they were known as the milkop army.

Yet they drove the Germans from ground which they boasted could never be taken from them. On the Posters road are trenches ten and twelve feet deep, with dugouts 20 feet below ground, some capable of holding half a company. Their trenches commanded a view over the whole countryside, and gave them excellent artillery observation, of which they took full advantage. This is the sort of ground the milkop army took and held on July 1, 1916, despite heavy losses.

The Canadians are one of the toughest and finest bunch of fighting men in the world; that is their business; but there are two forces better—the First British expeditionary force and the men who started the great advance on July 1. To both of these I shall always take off my hat.

MR. MARRIOTT
78 Lees Ave., Ottawa, Ont.,
August 9th, 1915.

"I think it my duty to tell you what 'Fruit-a-tives' has done for me. Three years ago, I began to feel run-down and tired, and suffered very much from Liver and Kidney Trouble. Having read of 'Fruit-a-tives', I thought I would try them. The result was surprising. During the 3 years past, I have taken them regularly and would not change for anything. I have not had an hour's sickness since I commenced using 'Fruit-a-tives', and I know now what I haven't known for a good many years—that is, the blessing of a healthy body and clear thinking brain".
