SCHOOL CELEBRATES ARBOR DAY

Large Gathering and Good Interest Shown by Parents—The Sports

Arbor Day was well celebrated by the Hartland schools. The morning was taken up in beautifying the house and grounds and at 1:30 the children with their parents met on the grounds for a general good time. The first event was a parade of the scholars through the main streets of the town, the children from each department marching in separate groups. Their sunny faces clean and shining for once and all dressed in the gayest of holiday attire they looked very sweet as they marched, each carrying a Union Jack and all voices blended in patriotic songs. Afterwards various contests among the scholars resulted in the following:

Boys' primary race—E. Downey (bag of oats, J. T. G. Carr), Howard Allen (20c, Mayor Kelly). Girls' primary race—Martha McCollum (hair ribbon, W. D. Keith), Juanita Shaw (rubber ball, J. T. G. Carr).

Boys' race, 1st Inter.—David Davenport (20c and handkerchief, Mayor Kelly and Hartland Clothing Co.), Clayton Price (40c, Mayor Kelly).

Girls' 1st Inter.—Pauline Lipsett (hair ribbon, F. E. Plummer), Edith Dickman (rubber ball, J. T. G. Carr).

Boys' 2nd Inter.—Arthur Rigby (chocolates, V. W. Simms), Girls' 2nd Inter.—Mabel Nevins (cane of soap, Hartland Drug Company).

Boys' advanced—Howard Taylor (hair brush, C. E. Violette), Girls' advanced—Molly Neale (brooch, C. E. Violette), Mary Birmingham (soap, Hartland Drug Company).

Boys' jump for boys—Arthur Rigby (13 1/2 ft. jumpers, F. E. Sayre), Small boys jump—Harry Bradley (chocolates, D. E. Morgan & Son).

Boys' potato race—Arthur Rigby (knife, C. E. DeWitt), Girls' potato race—Sybil Craig (chocolates, H. R. Nixon), Pearl Saunders (20c, Mayor Kelly).

Bag race—David Morgan (chocolates by Kelly & Curtis Co., Ltd.), Howard Thornton (pencil box, Farmers' store).

There were other races that added and prizes were donated for these by Thornton Fruit Co., F. E. Sayre and the Farmers' Store. These will be contested for at a later date.

The violent exercise put the kids in good trim for the good supper which followed immediately thereafter.

Through the kindness of A. W. Kyle all the children were taken to the moving pictures and were provided with a box of big red apples. Everyone, parents and children, were delighted with the day's pleasure.

The teachers of the school wish the parents to know that they are always at school, at work and the assistance and co-operation of the parents is always needed, not only at the special events but at every session, every day. Go and see that your child is getting what he or she needs, a good education.

W. W. G. MEETS

day in their regular monthly session which was also the annual meeting. The local Guild was organized last year and is an auxiliary of the United Baptist church and its membership consists of young women of the congregation. The chief business on Thursday evening was the presentation of a life membership certificate to Mrs. H. A. Trites, wife of the pastor. Several new members were initiated. There was also a nice program which included readings, choruses and a solo by Miss Myrtle Trites. Afterwards half an hour was spent in making bandages for White Cross work. Later refreshments were served. The next meeting will be held at the home of Miss Myrtle Trites when new officers will be elected.

MOTHERS' DAY

Mother's Day was observed in the Methodist church by having a special program suitable to the subject in the Sunday school. The program was opened by remarks by the pastor, Rev. J. K. King. Quatuor by four little girls, Margaret Stevens, Reta Taylor, Irene Barker and Gladys Moore; recitations by Irene Barker, Gladys and Winnie Moore; a reading by Mrs. W. Nixon and another quartette by the girls.

At the evening service Rev. J. K. King gave a strong sermon, the subject being "The wonderful mothers of the great men of the Bible," proving what a wonderful thing a good mother is and how she should be honored.

Appropriate music was given; a solo and chorus entitled "Mother's Hymns" was much appreciated, Mrs. C. H. Taylor taking the solo part very sweetly. Another chorus was entitled "Let's Wear a Flower for Mother's sake." "Home Sweet Home" was played during the offertory.

The church was made beautiful by profusions of flowers both potted and cut.

There was hardly a member of the congregation but wore either a white or red flower which goes to show how popular the day has become in which to show outwardly one's honor of their mother, living or dead.

In the United Baptist church the sermon by the pastor in the evening was appropriate to the day as was also the music by the choir which included a number of songs and a solo by H. B. Adams—"Tell Mother I'll be There."

MEETING OF WOOD-

STOCK DEANERY

The Woodstock Deanery meeting was held this week at Andover. The proceedings opened by the Deanery service on Tuesday evening at 7:30. The service on Tuesday was read by the Rev. A. J. Patstone, assisted by Rev. W. P. Haigh; the lessons were read by the Rev. E. C. Budd and the sermon preached by Rev. A. J. Patstone. On Wednesday morning there was a celebration of the Holy Communion at 7:30, the celebrant being the Rev. J. R. Delyes, rector of the parish, assisted by the Rev. L. A. Royster.

The business meeting of the Chapter opened at 9 o'clock and was read from the original Greek and discussed. A paper on Christian Unity was read by the Rev. J. R. Delyes and a most interesting discussion followed. Other business of routine nature was transacted.

DEATH OF RANDOLPH DAY

Randolph Day died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. L. A. J. Ward, on Sunday afternoon following a long illness of arterio sclerosis. He was 75 years of age and besides his wife he leaves one son, Frank C. Day, of Hotel Carleton, and two daughters, Mrs. Geo. L. Caldwell of Middle Simonds and Mrs. Ward. The funeral service on Tuesday afternoon was largely attended and was held in the church at Upper Brighton, where the body was laid to rest. Rev. P. J. Trullon of Fredericton was the preacher. Mr. Day was born at Upper Brighton and lived in this vicinity all his life. A man of upright character and of inoffensive nature, he had many friends who honored and respected him and who give to the family their sincere sympathy.

DO NOT FORGET CHAUTAUQUA WEEK

Will Commence Aug. 10—The Children to Have Prize Tickets—Guarantors Should Remember Their Obligation

The people should not forget that Hartland is to have a seven days Chautauqua, commencing August 19. It must not be forgotten that this is the big tent Chautauqua and that there will be two entertainments each day, afternoon and evening. Noted lecturers will give instructive addresses on pertinent topics, while vocal and instrumental musicians, in solos and in concert, will give the people the world's best music with most refined and delightful execution. Of course all entertainments will be very much like a course at a university and a season's entertainment in grand opera. Sunday afternoon there will be a program entirely appropriate to the day.

Through a misunderstanding by the local management last year, tickets were transferable. This season they will not be transferable. Last year some eighty people guaranteed to sell from 500 to 700 adult tickets or their equivalent, the adult season ticket giving two entertainments each day throughout the week and the Sunday service, or fifteen entertainments at about seventeen cents each, or $2.50. Children's season tickets for the same entertainments cost $1.00 or about seven cents each.

This means that our guarantors must sell eight adult tickets or their equivalent and that no person may be canvassed by each one of the eighty guarantors a complete schedule of each family will be made up and there will be furnished to our guarantors a list of persons whom each is expected to canvass. This will be done about two weeks previous to August 10. There must be a certain cash deposit made some time prior to the commencement of the event while all tickets must be sold and all returns made by the evening of August 9.

These facts are set forth at this time to refresh the memories of the guarantors. Through the efforts of A. W. Kyle who is secretary of the local Chautauqua organization twenty prizes will be given to the pupils of the town schools. A season ticket will be given to the girl and the boy in each grade who makes the highest general average. Those who have contributed to the purchase of these tickets are H. H. Hatfield $3, A. A. Ridout, C. E. Ridout, C. S. Baker, W. D. Keith, F. H. Kelly, A. W. Kyle, each $2, A. Plummer, F. E. Plummer, R. B. Hagerman, Lydia M. Reid, G. M. McLeod, G. E. Morgan, H. N. Dickinson, each $1, making a total of $23, which will be the cost of the two adult and the eighteen children's tickets. Those interested in the Chautauqua will recall that last year more tickets were sold than there were seats in the hall and some ticket holders were unable to avail themselves of the entertainments. This year the big tent will have seats for 1200 and ample accommodation for all with absolutely no danger from fire.

Between now and the opening date there is ample time for every boy and girl to work at odd jobs and save their pennies to make the dollar to buy their season tickets with.
