

TEA TABLE GOSSIP.

—Rev. Father O'Leary, of Cayuga, was in the city to-day. He was on his way to Oakville.

—Mr. Adam Zimmerman, M. P., was in Ottawa yesterday, but went down to Montreal in the afternoon.

—Rev. Canon Abbott left to-day for London, where he will preach anniversary services for the Dean of London.

—Prof. W. E. Genno and Miss Kathleen Patterson, the two fancy and trick roller skaters, will close their engagement at the Armory Roller Rink this afternoon and evening.

—The tableaux for the Dickens evening to be given on Monday, Oct. 28th, in the Conservatory of Music, by the Caxton Chapter, I. O. D. E., promises to be one of the treats of the season.

—Dr. Olmsted, who was the victim of a hold-up in front of his home on Thursday night, is not seriously injured, and will be about in a few days. It is thought that whoever tackled him used a sand-bag on him.

—The baths at East Hamilton Y. M. C. A. will be put in service to-night. Rev. J. A. Wilson, pastor of St. Andrew's Church, will speak, and the male quartette will sing at 4.15 at the men's meeting to-morrow.

—A. Hodyn and Joseph Marshall were before Judge Monck this morning on a charge of stealing pig iron from the G. T. R. Mr. A. M. Lewis appeared for them, and elected to be tried before His Honor, without a jury. Their trial was set for Tuesday.

—Warden Vansickle said this morning that he had instructed Superintendent Taylor to examine the bridge at Waterdown. Supt. Taylor found the bridge in a very bad condition. He reported the matter to Solicitor Bruce, and he wrote the G. T. R. regarding it.

—David Pearlstein, the cigar maker, who was arrested on Thursday morning for contempt of court, was given his freedom yesterday afternoon, after having written a humble apology to Chief Justice Mulock, and paying the costs of the action that was brought against him, amounting to about $1.25.

—Note the advertisement of Central Presbyterian Ladies' Aid Society for a sale of work. They will offer a great variety of useful and fancy articles at reasonable prices. As they give more than value at the Scottish luncheon, they will at this sale.

—At the last meeting of Court Pride, A. O. F., seven candidates were initiated into the mysteries of Forestry and 12 applications were received. Short addresses were delivered by J. J. Haygarth, P. D. C. R., George Welby, P. C. R., and the Court Surgeon, Dr. P. Coleman. The court will enter a team in parlor games for the Dodsworth Cup.

—The Grand Trunk Railway system wishes to announce that on October 30th and 31st they will sell round trip tickets at single fare between all stations in Canada, also to Detroit and Port Huron, Mich., Niagara Falls, Suspension Bridge and Buffalo, N. Y. These tickets will be valid for return until Monday, November 4th, 1907.

—Sale of men's underwear at Waugh's, post-office opposite to-night ... fleece lined fifty cents ... fine wool, seventy-five ... Penman's Natural Wool one dollar.

—Frank Onus, an employee of the International Harvester Co., met with a painful accident yesterday afternoon. He was working in the tool room when a large fork struck his face in some way and cut his nose badly, the lower half having to be sewn in place. He was taken from the work to the City Hospital on a stretcher.

—Readers should remember the auction sale by Thos. Burrows, Monday morning, at 10.30 a. m., at 102 Catharine street north, comprising handsome furniture, oil paintings, water colors, steel engravings, porcelains, silverware, china, etc., all of the best quality, belonging to the estate of the late John E. Parker, of this city. For full particulars, see ad.

—The Canadian Club will hold one of its regular meetings in its hall in the Conservatory of Music on Monday evening. The question up for discussion will be: "To what extent should Canada be permitted to make her own treaties with foreign nations?" Several members of the professions have been invited, and are expected to be present to discuss this question. In addition to this, any visitors will be welcomed to join in the discussion.
