NEWS ITEMS.

Of 1,574 male convicts discharged in Egnd last year, 929 were assisted by pris hid societies

Mr. Leighton has been elected President of Academy, in the room of the late Sir Francis Grant.

All the principle streets of London ar paved with wood, which is said to have proved incontestably superior to all other kinds of roadway.

A firm in England is negotiating with a Foronto export firm for 2,000 of grade Durham cattle, and 50,000 Cotswold and Leices er sheep, to be delivered pefore next June

Year by year public opinion is steadily turning against the Lord Mayor's show. Its utter absurdity and want of dignity is ad-mitted on all hands, and it is considered a decided nuisance to boot.

Lord Dufferin, in passing down Pall Mall, bis way to the Colonial Office, on the day of his return to London, was loudly cheered by gentlemen at the alph mind

Two mounted constables were taking a hief to prison in Nevada. As they were stables heres fell to the ground, the cords of the hind legs having been cut by ambush-ed friends of the thief, and he escaped.

During the last three years about $3,100-000 have been collected for charitable pur-poses by the Mayors of London. In 1876 the sum realized was about $190,000; in 1877, the Indian famine fund helped to swell the total to nearly $2,475,000; this year the res are about $425,000.

Miss Sallie Ward of Kentucky was at American belle of wide celebrity some thirty years ago, familiarly known as the "Great how She married. Mr. J. Bigelow Lawrence of Boston, from whom she divorced, and afterward Dr. Hunt and ny, both of whom died. The Washington Post says that she is soon to marry Mayor Downs of Louisville. Ington Post says that she is soon to marry Jenn has declined every offer, not desiring to have his son exhibited to the public.—N. It may interest Freemasons to learn that on X. Tomes.

the 4th inst., the Duke of Connaught and Prince Leopold were advanced to the 33°, at the neadquarters of the Ancient and Accepted Rite, 33 Golden square west, in the presence of the Prince of Wales, Grand Patron of the Order. The coremony was performed by Lord Skelmersdale, the Sovereign Grand Commander, assisted by the other member of the Supreme Council.

The Echo says that the abominable scandals which flood the newspapers are enough to arouse the indignant and passionate unmarried, and the throne is at the mercy wrath of every pure-minded marr and an accident or a crime. Almong the Bo weman. The tone of "Society" is more unhealthy than it has been since the days of Charles II., and makes the elders long for the return of the days when they had a Court which was a model of purity and a terror to evildoers.

A state of appaling distress and destitution mechanics and labourers of Scheffield in consequence of the business de-pression. Hundreds of persons are living in tenements, without clothing or furniture, which they have been forced to procure food. They are without fuel, and dependent upon They are without fuel, and dependent thd charity of their neighbours for nce. The Mayor has called a public meet ing to devise measures of relief.

Commander Cameron, the African Traveller, who is on his way to survey the overland route to India, has been astonishing th natives of Larnaca, by walking about in th streets of that town in the following cos-tume: —A white sun helmet, red puggaree light tweed suit, coat cut short; leather belt, with nistols in cases on each hip, cartridge pouches, and heavy hunting-knife ; and heav oots, half-way up the thigh, slouched a

The Shah of Persia refused, two years ago the application of an English company to reconstruct the dams of Awaz, which would enable a great part of the province of Ara-bistan to be irrigated by the waters of the irrigated by Karoon, and rendered fertile, as in former days. He has now ceded the right to a French company, together with a large area of territory. The work will begin in 1881.

The Plague of Addresses, &c. Communications.

In the second story of one of the low In the second story of the low, rickety wooden buildings on the east side of Chatham Street, in humble apartments, there lives one of the most curious of human mon-trosities. It is a boy, or man, 21 years and 6 months old horizon here here in 1957 For the "Agriculturist." The Wimbledon Rifle Team.

A Man-Baby.

arrested by this disease. The boy is not quite three feet high, but meesures four feet around the waist, being inordinately corpu-There has been the greatest fall of snow in England and Scotland known for many years. Business in various places has been guinessible. The Queen has taken her usual drives on shede honestly. Many shooting men think it impossible that they themselves can make a mistake, and imagine that a miss or bad shot must re-

King Alfonso is represented as having written to the Pope asking advice on the subject of contracting a second marriage. Personally, he says, the thought of other neptials is distasteful to him, but continued celibacy may be detrimental to the Spanish managency. The parents too are becoming sult from some cause over which they have o control. Such men are unfitted for a Team, howver brilliant their individual shooting may He should be able to devote six weeks to monarchy. The papers, too, are beginning to discuss the same subject. The King and his married sister, the Countess de Girgenti, ractice, at least, be willing to submit cipline, and to a certain extent be propared to 'go into training;' enough of th atter to keep him in good general health. are childless, their two younger sisters ar unmarried, and the throne is at the mercy o Whatever rifles may be used, the first hing to be done, after picking the ten men o compose your Team, is to bring all the bon princesses considered eligible are the late Queen's elder sister (who is possibly too old for Alfonso), the Princess Blancher o compose your Team, is to bring all the ifles together m the matter of sighting, so at they shall all have a common zero fo of Orleans, the daughter of the Count of Trapani, and the daughter of the Duke of Seville. Of other princesses, a Protestant berg out of the question, the second daugh-ter of King Leopold of Belgium is regarded with the most favor, though she is rather young. The question, especially since Moncasis attempt on the King's hid, is re-garded as a serious one, inasmuch as a con-tested succession or a weak Regency in Scain or thals might lead to the previous em of Team-shooting. The Captain should, either on his own udgment, or after consultation, decide, be-ore commencing at each distance, with what elevation and wind allowance the experi-Spain or Italy might lead to the proclam-tion of a republic, which would probably bring about in Europe another '48. nental shot is to be fired.

mental shot is to be nred. This done, the steadiest man in the Team, who should always lead one of the squads, should fire the first shot. Should this pro-----Two hundred and fifty convicted thiev were invited to supper at the St. Giles's Christian Mission in London the other night uce a good bull's-eye, the proper sightin as been found, but should it nd about fifty more came without inv hot an alteration must be made by the ions and were admitted, to be regaled ain in the sighting before the second m plentiful meal of cold meat, bread and on till a good bull's-eye is mad

a pientiful meal of cold meat, bread and butter, plum cake, plum pudding, tea and coffee. Among the 300 people, varying in age from the child of ten to the decrepit sin-ner of these score and ten, were types of humanity in its most degraded and hopeless It is evident that, theoretically, one man avoing made a good buils-eve, and every man being a steady puller, and the riferecisely similar, as long as the wind an ther external influences remain unchanged. very man should get a bull's-eye at each form; countenances so repulsively anima and vicious as to bar all hope of anythin Therefore the elevation and wind once cor being done with them. Two of the wor of this type, after they had had their mealrectly obtained, the quicker the shooting and the more shots that can be got on to the Target before a change comes the better. bien ontendu—got disorderly and had to be expelled and finally handed over to the police at All this simply means 'discipline'; and it I wrote for another hour I could say no more for resenting their extrusion by kicking at the chapel doors, Two or three well-dre

Oddfellows' Meeting. The Marquis of Lorne and Princess Louise Last Monday evening, Grand Master, Gilhave now taken up their abode in Rideau bert Murdoch, head of the I. O. O. F. in the Mill, got into an altercation, a little below tan has compended her to send an expedition

 $\begin{array}{c} \text{Rescaled} \text{ in the second of the$ SIR,-In my letter published in the Daily delighted that it is over. Surely never was Fredericton. After business was transacted, Canadian twenty who annually proceed to Wimbledon, I omitted going into detail on the course of his progress, muttered to him-few favored guests were congregated to meet the course of his progress, muttered to him-the course of his progress him c) No. 160 Chatham Street, industrious French people. The child was born on the 10th of June, 1857, and was christened Jule. Up to this eighth month he did not differ from other children; but at that age he was taken sick with measles, and for six months it was the marksmen of the Dominion (who decase following rapidly upon another, it is "more-honored in the breach than ghesician, and the one to which his parents ascible his deformity, was one that baffled the father as "the English disease." Both physical and mental growth seemed to by this disease." Both physical and mental growth seemed to by this disease.

has been the greatest fall of anow in and Scotland known for many years. In various places has been quite is ont captions. The presentation of the address prison in Newala. As they were rough some lonely woolds the con-sores fall to the ground, the cords is of the thief, and he eas speak only a few words, such as the heas three years about $3,100its value heas three words such as the heas appear only a few words, such as and legs having been cut by ambushis, is of the thief, and he can speak only a few words, such as and he can speak only a few words, such as the has about $3,100its value heas three very servents him from walk-is of the thief, and he can speak only a few words, such as and he can speak only a few words, such as the heas appear only a few words, such as and he can speak only a few words, such as the heas only a few words, such as and he can speak only a few words, such as and he can speak only a few words, such as and he can speak only a few words, such as the having with his face all covered with block institutions in every city, town and village in which the distinguished personage story. The Mayors of London. In 1876 embodying the general sentiments of those no impetus from the recking bowl, comand he can speak only a few words, such as "papa," "mamma," "yes," and "no." His extreme corpulence prevents him from walk-ing, but he is very active with his hands and ing, but he is very active with his hands and the Coach should watch every current of the Coach should watch every current of the State of the Stat

lental circumstances, and be prepared to say however, which need not afflict any one, as responded to the tosts of "His Honor the no one is compelled to read them. Your Lieutenant Governor "and the Local Legis-modern reporter leaves nothing to the imagi-lature." He had much to say and said it aation of his readers, he jots down the most well, for the character and career, the legal his ing and trivial for mith Blicard and the local Legis-ing and slow the road. He was capture at last by the Police near the railway cros bvious and trivial facts with complacency, abilities and legislative experience of His and thinks that the more lengthy his report Honor, but did not waste much time or is made, the more graphic it is. He is happy eloquence in praising or criticising our Legis-if he can procure a list of names that will fill lators. quarter of a column, though very few, save Grand Master Murdoch, in answer to the he individules named, can feel the slightest toast, " the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., detailed nterest in it. He is great at describing a number of interesting facts, regarding the adies' costumes, and if he can only lengthen position and the progress of the society in is report by a line or two, will describe the the lower provinces. He spoke of the terrible aut and colour of a man's coat. He is par- conflagration that swept over, and devastated ticularly fond of drawing distinguished per- St. John in 1877, and of the noble manne sonages' protraits in pen and i.k, and always in which the Oddfellows all over the cont

that they shall all have a common zero for elevation and wind, and that the minutes or degrees shall be precisely similar. In a word, every rifte should be so exactly the counterpart of the rest that each might be supposed to be shooting, practically, with the same gan. This is the foundation of the sys-tem at Tame between what is impertinent to notice fally alluded to the handsome contribution and what is proper to mention. His spirit of made by Victoria Lodge of Fredericton, and uriosity grows till he looses all judgement spoke of the present prosperous condition of s what is right for him to say or leave un- the St. John Lodge, who were enabled this aid, and he helps to create a very unhealthy year, to pay back part of the debt of gratiaste in the public whom he serves.

Rosamond's Secret.

Miss Armour, in "Rosamond's Secret; emance of Fredericton," though she only oes back fifty years, introduces her readers personages and usages of society so differnt from those they see around them, and to which they are accustomed, that they find P. Moore, Treasurer of Portland, spoke for themselves in a strange world. They are the officers of the Grand Lodge, while he many living who remember very distinctly, admired the portly and imposing persona redericton in the days of Sir Howard Doug appearance, and admitted the capacity o

as, and recalling the tone of society, the glories and "costly splendor" of Governmen House, under the sway of that fine old Eng ie order. lish gentleman, scholar, soldier, "statesman," friend of Wellington and Walter Scott, and of his amiable and accomplished lady and his

On Monday evening about half-past eight The British Parliament met on Thursday A native and highly intelligent Chinaman On Monday evening about half-past eight three men, Godsoe, Blizzard and Etchings 6th. In the speech Her Majesty regrets the California journals, is giving no little have now taken up their abode in Fideau out and out and their and the fideau out and the

the people might very well be preserved. The city, the bar, the city the bar, the bar, the bar, the bar and th face when down, cutting his eye and drawing the Governor Generalship, and his arrival in urdering the man for ?" Explanations, an en a lively row ensured. Etchings mar evening in the Temperance Hall. Though ot so well attended as some of the former eetings, it was a very enjoyable affair. The Club intend to hold another series, commenc ing on Wednesday January 1st. New Year's ight, and continuing for the five successive Wednesday evenings, and they hope that all the friends who have encouraged them in the past will join in making the new series of the scene. As Godsoe and one of the Nic-hols was taking Blizzard a big club was flung at them which knocked Nichols' down, Socials a success.

MYSTERIOUS .- Policeman Burden, from nformation received, discovered two trunks n the sewer above Government House yes ing, and along with Blizzard and Godsoe wa terday forenoon. He brought to the Polic rched into town, followed by a large and Office where they ware examined, and it was excited volunteer escort. It is possible that the Police Magistrate after a full hearing of the case will send found that one of them belonged to a young man named William Hanson, who at last ac-Etchings up for trial at the county court.

PHONOGRAPHY.-Last Monday afterno by permission of the anthorities, Dr. Arm-udent teachers of the Normal School, as- friends in the city. embled in the hall, his new system of ---phonography. He first spoke of the grea TEMPERANCE MEETINGS .- We have readvantages of short hand writing, then gav ived the following note, which we are rean account of Pitman's system contrasting nested to publish. In Prince William there elf, illustrating the differences betwee nem by drawings on the blackboard. exhibited his own method by several dia rams. As far as we can judge Dr. A. system appears to be preferable to that o Pitman which is now in general use-in as such as it is simpler-requires fewer move ents of the hand in forming words, and victims of the yellow fever in the South. ooks more flowing and easy. An arrange ment was made by which Dr. A. engage for an exceedinglymoderate fee from the who school to impart, in six lessons, his art the student teachers, who will thus be put n possession of an instrument, which, when by practice they are able to use familiarly ill be a valuable aid to them in thei tudies and in other ways. Sufficient at fresh information, and correcting a number of erroneous opinions about that country. ts population, instead of being 450,000.000 thinese will not be able to support themves, since they are now as poor as they can and keep body and soul together. The wealth of the Empire is in the hands of a few, and there is no danger, with a diminishing population and increasing wages at home, of a great immigration to the United States as is feured on the Pacific slope.

It appears that there are some suspicio The other toasts on the lists of the Chair

Notre Dame has lost an ornament which vois, perhaps her nost conspicuous one. A fortnight ago high winds swept over Paris and one of the strongest gusts blew away from the spire of the church the gilded weather-cock which surmounted it. The dehroned bird is nowhere to be found. Whether he plunged headlong into the river, r was picked up from the pavement by some npatriotic and sacrilegious pedestrian man noweth not. Within the outer frame of hat bird was concealed a heap of minted netal. The collection included every French piece of money current in France, whether of copper, silver or gold, from a centime to a hundred franc piece. There were in ad-dition coins of one denomination or another aring the faces of all the sov

Europe. THE EMPEROR OF RUSSIA.-The Czan phy cally in perfectly good health, but he disease of the Romanoffs is again visiting ith its dire Nemesis the Ruler of all the with its dire Nemesis the Ruler of all the Russias. He dreds going outside his palace, est the assassin's bullet should hy hum low. This illness is wholly mental. He is subject to extreme depression of spirits; and passes hours apparently unconscious of what is pas-sing around him, wrapt in his own thoughts. With an effect he seems able to recall his faculties, but soon displays great irritability and impationed with those who count to trad and impatience with those who come to trans sact business with him. His doctors urge upon him the need of complete rest and absence from anxiety-remedies they are help less ty dispense.

Peru has a claimant beside whom Arthur orton shrinks with insignificance. Half a entuary ago a law was passed in that country offering to any discoverer who should add to the wealth of the country one-third of the value of his discoveries. A Frenchman, named Laudreau, discovered deposits of guano ounts worked in this city with William Babbitt, Painter, but at the present time his om which the Peruvian Government have derived immense revenues. His heirs are now trying to collect the claim, which whereabouts is not known. It certainly seems strange that the owner would hide amounts to £22,000,000. It is said they are willing to take a portion of the sum, and this is doubtless true, for in 1865, when the them away in such a place when having Peruvian Government recognized the claim, it was unable to pay the interest on the amount. On Saturday night, as the Mayor's banquet is great interest shown in the Permissive Bill, and the canvas for it is strong. Three Temperance Meetings have been held in the Parish, which were so well attended and so few things even worse. Slavery was wo uccessful, that the friends of the Act, feel than war. dogmatic and tyrannical way was worse than sured that their many efforts to overthrow war. The approach of a barbarous power clouded over the liberties of mankind was worse than war, and whilst he would not temperance will be successful.

On Tuesday evening Mr. Stuart Rogers the celebrated reader and actor on the plat-sacred duty to mankind, there were occaorm appeared in the City Hall before a small ons when a great country should put its foot down and say what it believed to be right in the interests of Chrisudience. He has a strong and pleasing pice, and he has great power of facial trans tianity and civilizatio ermation. He read parts from Shakesphear LIVER IS KING .- The Liveris the imperial and several comic pieces, and his assumption f various characters was most amusing. He organ of the whole human system, as it controls the life, health and happiness of man. When it is disturbed in its proper action, all kinds of ailments are the natural We have received a copy of Barnes's New We have received a copy of Barnes's New Brunswick Almanack for 1879, which contains great deal of general intelligence and tatistical information. Barnes's Almanacks atistical information. Barnes's Almanacks are well established and useful publications. Dublished her Barnes' & Co. 78 Pointer is August Flower is unequ Published by Barnes' & Co., 78 Prince curing all persons afflicted with Dyspepsia or Liver Complaint, and all the numerous William Street, St. John.

 • • • • • • NEW WORK.-We have received a copy of condition of the Liver and Stomach. Sample

rong, of Queen's Co., explained to the with the one invented and perfected by him

tude, by subscribing to the relief of the

He gave the members of Victoria Lodge an invitation to visit their brethren in St. John who now, by the way, are erecting one of the handsomest buildings in the city. P. M. Barnes of St. John and Ellis, modestly pleaded the lateness of the hour, as an excuse for not speaking at length to this toast. Mr ention has not been given in school renerally to instruction in short-han writing. ome of them, he appeared to doubt if they represented the best ability or character o

City Council.

naracters lurking about the city. The prow ler who robbed Mr. Guiou's store, and occu man and the vice, "the bench and bar," pied Mr. Edgecombe's barn, is thought to b the press," "the ladies," "the city corpo he very identical thief, who picked a pock ny will also have the prefer over others in irrigating other regions.

The Perth Courier finds that during t past two years there has been shipped fror Kingston nearly 10,000 tons of phosphatt This enormous amount has all been brough into Kingston either by the Rideau Canal o by waggons from the adjoining townships The average price paid for the material during 1877 was $10 per ton, and during during 1877 was give per ton, this was sold for ship ment to England and elsewhere at from $1 to $13,50 per ton.

Anna Jameson wrote, in a letter printed in her recently published Memoirs, just after the coronation of the young Queen Victoria: -"As to the Queen, poor child, she went through her part beautifully; and when sh-returned, looking pale and tremulous, crowned, and holding her sceptre in a manner and attitude which said 'I have it and none shal wrest it from me,' even Carlyle, who wa standing near me, uttered with emotion a blessing on her head, and he, you know thinks Kings and Queens rather superfluous.

The Russian papers have lately contained eports about a band of robbers which have reports about a band of robbers which have appeared lately in the district of Paulovsk in southern Russia, and has spread terro through all the neighboring region. It is said to be over 200 atrong. The Captain i reported to be a peasant women of singula reported to be a persont women of singula beauty, who was previously connected with a gang of forgers of rouble-notes. The Rus-sian Government is so desirous of procuring the arrest of this female chief that it has see a price of $11,250 upon her head.

It is stated in the society papers in Eng-land that the Princess Thyra of Denmark who is now engaged to the Duke of Cum berland, jilted the Prince Imperial. There is no doubt that the couple were what the London cabmen call "wery nuts" on each other for a time. But the fair Thyra has a terrible reputation as a flirt and hardshel woman of the world; and when Lulu, as th Prince,s pet name goes, told his love, sh referred him to papa and mamma, and the heir of the great Napolean was frozen out of

It will interest students of Shakespeare to learn that the first volume of a very detaile treatise on those of his plays the scenes which are laid in antiquity has been publish ed in France. The author, M. Paul Stapfer legrams." a professor of literature at Grenoble, has ran sacked and examined all the possible source of Shakespeare's information about antiquity. Though there is much in the book that will be familiar to English readers, the generation be familiar to English readers, the general treatment is novel, and the results of the re-searches of the English and German students neatness of a French critic. "Great ceremonies are necessary," says two Railway News, "to get a train off in Germany. When all is ready a bell rings. Then auother bell rings. Then the engine whistles, toot-toot-toots gently. Then the conductor tells the stationmaster that all the tavorite of the Queen, who, it is said, made him promise that he would not stay more than a certain number of years in India. The Duke who, to his honor, is a poor man, can have Victoria, the Cape of Jamaca-all of which are lucrative and pleasant posts compared with Madras—and, in due time, Canada, if he pleases. Lord Doff. ready. Then the stationmaster looks placid-ly around d says, 'So?' Then the conly around d savs, 'So?' Then the con-ductor shouts 'Fertig!' positively. Then the concluctor blows a horn; the engine whistles; the bell rings; the other bell rings; the stationnuster says 'So?'-the passen-gers swear i various tongues—and the train starts. 'That is unless there is a belated fat which case they do it all ove again,"

FREE TRADE .- The London corresp Hon. G. H. Pope's definition of the Im Sunday the Afghan position was turned by Hon. G. H. Pope's channels will migration policy of the Government will find favor with the country. He says :--"To invite immigration from Europe just now would be a most unwise policy. Every - TREE TRADE.— The Longon correspond-lent of the Leeds Marcury writes :— The con-tinued depression of trade, of which at pre-t sent there seems very little likelihood of change, has again raised a warm discussion on the old question of reciprocity. Nor is the discussion codined to purely political limits. It has intensily added to it from the fact thet marchanta of various shades of the text set. flank movement over Spengwai Pass. Ger Robarts telegraphing from Peiwar Khota now would be a most unwise policy. Every immigrant we might bring in would be dis Dec. 3rd, says :-- "We surprised the enemy at daybreak on the 2nd, when the 72n appointed, and would, in consequence, be-come a missionary against us, and therefore Highlanders, and the 5th, Ghoorkas gallan ry drove the Afghans from several position come a missionary against us, and therefore he did not at present propose to exceed what would be policic and at the same time patriotic. He hoped and believed the time would come, ere long, when the condition of the labor market would warrant him in mak-tification of the existing law. This dispo They offerwards endeavoured to reach Piewar Khotal, but the assault could not be delivered on that side. We then threatened the labor market would warrant him in mak-ing such charges in the system, and putting forth such renewed efforts as would result sition on their part has, it need not be the enemy in the rear, and attacked and carried Peiwar Khotal about four in th forth such renewed efforts as would result in bringing the surplus population of Europe to our shores. There was angle room for all, and he believed the policy of the Gvern-ment would hasten the day when we could offer substantial inducements to all who choose to come," The British loss is computed at 80 killed and wounded.

ceremonies; they were reformed this The mission furnishes breakfast to all the discharged prisoners and endeavors to relieve their wants and if possible place them in the Fredericton, December 7, 1878. way of earning their livelihood.

and intelligent young men acted as master

out its effect.

The Agriculturist. TEMPERANCE AND LEGISLATION .-- LOR Aberdare, who was formerly Home Secretary, and has done a great deal in promotion FREDERICTON, N. B., DECEMBER 7, 1878.

than that word conveys."

g licensing legislation, now admits that United States. passed at the instignation of Mr. Cross two years later, nor yet the effects of many asso-ciatians for the promotion of temperance.

The Congress of the United States met that make life very pleasant and beautifuliatians for the promotion of temperan as had the effect of diminishing drunkene the is obliged to confess, indeed, that this vice is on the increase, and he is convinced that the permissive bill, even if it should nnual Presidential Message was read. The nessage deals with a number of topics, and mind reverts with delight to "ye olden time. levotes much attention to affairs in the which she sees glorified through a golde ver pass, which is doubtful, would not hav he beneficial effect its admirers claim for m South. A history of the terrible epidemic haze, and turns with distate from the dull which ravaged the valley of the Mississipi speaking at a temperance conference, hi dship said his hopes now lay not in legisis given, and the President recommends the ion, but in the cultivation of music, t establishment of genuine workman's club's and above all of coffee taverns. In charging the grand jury at Bristol ropical and semitropical countries. He ap-

Lord Coleradge expressed similar ideas. He said he did not believe in compulsory pro-hibition, and his greatest hope was education, though that would take a lone time to work ntirely imported, and is not generated in the mond-of describing their costly robes and cities and districts of the South, in exception- dresses, their diamonds and their jewelryally hot seasons, by improper dietetic habits she revels in descriptions of the statel

The London correspondent of the Glas of the South is improving. The Executive troduce her readers into the houses of sober ow Herald writes:—"Another attempt i nade to lesson the cost of cable telegram cross the Atlantic. M. Pouyer-Quertier, have the power by the original constitution citizens or the huts of hardy settlers, proof the country to protect citizens in their rights to vote, to hold public meetings and to with modest homes have no knowledge of wealthy French manufacturer, and who w

Minister of Finance for a short time, has ob-tained a concession from the French Gov ernment for a new Atlantic cable. It is prohave their ballots counted and proper returns nade, and they will enforce the laws to pre ent intimadation, violence, coercion and osed to make it much lighter than the pr ant ones, and thereby to lessen the outl raud. The history of, and late diplomati orrespondence regarding the Fisheries Award both in manufacturing and laying it. Bu both in manufacturing and laying it. But what the projected company look forward to a stheir chief advantage is the adaption of a 1 new system of telegraphing. An Italian has e discovered a means of sending more words through a long cable in a given time than can be done by any existing f method. He holds that by his plan it will be possible to use the Hughes printing apparatus, the result being to obviate many of the blunders made by the system in use-landed the scheme promises well but so. are given; and the country is congratulated a having escaped trouble with their Mexican eighbours. The President announces the ne government will be ready on the 1st of January, 1879 to redeem its notes in specie The message also deals with the Indian que ion or problem, the government of the olumbia district, &c. On the whole, th

nessage is not a document of startling inter Indeed, the scheme promises well; but s did the Direct Cable Company, which, as i est. it contains no utterances that are likel oo well-known, has not cheapened Atlanti o stir up political passion or to excite anxio abroad, and will be, as it disclos

a hopeful state of affairs, satisfactory to th THE EXPENSIVENESS OF COLONIAL GO ERNOR-GENERALSHIPS.—We read in th Echo:—"It is usually said that the Duke of people of the United States. ----

Burkingham will be the next Indian Vicero Within a fortnight after the British in This is probably a mistake. He is a gre favorite of the Queen, who, it is said, may rading force commenced to move importan advantages have been guided. It is imposble to devine the designs of Sheri Ali, h from the reports that have been received of the evacuation of Jellalalabad, and th apparently not very determined defense of Canada, if he pleases. Lord Dufferin is al-ready designated by general consent in Whitehall as Lord Lytton's successor. But he formidable frontier passes, it seems as he was going to concentrate his resistance b - whitehall as Lord Lyton's successor. But the Popular ex-Satrap is in no way anxiou for anew lease of vice-regal power. He has found it expensive. If Lord Lorne is given the tenancy of the vice-regal Palace at Ottta wa foa the purpose of giving him a chance to save money, the Duke of Argyll's son will t return to England a sadder, a wiser and a recomment. fore Cabul. The terrific Kyber Pass h. been threaded with little loss, and one div ion is encamped at its head at Dakha. The livision under Gen. Robarts, moving fro Thull crossed the Khorum river, and found fort Kapiou deserted. Reports came that the Afghans were entrenching themselves or had a sly pleasure in killing off the reformed derald Bereford, and marrying her peerle strong position on the Peiwar Pass. Or isamond to such a fine represe istocracy, chivalry and romance, as Guy But Rosamond's secret makes only on art of the story. There is a realistic sid part of the story. There is a remarker to the book as well as a romantic side. The authoress has a profound veneration for old Sir Howard, who was truly a paterna old Sir Howard, using a start and the store of the set of lovernor, and does full justice to his er leavors to advance the arricultural an ducational interests of New Brunswick. Th the in Frederiction, the destruction of ol Government House, the great fire in Mirami chi, affords her opportunities of graphi description. Sir Howard ruled the Provinc foring the last undisturbed years of the ol uring the last undisturbed years of the old ystem of Government, and a faithful and ne mess room of the officer's barracks, the ports on the old race course, they will think if they see with the same eyes.) with Misponded to by brethren and guests. The toast Armour, that the days of romance and history of the Host and Hostess was given, and re have vanished, and that chivalry has ceived with great applause, and brought entered on the days of prose and hard pan." forth a short and telling response from the The grand days fled after the introduction of Host. The company broke up about half-Responsible Government. Reform and propast one in the morning, after a most pleas gress have crushed out customs and usag ant and successful sederunt. Washington, on Monday last, when the to a favored few. A lady of Miss Armour's naturally conservative and romantic turn o There was a full Board at the regula nonthly meeting of the City Council last Tuesday night. Reports of the payments of counts for Roads and Streets, Fire Departand democratic present.

nent, City Hall, Administration of Justice Miss Armour has a very appreciative exinforcement of strict quarantine laws against for beauty and splendor and color. She is Wharf, &c., total $712.95 were submitted never tired of depicting the charms of her cheques were issued, $6 to Dennis Hank years to believe that the yellow fever is heroines-Mary Douglas and Lady Rosa- for services as special policeman during Exhiition week; $8.40 to City Treasurer to r mburse him for money paid on freight an artage of coal from St. John, $10 to Thos mith, $12 to Albert Schleyer, $12 to Fred and neglect of sanitary arrangements. The English castle, and noble hall, the residence President believes that the political condition of the noble and great, but she does not in Todd, for taking care of hose ; $33, a month's pay to each of the three Policeman ; $9.8 to City Treasurer, for additional insurance bably because most of them, while familia on Steam Fire Engine House ; $400 to Alm House Commissioners, The Auditor's report of the School Ac aristocratic abodes.

Lady Rosamond Seymour, the heroine is ount was read and approved. The total visitor at Government House and friend and Dr. account including Permanent accou ontidant of Mary Douglas, the lovely daugi $282.87, and annual expenditure $12,127.2 ter of Sir Howard. She mingles in all the splendid gaieties of the celestial city. Thrown ash in People's Bank amounted to $14, 403.45. in the society of Guy Treveleyan of 52nd Regt., she—but that is her "secret." Trevel yan falls in love with Rosanund, but doe The School Reports were ordered to b oublished. Severel appeals from assessme not declare his passion, and, gives no sign o the secret fire that is consuming him, excep were referred to the committee, and a repor was read from the said committee, recon hat his countenance assumes "a puzzle xpression," which is a source of speculation mending that certain parties named be and anxiety to his friend Mr. Howe, Privat Secretary to the Governor. Rosamond father arranges a marriage for his daughte ieved from taxation. A retail in lieu of a wholesale license wa ranted to C. S Brannen. Permission was of the Crnaduan Monthly. with her cousin Gerald Bereford—who every way is a desirable match. Oobedient iven to Wm. Aiken to transfer a license Mr. S. D. Macpherson was appointed a Schoo the will of her fond parent, and of her dipl matic aunt, Lady Bereford, Rosamond go to the altar to be sacrificed, keeping h "secret,"—" that was more than life—a so Trustee in room of Mr. C. H. B. Fishe whose term is up. A report in reference the town clock, from Mr. Fenety was read. within—a burning, smouldering fire around which clings the shuddering form of out-raged hope." She makes a devoted wife, and A lease for 21 years will be granted to A G. Edgecombe, of a lot on the lower part o raged nope. She makes a devoted wife, and really seems to enjoy the splendor and ex-citement of her position. The "puzzled ex-pression" comes often into the countenance of poor Guy, but he manages to sustain ex-istence, amongst the galeties of Fredericton, with fortitude, entering with particular zest into the sport of skating. Rosamond's husband enters the British Parliament and is one of the method. York Street, near the railway station, c onditions that a right of way to the rear h eserved to the city; that $10 be paid b asee; that the city be not called upon t nake allowance for improvements; that the ease be not granted until all arrears of ren

Parliament, and is one of the most active supporters of the first Reform Bill. His exre paid. A committee was appointed to consider ve labors undermined his health plication from the Blind Institute es abroad, ignorant to the last that Ros Halifax for $38.18, due for the board an ond had a "secret," and confident that ossessed her love. Rosamond is reward lothing of Charles Cole, formerly an inmat r her noble "self sacrifice." Guy declar s love, and the romance ends with ma of the Alms House. Authority was given to put $3000, at 1

Miss Armour, Tery in politics, must hav per cent., insurance on the Exhibitio Building. A memorandum of amounts of rents d om ground and butcher stalls was ordered to be placed in hands of the City Clerk for ollection.

ondition that he will provide a first class bottles to try. 10 cents. Positively feorge Stewart, Jr's., new work-"Canada ast Wednesday night in the house of Mr. J Il towns on the Western Co nder the Administration of the Earl all towns on the western continent. Theo doses will prove that it is just what you ever disposed throughout the world." Victoria W. Barker. He is in Goal. A mysterior Dufferin "-which presents a very handsome want. Lodge, No. 13, I. O. O. F. were well rescurrence took place one night lately. appearance. We shall notice its contents oung fellow who keeps an eating house, and leserved a bumper.

cially agreed be

who sleeps in a tavern in town, on going o ext week. to rest found his bedroom door locked, n J Adams has a very fine assortment of wishing to disturb the house he slipped int nother room which was occupied, and laid imself down in a vacant bed, placing his un whisperables in the pockets of which there place to make your purchases. ere papers and cash to the amount of $10 ---nder his pillow. At sunrise he rose went P. McPeake has commenced to sell his o his own room the door of which he four anlocked. Its occur ant had flown, on search ng his pockets he found his cash gone, no ody in the tavern knew who the strange was, how he got into the bedroom, or how ne slipped out, but they have a strong sus- Grand Concert some time during the present icion that he left it richer than when he en- month, in which some ol the best musica tered it. talent of the city will be engaged.

The Canadian Monthly for December, the LOOK OUT FOR BARGINS .- F. B. Edge ontants of which we noticed last week is combes's advertisements of Special Sale, in ne number. The most striking, if not the this issue, merits the attentiou of all wh nost pleusing article is that by Goldwin Smith. The world is out of joint with the We predict for him a lively trade. wish to purchase Dry Goods at low price uandam Oxford Professor. His Berlin and fghanistan is a very bitter criticism of the The fifth publication of Behm and Wag

"jungo" policy of the Beaconstield govern-ment all through the eastern troubles. He makes the number of the Earth's human in the fifth publication of Benm and Way ner's well-known "Population of the Earth's human in makes the number of the Earth's human in the fifth publication of Benm and Way is a more pronounced Russophel than even Mr. Gladstone in his sympathy with the Cazar and the Russian soldiery, and in his detescation of the "unspakable' Turk. He says little about the causes that have led to the work and a cause that have led to the work and a cause that have led to the war in Afghanistan, but he sides with Sheere Ali; the fiercely assailing the British rule of Inaia, and declares that the present condition of the nativos is more miserable, depressed and hopeless than it was before he conquest of the country, a hundred years through her merely sending an ambassad to Cabul, is that it was spe ngo. We do not think that the tone of his

go. We do not think that the tone of his tricle will please the majority of the readers f the Crnaduan Monthly. that Afghanistan would be treated by Ru

Last Saturday, St. Andrew's Day, there sia as in a sense a dependency of British India, and that Great Britain would be rewas a meeting of the Fredericton St. Andew's Society, in the Waverley Hotel. The ollowing officers were elected for the ensung year :-

W. B. JACK, D. C. L., President. JOHN MCINNIS, 1st. Vice-Fresident. J. R. HOWIE, 2nd. Vice-President. J. J. FRASER, Treasurer. REV. DR. BROOKE, D. D., Chaplain. H. M. MATHESON, Secretary. ROBT. THORBURN, Marshal.

H. M. MATHESON, Secretary. ROBT. THORDURN, Marshal, DANIEL HUSSLCK, Piper. The day was patriotically remembered, and the hope was expressed that the Society, which was never sounder financially, will strengthen its manifestations of natural spirit in the future. WARNING TO CONSTABLES & C. — We have been requested to notice the following ca-glecting to hand over certain monies collect-glecting to hand over certain monies collect-ed by him from delinquent taxpayers, under executions placed in his hands by Michael Varea Eq. J. P. was on the couplaint of Yerxa, Esq., J. P., was on the complaint of was communicated to Russ hat gentleman summoned before J. L. Marsh

The petition of A. S. Crawford, praying for a lease of the lower ferry for ten years, on his produring an assignment of the lease at present held by Mr. Gill, was granted on its cases, and that proceedings have been the lower being and the lease at the intention of the leave in the cases, and that proceedings have been the cases in the lower being at the intention of the leave in the cases, and that proceedings have been the low in the cases is provided a first decay. One of the Spanish provincial papers pub and condition that be will provide a first class condition that he will provide a first class boat to commence running ut the opening of next season.
boat to commence running ut the opening of next season.
Council adjourned.
Council adjourned.
Council adjourned.
Too You can buy the best and cheapest Brothers, opposite City Hall. They have all kinds. Call and see them. Sold on accy terms by monthly payments.
Bike cases, and that proceedings have been to an offly against some other constables but against a Justice of the Peace for the Parish of Canterbury for a neglect similar to that which brought Doyen up before the Police Magistrate.
Dever Bros. have advertised in this issue a great sale of Dry Goods at remarkably low prices. Read their advertisements in another column.

Marriages.

At Saint Dunstan's Church, Fredericton on the 28th ult., by the Rev. Father McDevitt, Mr. James Harrigan, of Keswick Ridge, to Elizabeth Garet, editest daughter of Patrick

Garet, of Bathurst, Gloucester County. By the Rev. G. W. Fisher, on the 2nd inst, at the residence of the bride's father, Gibson, Robert I. Peppers to Mary J. Evans both of arge stock of Dry Goods at unheard of prices. When he advertises a Chean Sale he mans. At the Methodist Parsonage, Fredericton on large stock of Dry Goods at uncertainty

 At the Methodist Parsonage, Freewer, Mr.

 When he advertises a Cheap Sale he means the 28th Nov. by the R.v. W. W. Brewer, Mr.

 it. Purchasers would do well to call on him Connedy A. Boyce of St. John, to Emma daughter of Mr. Thomas Armstrong of this city.

The Reform Club Band intend giving a Deaths.

At Philadelphia, on the 25th inst., Thomas Booth, in the 67th year of his age, formerly of St. John, N. B.

New Advertisemeuts.

FANCY CABINET WARE Household Use and Ornament

RICH and elegant FANCY ARTICLES, which for BEAUTY, VARIETY and CHEAPNESS,

Tollet Cases, Slipper Cases, Towel Rack (for embroidery); Slipper Racks (for embroidery); Wall Pocket &c., Doll Bedsteads; Writing Desks, Flower, Lamp, Statue &c.and Vase Brackets;

Vase Brackets; Checker Stands, with drawers and checkers); Flower Stands, Book Shelves, Clock Shelves; Ladles; Woak Stands, Foot Stools; Comb Cas s, Watch Safes, dc. dc. No goods made, surpass these for Christm

J. ADAMS. Near County Court House. F'ton, Dec. 7.—3ins

PHOTOCRAPHS !

PHOTOCRAPHS !

TINTYPES Finished in the latest sty

PHOTOGRAPHIC STUDIO.

F'ton, Dec. 7, 1878-

And Amending Aets.

Joseph Bulloch, Plaintiff ; and Archibald H. Jewett, Defendant.

meet at Fraser & Winslow's Brick Buildi nt John Street, Frederiction on Theory y-fourth day of December in An the afternoon, to recel-affairs, and to appoint a

Fredericton, December 4th, 1878. E. BYRON WINSLOW, Assignee, INSOLVENT ACT OF 1875 And Amending Acts.

Willirm J. Wallace and Peliman A. Bal-com, Plaintiffs; and Edwin E. Phair, Defendent.

WRIT OF ATTACHMENT has been issued The this cause, and the creditors are not in o meet at Fraser & Winslow's Brick builty aint John Street, Fredericton, on Monday t Brd day of December, instant, at eleven o'cloo

E. BYRON WINSLOW, Assumee.

