LOCAL NEWS.

Visiting Clergyman.—The Rev. J. Barker of McKenzies Corner, occupied the pulpit at St. Paul's on Sunday last. The special preacher to-morrow (Sunday) will be the Rev. Mr. Fullerton of Carleton church, St. John.

Lumbering at Magallowanic.—J. Scott's camp at Magallowanic broke up this week. The winter's operations have been much impeded by ice and snow but John expects that this season's cut will be in the vicinity of three million feet.

Provincial Farmers.—Arrangements have been made by the railway companies whereby farmers desirous of attending the meeting of the provincial farmers' association in this city on Tuesday next, can do so at reduced fares from all points.

Socials at Maryville.—Alex. Gibson entertained the chief employees of the cotton mill to a sumptuous repast at his residence on Monday. Several friends from this city attended. On Tuesday Mrs. W. T. Day entertained a party of select guests.

Fair Business.—There has been a large quantity of freight handled on the N. B. division of the C. P. R. this week. All consignments of spring goods have been received in this city, and everything points to business opening with a rush for the spring trade.

Curling Matters.—A meeting of the curling club took place at the rink on Wednesday evening, when it was decided to abandon the proposed match at St. John's on account of the numerous engagements of the skips, and the difficulty of forming a team.

The F. O. M. W. Orchestra.—The rehearsals of this new musical combination attracted quite a crowd of listeners on Queen street Wednesday evening. The orchestra is improving rapidly, and the program comprised selections from the old and new masters.

Baptismal Services.—At the Baptist church on Sunday night last the Rev. F. D. Crawley administered the rite of baptism to nineteen persons. The ceremony was also performed at the F. C. Baptist church where two persons received the rite, the Rev. F. C. Hartley officiating.

Improvements at the Queen.—The work of fitting up, repairing and improving the rooms at the Queen were completed early this week, and the results are marvellous of comfort, cleanliness and good furnishing. The rooms set apart for the accommodation of one well known English guest are splendidly fitted up.

A Fine Stock.—The attention of the reader is directed to the advertisement of W. E. Seery, merchant tailor of this city. His assortment of English, Scotch, German and Canadian goods are in all the latest fashions, and additions are being made weekly to the large and varied stock; also trimmings to match. Give him a call.

Effort League.—The musical and literary entertainments at the Methodist church lecture rooms have been attended. There were papers, J. M. Watley, read by Messrs Martin Leonard, J. M. Watley, and Miss Cliff, solos by Miss Logan, and H. G. Winter, and addresses by the Rev. J. Shenton, and J. J. Weddall.

A Promising Male.—George R. Cooper has made an elegant 3 yr. old mare, sire by Calumet, dam by Flying Dutchman. It was formerly owned by J. E. Moore of St. John, and is a stylish looking animal, cream colored, with black mane and tail. It has been much admired on Queen street and gives promise of good speed.

Easter Festivities.—With the approach of Easter comes the usual preparation for concerts, and holiday week will see a great many events of musical and dramatic interest given in this city, and at St. Mary's, Gibson, Maryville and Kingsclear. It is in contemplation also to have a good exhibition of trotting during Easter week should the weather be favorable.

Lodge Matters.—On Thursday next Rosewood lodge of St. Mary's will pay a fraternal visit to the Prohibition lodge of this city. Star council have arranged for a visit to Pennie Banner council this Saturday afternoon. I. O. O. F. lodge No. 28 held an apron and necktie social on Thursday, when the invitation extended to Albion lodge to attend was accepted.

There's a Flat Iron.—A young Englishman working at one of the city hotels had a narrow escape the other day from the hands of an excited domestic who had become disgusted with the "sass" administered to her by the Anglo Saxon. She up with a flat iron and hurled it at him. Fortunately he dodged, and the weapon went landing in among the dishes. Moral, no more "sass," and no more flat iron.

Lost and Found.—James Leary a respectable old gentleman staying on a short visit to town, and brother to the celebrated flat builder, lost a few bills in money at Fred. Quattrina's shop on Wednesday. These were found by Donald Wiley of the I. S. G. Orchestra and promptly restored to the owner, who desired to make an acknowledgment, but the finder declined to receive any reward for his trouble.

Lecture on Egypt.—Prof. Dull's interesting lecture on Egypt at the auditorium on Monday night was well attended. A short musical program preceded the lecture. The professor's observations on the wonders and peculiarities of the east, narrated as they were from personal observation, were highly diverting, and the audience went home well pleased with the intellectual feast which had been provided for them.

Disturbance on Queen Street.—Two young fellows well known in this city had a dispute on the main street on Tuesday afternoon, and adjourned to Wilmot's alley to settle their differences in the usual manner. A crowd collected, and the scene soon resembled a prize ring. The pugilists went in for hard slugging, kicking, and wrestling, much to the delight of the spectators. No arrests were made but the offenders are known to the police.

A Reformatory Needed.—The recent case of youthful depravity tried in the police court, have more than demonstrated the need of a reformatory institution in this province. It is very difficult for a magistrate to convict lads of tender years by imprisonment, and thereby ruin their characters. It is the opinion of a great many prominent legal men in this city and at St. John that a reformatory is needed, and that some steps ought to be taken to effect this end.

Hymenal.—William Boone, son of Albert Boone of Oranook, and Miss Mary Smith, daughter of Samuel Smith of the same place were married on Wednesday morning at the residence of Dr. McLeod. Kaziah Smith supported the gown, and the bride was supported by Mr. Melvin Carr. Quite a large number of friends were present from the country to witness the ceremony, at the conclusion of which, all present repaired to the Dunphy hotel where a sumptuous repast was served. The party drove home towards Oranook in the afternoon, where a reception was given them at the residence of S. E. Carr. A large number followed and dancing was kept up until a late hour, the music being furnished by H. White of St. John.

DECLARATION DAY.

A Majority of 227—Echoes of the Campaign.

At 11 o'clock Monday morning Sheriff Stedman, accompanied by a number of assistants, proceeded to examine the electoral returns forwarded by the various commissioners of the county. There was a fair attendance of spectators, and the result showed a total of 3,904 votes, of which 2,948 were cast for Temple, and 1,821 for Thompson; the majority for the former being 227. The sheriff thereupon declared Mr. Temple duly elected as member for York.

Thomas Temple mounted the rostrum and said: "The contest is ended and I have won, and as an old sportsman in the election field I can truly say I have won in three straight heats. Good feeling had characterized this battle throughout, and Mr. Thompson had treated his opponents like gentlemen. In returning my thanks to the electors I do so on behalf of myself and the government. York will always have my best wishes at heart and I shall watch her interests closely; and I wish it to be understood by the electors, whether they supported me or not, that I shall always endeavor to do all in my power. Hereafter let no man, be liberal or conservative, be afraid to ask me a favor. Again thanking you, gentlemen, I will now sit down."

F. P. Thompson said: "In response to the unanimous vote of the convention I contested this election and I have not been sustained. But the result has been a gratification to me and to the party I represent. I went into this election without any hard feelings, and can truly say with Mr. Temple that courtesy and good will has characterized this contest. The maritime provinces have supported the government, but the upper divisions of the country have plainly spoken. Travelling among the people this week, had been difficult, it had been rainy, but the result, as I have said before, is very satisfactory." He thanked the electors for the support rendered him.

The electors for the Queen were then lastly delivered on the proposal of Mr. Temple. A vote of thanks to the sheriff for his impartiality in this contest was then moved by Mr. Thompson, seconded by Mr. Temple, and carried unanimously. This concluded the day's proceedings.

A PATENT MEDICINE.

What the Boys Thought of a Kingsclear Compound.

There was once a Kingsclear farmer. And behold he compounded a patent medicine, the secret virtues of which were obtained from a science of the Miamia. This medicine which has been sold for a number of years up river, found its way into town on Thursday night, and a St. John man suffering from neuralgia was persuaded to take a dose. He did so and the surprising state of the medicine immediately banished all his cares.

"It is good for anything, my boy," said the Kingsclear man. "I honestly believe it is a panacea for all evils."

Then one of Asa H. Vanwar's ice men took a dose, and declared he felt better.

A York street carriage painter thought it would cure him of the jim-jams, and he took a dose, then a temperance man took a tea spoonful and smacked his lips. "The flavor is excellent," said he, "and most comforting to the stomach." And so the medicine went round, and behold there was not one goddy drop left.

And at last a newspaper man was induced to enquire of the wonderful virtues of the Kingsclear remedy. "Well, I'll tell you," whispered the Kingsclear farmer. "It's a compound of whiskey and powdered turpentine, and an excellent remedy for all ailments." And with an anti-scientific air at the reporter the Kingsclear farmer departed.

The Fredericton Market.

A large quantity of country produce was brought into town on Thursday, and the market square looked quite animated. On the whole business has improved. The selling prices are: Beef, 4 to 5 cts; mutton, 4 to 5 cts; pork, 9 cts; lamb, 6 to 7 cts; veal, none; sausages, 10 cts; hams, 9 to 10 cts; butter, 15 to 17 cts; eggs, per doz, 20 cts; corn, 9 to 12 cts; hay, 13 to 15 cts; poultry, none; potatoes, $1.00 to $1.75; carrots, 80 cts to $1; turnips, 60 cts; oats, per bush, 50 cts; buckwheat, $1.75; hay, 7 to $10; straw $5; socks and mitts, 20 cts per pair; cordwood none; green, $2.00 to $3; dry, $3.50. There has been a limited demand for cordwood this week and prices have fallen somewhat.

Halifax School for the Blind.

The twelfth annual report of the board of managers of this admirable institution has been received at this office. Thirty two blind persons of whom 25 were males and 13 females have been under instruction during the past year. Ninety three of these are from the province of New Brunswick. Vigorous work has been carried on in the several departments of the school. The new building is now nearly completed, and has fire proof connections. It is sincerely trusted that within the next few months a sufficient sum may be realized to place the building in the directors' hands free of debt, and the attention of a general public is directed, to this worthy object.

Trip to California.

T. W. Smith's recent trip to San Francisco was undergone by way of Montreal where he renewed his acquaintance with the Rev. J. A. Mowatt. During his ride to the Pacific coast, St. Butler of Maryville travelled part of the journey with him. At San Francisco Mr. Smith was met by his son Barry, who is doing well in that large and prosperous city. A short visit to Victoria, where the traveller was met by Messrs. Thomas, Edward and John McFarlane, was most enjoyable. The return trip via the great Northwest made up a very pleasant and profitable journey.

The Koch Remedy.

The trustees of Victoria hospital have received a bottle of the celebrated lymph called Koch's, for use in the institution. Sir Leonard Tilley made an application to the Canadian commissioner at London, for the lymph some time ago on behalf of the trustees, and the bottle was forwarded a few days ago. Great joy was expressed in its use. Dr. Koch said great stress upon the necessity of administering weak injections to debilitated patients.

The Weather and the Roads.

The general thaw this week has made the roads in a very bad state, and travelling has been almost impossible. The slight frost of Tuesday night made matters a little better and many teams came into town the next day. The streets have presented a conglomeration of slush and pedestrians have had an unpleasant time of it. Several cases have been flooded and complaints respecting defective sewerage have been frequent.

In Aid of the Sufferers.

In aid of the sufferers, John A. Nicholls will lecture in the city hall on Monday next under the auspices of the W. C. T. U. This lecture entitled "Shadows of a great city," will be illustrated with lime light views. The proceeds will be devoted to the relief of the sufferers. On Sunday evening Mr. Nicholls will address a mass meeting in the city hall at eight o'clock, subject: The battle for the home.

The Legislative Council.

An meeting of the legislative council on Wednesday evening the following were elected as members of that body, viz: Allan Ritchie, James I. Fellows, G. T. Baird, Richard Bellamy, F. J. McManis and H. R. Edmondson. A bill will be introduced early in the session abolishing the legislative council and vesting its legislative functions in the elective branch of the legislature.

A Choir Gathering.

The ladies and gentlemen connected with the St. Mary's episcopal choir were entertained at the residence of Mrs. M. M. Mullin on Thursday evening, when a pleasant social time was spent by all.

Board of Trade.

A meeting of the board of trade on Thursday evening at the office of J. W. McCready on York street, the preliminary steps were taken in regard to the dredging of the river. It is proposed to prepare a bill to be presented to the legislature on the subject.

Hoppey Social.

The hoppey social on Thursday evening in the temperance hall on Queen street was highly enjoyable. The calisthenic exercises were pleasing features of the program, which was full of surprises by the children.

ROWDYISM AT ORMOCKO.

What a Resident of Geary Narrated at a City Hotel.

A resident of Ormoko who had accompanied a friend to town for the purpose of acting as his supporter during a wedding ceremony, was very loquacious after dinner, at the Dunphy hotel, on the subject of rowdyism at Ormoko.

"The Tories," said he, "evidently fancy they are going to rule us at Geary. They have been howling over Wilmot's victory ever since the fifth, and their attacks on peaceful liberals have been disgraceful. Conservatives of high position in Sunbury have encouraged this bitter partisan warfare, and fight among the boys have been pretty frequent of late."

"Dr. Day came among us almost as a stranger and was well received, but no stone was left unturned by the Tories to prejudice the people against him. Money flowed like water, and Wilmot's election was the result of $10 per head."

"And yet these same brutes yell 'Canada for the Canadians!' and sell their votes like sheep."

"On Tuesday night the Tories voted up a huge bon fire, made effigies of Cartwright and Laurier and publicly burnt them. The latter effigy was in the shape of a crucifixion. This is a fact as all the boys present here from Geary know to be true, and there were many of the night men present."

"But the boys will have a counter demonstration to light and we shall see what we shall see," and so saying the speaker set up the cigars and the conversation drifted into another channel.

Police Intelligence.

Fred Riley charged with disorderly conduct on the public streets was fined $5.

On Friday morning Charles Seymour of Maryville was charged before police magistrate Marsh with an aggravated assault upon the person of one Etsa Black, also of Maryville. Complainant alleged that defendant seized her by the hair and slapped her in the face. Defendant admitted the offence and was fined $5, and $100 costs. The alternative was twenty days jail. His honor severely censured the prisoner for his cowardly attack upon an unprotected female. The fine was immediately paid.

Herman O'Ree was charged with assault on the same girl, but as there were some extenuating circumstances regarding his case he was let off with a fine of $4.

James Case, charged with obstructing pedestrians on the public streets, did not appear, and the evidence was taken by default. John Buchanan said that on the evening of the 11th inst., he was proceeding along King street accompanied by James Delong, Mrs. Delong, Wm. Lyons and Harry Martin. Case came along in the opposite direction, carrying a scawling which swung from side to side entirely obstructing their progress. They were unable to pass him and his language when spoken to was very abusive and insulting. He was proceeding along King street, and was stopped by James Delong. His honor said this was a clear case of vagrancy and quoted the section respecting obstructing the streets. He should impose a fine of $20 and $5 costs, or in default thereof, 60 days jail. The police were notified to call upon the defendant at once.

Frederick Clarke, and John Kerch, the two lads charged with stealing a sum of $50 from the house of E. B. Morton telegraph operator of this city, were on Tuesday last called up for judgment. In the case of the lads Clarke his honor sentenced him to 60 days jail, and Kerch to 30 days. The latter had sustained painful injuries. Her right leg was broken and the shock to her system was great. As soon as possible, Miss Kerch will be conveyed to her home on Queen street, where Dr. Currie and Vanwart attend, and set the injured member. The young lad is doing well but it will be some time before she will be able to be about again.

Heraldism.

York county court opens on Tuesday next. Judge Steadman presiding. Parties of discharged lumbermen from the various parts of the country have been in town this week.

Miss Duffy is at present acting at St. Dunstan's school until a successor to the late principal is appointed.

The contract for a new day school by the St. John police for the theft of $27. The wharf committee have arrived at a decision respecting the high water wharf lease and will report at the next monthly meeting of the town council.

The women's working band in connection with the Methodist church at Maryville, gave an excellent entertainment on Thursday evening last. These ten-cent meetings are very popular in the district.

PERSONAL.

Concerning People Known to Most Readers.

Postmaster and Mrs. Hilyard have gone on a sailing to South Carolina. Col. Beer, of Sussex, census commissioner for the province, is at the Queen. Dr. F. M. Brown is now out of danger and is able to be about again.

A Jamaica paper says: "In the southeast corner stands the handsome trophy of New Brunswick, the ship which was the first vessel which is used for that purpose by the commissioner from Canada; on either side of the glass door are windows white around the outside hang splendid views of water, and around the parliament buildings at Ottawa. Over the door is a fine specimen of a caribou head from the same province. On each of the main panels is the name of the wood and its number so that the stranger can at once discover the kind and number of woods in the structure. This exhibit is shown by J. R. Risten & Co., of Fredericton, and reflects much credit on them as neat and artistic wood workers."

CHICAGO TO FREDERICTON.

A Tramp and His Methods of Travel.

On Tuesday morning the Herald man encountered a strange specimen of the genus homo on King street. He was a clean shaven well dressed young man of some slender physique, about 5ft 10 in. in stature, fair complexion, chestnut hair, and of slender build. He wanted the price of a meal, and the directions for Woodstock. Both having been tendered him, he volunteered some information and said he had beaten his way from Chicago, and was going to Woodstock to "work" a friend who was residing there. From Woodstock he intended to run on to Halifax, and there find a ship.

Asked how he had accomplished the task of beating his way from Chicago to the depths of winter he said: "Well you see I am a painter and a rough tailor. When times are dull and the morning frosts attack me I have two occupations to fall back upon. In summer I generally purchase some composition paints—powder I mean—and with a stock of oil I soon find my way to the painter for my purpose. Yes, sir, I have painted nearly all the doors in one section of the New York state in return for night's lodging, and made a few fifty cent pieces. Seen some strange experiences? Well, I can always manage to secure good old brandy, and I generally leave my old bed when I take new."

"Did I ever dodge a freight train? Well a few times, but I guess you're getting inquisitive, stranger. Good day."

Calendar of Casualties.

Edward Hayes while working in the lumber woods got badly hurt by falling from a tree. He was admitted to the hospital here on Thursday on the recommendation of Dr. Owens of Millville. He had been suffering from rheumatism for some time, and was in a bad state of health.

Willie Gormally the young lad who was punished for misconduct a few weeks ago, fell from a tree and broke his arm. Willie was wrestling with one of his companions he fell heavily on the sidewalk and broke his arm. The injured member has been set, and the young lad is doing as well as can be expected under the circumstances.

On Saturday the 8th inst., an aged resident of Durham named Wilkinson was struck and fatally injured by the Canada eastern train. He was carried to his home in a few hours. Deceased, who was 80 years of age, was walking on the track, and did not appear to notice the train, although the usual whistle had been blown by the driver. The railway employees have been exonerated from all blame in the matter.

On Tuesday evening Miss Ella Burnett of this city, who had been getting the service at the Baptist church, met with a severe fall on the slippery sidewalk, just as the congregation were emerging from the church. Several friends hastened to her assistance, and it was found that the young lady had sustained painful injuries. Her right leg was broken and the shock to her system was great. As soon as possible, Miss Burnett will be conveyed to her home on Queen street, where Dr. Currie and Vanwart attend, and set the injured member. The young lady is doing well but it will be some time before she will be able to be about again.

A NEW BRUNSWICKER ABROAD.

A Short Sketch of a Fredericton Man's Success on the Stage.

Most of our readers will remember the name of John W. Gilbert, the adopted son of Mr. Quinn, George street, and who for many years worked as a painter in this city. He was quite a character in his way, had a genius for imitation, and was noted for many funny impersonations rendered by him here at local amateur performances.

One of his oddities is well remembered, it was a laughable part in a polymorphian parody. The idea was Mr. Gilbert's and he had a worthy collaborator in the person of John Collins, brother to Charles Collins of this city. The two worthies procured an abandoned old horse and decorated the animal lavishly with shamrocks. Gilbert attired in a Hibernian costume, an old pea green cutaway, knee breeches, silk stockings and buckie shoes, and carrying in his hand an enormous shillalah, was accompanied by Collins in an antiquated monster crinoline, red shawl, as a burlesque impersonation of a vivacious colleen. The sight of the scraggy horse being driven in the procession by John Gilbert, and the antics of the two lovers was a well remembered feature of the parade.

Mr. Gilbert left this city a few years ago for Boston, where in addition to his skill as a painter he made himself conspicuous by his delineations of local characters, and the amateur dramatic companies in that city took him up.

A few weeks ago our New Brunswicker was appointed by manager Tompkins, of the Soudan company, to take an important part in the play of that name, which has had an astonishing run in Boston. His assumption of the Arab character assigned to him was so satisfactory, that a permanent engagement was at once entered into. John W. Gilbert is now on a starting tour through the principal states of the Union and will travel as far west as St. Louis. He will be absent about three months, and we hope to read of his success from time to time. Should he ever visit the home of his boyhood, he may rest assured of a royal welcome from his friends in this city.
