LOCAL AND OTHER ITEMS.

MARK WRIGHT & Co. have opened a steam laundry.

"FATHER CHINIQUY" is expected to visit the Island soon on a lecturing tour.

SIR HECTOR LANGEVIN, who, last week, was ill at Riviere du Loup, has completely recovered.

THE applications for matriculation at the Prince of Wales College, for the ensuing term, number three hundred and seventy-four.

THE Patriot says that the Portland Packing Company's factories in New Brunswick are doing a large business, while those on the Island are closed up.

MR. SCHREIBER, accompanied by Chief Engineer Archibald of the Intercolonial and Superintendents Coleman and Unsworth are on their annual inspection of our Island railway.

THE young man named McNeill, whose death by drowning at Modesta, California, we noticed a few weeks ago, was the eldest son of Mr. Archibald C. McNeill, of Bonshaw, Lot 30.

AN Ottawa despatch says: Mr. George Perkins has been awarded the contract for building certain breakwaters in the Straits of Northumberland for the improvement of the water communication between New Brunswick and Prince Edward Island.

IT will be satisfactory to the creditors of the Insolvent Bank of P. E. Island to learn that the Dominion Government have decided not to press their claim against the Bank, and have consented to rank as ordinary creditors. This will enable the liquidators to pay about ten per cent. more dividend.

"WHAT in thunder is that fellow across the street wearing a fur cap for this time of year," asked Mr. Tweed the other day of the Diamond Bookstore man. "Probably he is a newspaper man, and needs a fur-tile brain," replied Theo. Exit Tweed, having urgent business at the Custom House.

MR. JAMES L. CARVER, shoemaker, of Lot 48, but for the last fifteen years a resident of the United States, was recently drowned in Boston, by falling over Meridian Street Bridge. He was 54 years of age, and brother of Mr. George Carver, saddler, of this city. His remains arrived in Charlottetown on Monday evening by express.

THE Carroll sailed for Boston last Friday with general cargo and the following passengers: Mrs. Jas. Morrow, Mrs. James Lutz; Misses Sharpley, Kate Peebles, Cameron, M. Botts, Maggie Beaton, F. Hogherty, A. McCormack, Maggie Larkin, Ross; Messrs. James G. Hinckley, W. Bassett, John McDonald, Jas. Hogan, A. McKinnon, C. H. Lutz.

MR. LESLIE E. MCLEOD, for some time past on the editorial staff of the Summerside Journal has accepted a position on Wallace's Monthly, a New York publication, and which we understand is the highest authority on "The Trotting Horse" in the world. We congratulate Mr. McLeod on his good fortune, and wish him success in his new field of labor.

THE Patriot man is awe-struck at sight of the claw of an immense lobster which, it says, was recently caught at Launching, and which is "about four times larger than a whole crustacea of the size seen here on market days." It is cruel of our friend, J. E. Grant, to be humbugging the Patriot with his old lobster claw, which has been doing regular local duty for the last five years. The "crustacea" of which it formed part was not caught on this Island at all.

THE Worcester arrived from Boston last Saturday with general cargo and the following passengers: Mrs. Ford and son, Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Husstis, Misses Holman, Hoppin, Mary Healy, Margaret Hutton, Minnie J. Palmer, Sarah A. McAulay, Douse, Clara Hogan, Nellie Murphy, Margaret McKinnon, Messrs. Dan. McDonald, Brown, A. G. McLeod, B. Clements, W. W. Fletcher, E. A. Snow, A. Snow, H. Whittemore, J. Carey. The Worcester sailed on Monday with general cargo and following passengers: Mrs. T. F. Plaidwell, Misses Fanny McEachern, Johanna Murphy, Annie Arbing and Fairclough, and Messrs. Daniel McDonald, John Beaton, Frank Dixon and D. S. Walker.

A LUNATIC, giving his name as Daniel McDonald, of the East Point, was a passenger by the Worcester on Saturday last. Early on Sunday morning he strolled ashore, and taking a fancy to the general appearance of Mr. Stirling's residence on Water Street, by some means obtained entrance and proceeded to make himself comfortable. Mr. Stirling seems to have objected to the unceremonious a visitor, and summoned a policeman who removed McDonald who will be sent to his home upon the first opportunity.

THE steamer Bonavista arrived from Montreal last Friday with a general cargo and the following passengers: Mr. J. B. Julien, Mr. A. O. Morin, Mr. George Cunnighan, Mr. Jas. Cunningham, Mrs. Jas. Cunningham, two Misses Hall, Mr. James Bancroft, Mr. Chas. Davies, Mr. D. S. Davison, Mr. Harry J. Ross, Mr. and Mrs. Richard White and six children, Mrs. Niven, Miss Salisbury, Mr. T. C. Taylor, Miss Taylor, Miss Washburn, Mr. D. R. McGibbon, Mr. A. McCann, Mr. Jas. Kirby, Mrs. J. A. Browning and child, Mr. Andrew Mustard, Mr. D. M. Fraser, Mr. R. K. Frowse, Mr. J. B. Blanchette, Mr. R. F. Fontaine, Mr. G. F. Burnett, Mr. Jas. Purchett, Mrs. Carrigan, Mrs. Doyle and three children. She sailed on Monday for Newfoundland.

REGARDING the performances of the Robert-Gardner Circus which is expected to visit the Island this summer, the Annapolis Spectator says: The Roberts-Gardner "Great Two Ring Circus" gave two performances here yesterday to small audiences. Those who expected to see a first-class performance were sadly disappointed. The trained dogs were not there, and other advertised features were noted for their absence. The horizontal bar and ring performances were inferior to that given by local talent in this town. The trapeze performance was good, while the bare-back riding by Mr. Gardner was excellent. The "lady" advertised to walk the wire was of the opposite gender. Only one ring was used at a time, while the clown vainly endeavored to fill the time with far-fetched puns and stale jokes. The most important personage in the whole show was one who at different times appeared to announce the wonders to be seen at the after show, "all for ten cents and the clown's song book thrown in."

Obituary.

It is with regret that we announce the death of a much esteemed lady, Mrs. Peter McKenna, eldest daughter of the late Patrick Hughes, of Mill Cove, and sister of Rev. Robert Hughes, now of St. Paul, Minn., which occurred at her residence, Baldwin's road, on the evening of the 20th inst. Her remains were followed to their last resting place, on the 22nd inst., by a very large procession of sorrowing relatives and friends. The church was heavily draped in mourning. Solemn Requiem Mass was sung by the R. Gillis. The pastor, Rev. M. J. McMillan, took for his text "Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord," and spoke feelingly of the many noble qualities and Christian virtues that adorned the life of the deceased, and admonished her bereaved family to look beyond the grave to where her generous soul, freed from its load of mortality would become their powerful advocate before the Throne of God. In the new churchyard beneath the shadow of the Cross of St. Theresa, she sleeps with her two children awaiting a glorious resurrection.

THE following analysis (made by the Dominion Analyst) of three BAKING POWDERS sold in this market should put a stop to the unjust efforts of the Royal to mislead the public into supposing that it is the only pure Powder. These impartial tests show that other Powders are as pure and wholesome:

W. SAUNDERS, Dom. Analyst, London, Ont., reports:

Royal—Contains Alkalies Carbonate—a mixture consisting mainly of Bi-Carbonate of Soda and Cream of Tartar—adulterated with about 20 per cent. of Starch.

W. F. BEST, Dom. Analyst, St. John, N. B., reports:

Pure Gold—Contains Cream of Tartar, Carbonate of Soda and Flour—Fresh and pure.

WOODILL'S { Nov. 10, 1885—Not adulterated; same as usual. April 7, 1886—Not adulterated; same as usual. June 4, 1886—Fresh and pure; same composition as usual.

MAYNARD BOWMAN, Dom. Analyst, Halifax, N. S., reports:

WOODILL'S { Of good quality; contains nothing injurious.

WOODILL'S GERMAN BAKING POWDER has had a reputation for purity and wholesomeness now nearly thirty years.

Charlottetown Woolen Mills.

HOME, SWEET HOME.

FARMERS,—If you want to save disturbance in the home, go quickly to any one of the Agencies of the Charlottetown Woolen Company and Buy a Suit of Clothes.

The good wife's time is occupied sufficiently without being annoyed and worried in mending the Clothes purchased elsewhere than from us; so if you really desire peace, and have an everlasting Suit, go as we advise.

We started manufacturing in 1881, and every year our business has gone on and multiplied, but in case there still be a few who have not heard the glad tidings or favored us with a visit, to all such, and to all our old customers and the public generally we extend a cordial invitation to come and see us.
