Sad Cases of Destitution in the City.

We are informed from a reliable source that the destitution existing in the city at the present time is great, and is mainly on account of lack of employment. In the small tenement houses along the intersecting streets, particularly in the West End, there is much distress to be seen. "It is difficult to conceive," said our informant, "what hardships and sufferings some poor creatures are going through, through no fault of their own." Strange to say, however, that the most deserving cases are people who are remaining reticent about their condition. These same people saw brighter and better days and not very long ago, but just now are in subject poverty. It is commendable to note that the charitable institutions are so active and are attending to the needy since the advent of winter. The ladies of the Dorcas Society, especially, are constantly attending to the wants of the poor.

PITTABLE CASES.

Some heartrending cases are known to exist. Two New Yorkers, a middle aged woman and her daughter, named Palmer, were found yesterday morning by the police without food or fuel. They came here twelve months ago and have no one to provide for them. The daughter has managed so far to keep herself and mother from perishing with hunger.

Pope Intoned Prayer for Peace.

Rome, Feb. 7.—There was an impressive scene in Saint Peter's this afternoon when Pope Benedict intoned prayer for peace. The great edifice was thronged with worshippers when the Pope, surrounded by twenty-two cardinals, mounted to the Papal altar. Standing between the four richly gilded spirals of the derminal canopy, Pope Benedict intoned the prayer, which was repeated by the kneeling multitude, whose voices echoed throughout the great temple. The prayer was to "God of All Mercies, King of Peace."

The Pope, on arriving and departing was accorded an ovation. As he was leaving after the ceremony, there were many cries of "Long live the Pope," and "Give us peace."

Despite the downpour of rain at three o'clock this afternoon, all the bells of the four hundred churches in Rome pealed out, calling the people to services to implore the cessation of the war, and the establishment of peace among the nations of the world. Over sixty thousand persons gathered in St. Peter's.

Where is the Oriole?

Think British Ship May Be Another Submarine Victim.

London, Feb. 5.—The British steamer Oriole, which left London for Havre last Thursday and was due at Havre on Sunday, has not been reported. Lloyd's are paying fifty guineas per cent to cover her total loss.

Much alarm is felt for the safety of the Oriole on account of the German submarine activity, and fears are also entertained regarding the steamer Borowdale, which has not been reported since leaving here January 21 for Granville, near Saint Malo.

Heavy Fatalities on Seydlitz.

London, Feb. 6.—The Times correspondent at Rotterdam says that he learns the German battle cruiser Seydlitz was very seriously damaged in the naval engagement in the North Sea on January 24 and that the fatalities aboard were heavy.

1st Nfld. Regiment

COMMANDING OFFICER TO HIS EXCELLENCY.

Fort George, Inverness-shire, 27th January, 1915.

Dear Sir Walter Davidson,—

I have to acknowledge receipt of your letters of Christmas Day and 11th Jan., and to thank you for the kind terms of the same.

I have fulfilled your instructions to Pte. Metcalf, who was much gratified. In case of any serious illness I will at once inform you.

The conduct of the men has been good throughout, and it is a cause of great satisfaction.

The men are also very fit, and their healthy, fresh and vigorous appearance, as compared with the men of other units around, has been remarked on.

Our time is spent in routine field training, and the Regiment is making good progress, the weather and other conditions helping the same.

Lord Brassey did the Regiment a valuable service in making a thorough inspection of it at Bustard Camp and has honored it and been exceedingly good to it on several occasions.

Mr. Sursham and the Anglo-Nfld. Development Co., Mr. and Mrs. W. Martin, of Paignton, Devon, the Newfoundland War Contingent Committee and the Rt. Hon. Sir William MacGregor, Mr. J. W. Evans, Carmelite House, and others have been very good to us.

A. Company, under Captain Carthy, has just completed a course of musketry, and fired well.

B. Company, under Captain Alexander, has commenced a course to-day.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your Excellency's obedient servant,

R. de H. BURTON.

We are looking forward to the arrival of the draft.

Narrow soft linen roll-over collars and cuffs will be worn with plain waists.

Naval Reservist Dies in Hospital.

At 4.30 this morning the death occurred at the General Hospital of Naval Reservist Edward Young, of Bonne Bay, after a very brief illness. Deceased joined H.M.S. Calypso, as a volunteer, some months ago and after undergoing the necessary training, was a member of the contingent that left on the Allan Liner Mongolian and returned again. While on the Mongolian he contracted a severe cold. On Wednesday last his condition grew serious and he was removed to hospital. His illness became more critical and he succumbed this morning, as mentioned. Deceased was an active young man and a fine type of seaman, unmarried and had been living with his parents at Bonne Bay, before he enlisted to do service for his King and Country. He died in harness a true British hero, and to the bereaved parents and other relatives general sympathy will go out.

The Same Old Flag at "Ours."

Another big crowd at the West End again last night. Every one talking about the pictures. They are far ahead of any seen in a long while. Mr. Rossley is making arrangements with the great Elliott firm, and he will be the first to show these wonderful films. The pictures of this company made quite a sensation in Europe. Their strength lies in consistent stories in realistic scenes, with the best photography and acted by established motion picture stars. The clever little Aneta almost brought down the house last night; dressed in correct man-o-war serge suit, she sang "We are all under the same old flag," and was encored again and again.

At the close of the meeting, 21 enlisted—15 for Naval Reserve and 6 for the First Nfld. Regiment.

Mary Peckford and Cinderella.

Among the many beautiful pictures shown at Rossley's last night was the great feature film "At Home Folks," with Miss Mary Peckford. This picture shows the beautiful young star at her best, and had much to do with placing her where she is to-day at the head of all the motion picture ladies in the world. The Sheriff Round Up is another stirring feature, while the travelogues take us among strange lands and strange people. The Making of Corks is very interesting and instructive. The crowd last night were delighted with the pantomime, Cinderella, each and every member receiving encores, while Jack Rossley had the house in roars. Only two more days to see the best of all the pantomimes. The big matinee on Saturday, send the children to see poor Cinderella, the whole production and all the pictures; children, five cents. Monday, "A Night with the Allies."

Why is POSTUM Replacing Tea and Coffee?

People are waking up to the harmful effects of the powerful drug—caffeine—in tea and coffee, which poisons the system, often resulting in nervousness, heart flutter, headache, biliousness and many other ills and discomforts.

The pure food-drink, Postum, is absolutely drug-free—made only of the choicest wheat and a bit of wholesome molasses. It contains no caffeine or other harmful elements.

If you doubt that tea or coffee hurts you, a sure test is to leave it off for 10 days and use Postum. It's an easy change, and, as the drug is eliminated from your system, your own feelings will suggest Postum and better health.

Postum comes in two forms: Regular Postum—must be boiled, 15c and 25c packages; Instant Postum—soluble form, made in the cup with hot water instantly, 30c. and 50c tins.

Both kinds are equally delicious, and the cost per cup is about the same.
