THE BALKAN SITUATION.

LONDON, Aug. 6. Pressure is being put on the Balkan nations by the four Allied Powers—Britain, Russia, France and Italy—to have them settle their differences, reconstruct the Balkan League and join the Allies in their war against the Austro-Germans. On Wednesday the Ministers of those our Powers were called together by Premier Gounaris, of Greece, but no announcement of the outcome of the visit has been made known. They urged that a speedy settlement of the the accession to power of the Venize-los party, which swept the country

FOX HARBOR, To-day. His Grace arrived at Fox Harbor yesterday morning. An address from the school children was followed by a concert last night in the school hall. His Grace was much pleased with the preparations and every thing that was done in his honor. This morning the entire population received the Sacraments of Penance and Holy Communion, after which Confirmation was administered to 62 boys and 76 girls. His Grace gave a beautiful reply to the address presented by the people of Fox Harbor. It was as their Bishop, Pastor and Shepherd of their souls, he came amongst them. He referred in feel-ing terms to the late Archbishop of St. John's, whose mantle had fallen upon him to guide and rule the Arch-diocese. Speaking of the people of Fox Harbor, it was a great source of edification and consolation to a Bishop that came to behold such eviden-ces of their piety, devotion and practical catholicity.
