Noted Tenor Delights St. John's Music Lovers

DRIAN DASILVA ALREADY POPU-LAR WITH PATRONS OF THE

Tenor, fresh from his brilliant sucess in the Rivoli and Rialto Theatres of New York has already made numerous friends in St. John's by his beautifully cultured Tenor voice which he uses to excellent advantage in his songs. Mr. DaSilva sings with ease and charm which commands the strictest attention of his audience. He possesses a personality of unusual attractiveness which is almost as great an asset as his splendid voice. His numbers last night were (a) "Within The Garden of my Heart,"

(b) Roses of Picardy," (c) "Because." "The Denial," which opened at this Theatre yesterday, brings a story of unusualness, a background of great interest, and an atmosphere that is entirely new to the screen.

There is a prologue, an epilogue and a main story. The two former are laid in the present day period, while the latter is placed in that time just around the corner usually called "yesterday." but actually the year 1897. Two characters go through both periods, as the connecting links between the past and the present. Agnes Christine Johnston adapted

Spring New Surprises AUDIENCES ENRAPTURED WITH ARTISTES RECITAL.

Last night at the Majestic, Adams & Cheney added new laurels to their fame as entertainers. Their piano violin selections fascinated the audiences so much so that they were compelled to respond to repeated encores It is only a fair admission that these two artistes are the cleverest we have had in their line for many years, and already, music lovers have begun to appreciate their outstanding ability Last night, the audiences were enraptured with the selection of popular airs and medleys. From every view point, the concert was even more than could be desired. The picture, "Hutch Stirs 'em Up," gave ample scope to Charles Hutchinson, the dare devil of the movies, to even do greater stunts than seen in any of his previous pictures. His series of thrilling stunts kept Majestic patrons awestricken, and it was only the humorous situation that brought them back to reality again. Following "Hutch Stirs 'em Up," was a comedy that was a real comedy, and from every aspect, last night's bill was a good two hours' entertainment. It will be repeated to-night, also to-morrow afternoon and night, and as already announced, the Artistes have ar-Matinee, and the Management have arranged for extra pictures for the benefit of those who attend.

"Queenie" and Jackie Coogan Are in Trouble

usually can find one in his dog." That's the way Jackie Coogan feels about Queenie, who played such a conspicuous role in "Peck's Bad Boy" with the little screen star.

Now Jackie and Queenie are both in trouble-not real trouble, but a picture called "Trouble," a First National attraction that will be seen at the Star Theatre to-night.

In this as in "Peck's Bad Boy" Queenie is the patient pal of Jackie and sticks to him through sunshine and storm. He plays the role of an orphan and because the authorities of the home won't have Queenie, he runs away and it is there his troubles

The play has been compared to "The Kid." in which Jackie made his screen debut and the little fellow said to do the very best work of his brief but brilliant career in it.
