Despatches to the Evening Mercury

THE REVOLT IN SPAIN

Insurrection in Italy!

Paris, Sept. 22nd.—A report is current that the Minister of War will instantly issue orders for the dismissal to their homes of eighty thousand men from the army on furlough.

Berlin, 22nd.—The King of Prussia has returned here from a tour through the Northern States.

London, 22nd, evening.—It is rumored that a Spanish fleet off Cadix has opened fire on that city, where at least 50,000 men are garrisoned.

Paris, 22nd.—Official despatches from Spain admit that insurrection has broken out at Madrid and in Seville, but its existence in Murcia and Gálvez is denied.

London, 22nd.—Despatches from Naples report that an insurrection has broken out in Calabria and Sicily in favor of an Italian Republic.

Paris, 22nd.—Telegrams to the Emperor confirm the news of a rising in the south of Italy.

New York, 23rd.—The Herald's London special of last evening says: Advice from Madrid, dated yesterday evening, the 21st, report that a government decree has been issued in the capital accepting the resignation of all the members of the Bravo cabinet.

The Madrid Gazette of the 21st announced that a revolt against the Government had taken place at Cadix and Seville.

The Government had formed the army into three grand military divisions which were placed under command of Generals Pradier, Manuel Concha and Novia Lisbeza, and they had decided to attack the insurgents in rural districts.

The General in command in Madrid published an official notice at the corners of each of the streets forbidding assemblages of people in the city.

A provisional government has been formed in Seville which declared Espartero as President.

The forces of the insurgents are estimated as numbering fourteen thousand soldiers with five thousand sailors serving in eleven ships of war.

The revolt makes progress at all points.

San Francisco, 22nd.—Barkerville, British Columbia, was destroyed by fire on the 16th Sept. Loss estimated at $1,000,000.

The safes of the banks of British North America and British Columbia saved.
