LONDON

Mr. and Mrs. L. Stewart of Ottawa Ave. had the misfortune to have their home partly destroyed by fire last Friday morning. Many valuable pieces of furniture were burned and several articles were ruined by water.

Last Sunday was quarterly meeting at the BME Church. Rev. Stewart, although weak from his recent illness, was able to be present at the three services. Rev. James Hamilton preached in the afternoon and Mr. W. D. Yeo. was the speaker at the evening services. Both gentlemen presented strong and thoughtful sermons.

Mrs. Jane Cormwell is improving favourably. Rev. E. M. Wood was able to attend services at the Hill St. Baptist Church last Sunday, although he was still unable to deliver one of his very stirring sermons. He hopes to be able to conduct the services all next Sunday which will be an eventful day. He expects to baptise one candidate and to ordain three brethren as official deacons. Several visiting deacons from the white Baptist Churches are expected to be present.

Mrs. Wm. Berry of Front Street has been confined to her bed for several days.

CHATHAM

Rally Sunday was held in the B. M.E. Church last Sunday. Special programs were included for the afternoon and night.
