(Special to the Advertiser.)

WATFORD, Nov. 20.—A. F. Campbell, Conservative M. P. P. for Algoma, has been on a secret mission through the riding. His view is that now Mr. McCallum is in the field against Dr. Mackinnon, the regularly selected Liberal nominee, there is a chance to slip in a "throughthick-and-thin" Conservative between the two. To nominate such a man is alleged to be the object of the meeting in the village to-morrow. The present purpose, I understand, is to put up J. R. Courtwright, of Brooke. I am toid to-day that if they do so, Mr. McCallum will drop out, as it was only by the promise of P. P. A. support, engineered by the Conservative bosses, that he entered the field, and he strongly protests against being made a dupo of.

Two Fifteen-Year-Olds Try What Mabel
Hipple and Jennie McDonald Did.
Pittseurs, Nov. 19.—Ida Lewis, following the example of Mable Hipple and Jennie McDonald, who ended their young lives last week, attempted suicide last night by drinking laudanum and carbolic acid at the home of her grandmother, Mrs. Hughes, in Allegheny. Laura Gray, her girl companion of the same age, intended to commit suicide but her courage failed her. Miss Gray was with the Lewis girl when she took the poison, but changed her mind and gave the alarm. Physicians afterwards saved Miss Lewis. The girls, it is said, have been reading trashy literature and had conceived the idea that they were a burden to their relatives.

Good Excuse for Hotheads to Stir Up Strife.

Montreal, Nov. 20.—The trial of the youths Honore Mercier, Paul de Martigny and Alphonee Pellard, charged with attempting to blow up Nelseu's monument, was postponed till the 28th, and in the meantime they were admitted to bail in $800 personal bail and $800 security each. The three prisoners are all youths from 17 to 18 years of age, and they belong to leading French-Canadian families. The affair has created a great deal of talk, but is generally denounced as a ridiculous cutrage. The French papers ridicule the attempt, but it may create bad feeling, and there are already signs that the hotheads among both the French and English are only pleased with the opportunity of making trouble.
