A STORY TOLD.

A little work, a little play,
To keep us going—and so, good-day!A little warmth, a little light, Of love's bestowing—and so good-night!A little fun to match the sorrow Of each day's growing—and so, good-morrow!A little trust that when we die We reap our sowing. And so—good-bye!

cursion to Detroit on Monday.

preach in St. Paul's Cathedral tomorrow morning.

good force of men working last night cousin, Miss Carrie Bennett, in Dundas on Tuesday.

—The Bishop of Huron confirmed 75 candidates in St. George's Church, London township, and Trinity Church, Birr, on Tuesday.

—Mrs. W. F. Brockenshire, has returned to Wingham from the hospital here.
Though she is quite weak yet, she is gradually improving.

—The Marine Band of the Young Liberal Fleet is engaged to give a promenade band concert at the driving park, Windsor, on Monday evening before returning home.

—The final meeting of the St. Andrew's Society and Clan Fraser picnic committee will be held on Tuesday evening next in the rooms of the treasurer, Ald. J. W. Jones.

—A pedestrian picked up a roll of bills at Dundas and Richmond streets yesterday afternoon and handed them to F. C. Eggle-ton. The money can be had at the police station.

—Rev. Dr. Stone, Collingwood, Rev. W.
R. Barker, Orillia; Rev. J. E. Lancelotti, Barrie; and Sheriff Bettes, Bracebridge, are delegates to the Methodist General Conference in this city.

—Some one set fire to a heap of rubbish on the Wortley road crescent yesterday and adjoining fences were in danger for awhile.
No. 3 brigade was called out and extinguished the blaze. The firemen had a run to the same place on Thursday.

—Drunks and vags made up the Police Court docket today. George Stone and Charles Riley were—like a good many lately—found in a C. P. R. box car. They were just out of charge, and in default of a $10 fine went down for a month. Three drunks followed suit and one was discharged.

—The builders' picnic, as everybody knows, was a pronounced success, and its promoters wish to tender their thanks to the energetic committee who carried out the arrangements so efficiently, to the subscribers, who showed great liberality, and to the general public who were present in such large numbers.

—Mr. J. W. Wheaton, secretary of the Dairymen's Association of Western On-of weeks in visiting the chief butter districts of Illinois, Wisconsin and Iowa, with the object of gathering information as to the methods and practices in use in those sections where the creamery business is made a specialty.

—Mrs. Jones was not punished by the police magistrate for using abusive language towards, in a public place, Mrs. Russell, of Bathurst street, because Mrs. Russell interceded for her, on the promise that Mrs.
Jones would apologize and take back the epithets that she applied to her. The police magistrate said that Mrs. Russell's character had been proved good.

—With reference to the moonlight excursion on Thursday night last the railroad people laugh at the idea that the Lakeside could not accommodate a crowd of 500. The fact is that the boat did so because they could not get seats.

The boat has carried a great deal larger number with comfort, though it could not be expected that all would be seated.

with the excursion are doing everything possible to make this the best outing of the season. Ample accommodation is promised by the railroad authorities and the best cars will be furnished. The special will leave at 7:15 sharp on Monday morning—7:20 will be too late to catch it.

Candidate for the Lash.

St. Thomas Journal: Robert Baker, of London, a traveling tinker, was arrested last night for indecently assaulting a child.

About 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon Baker called at the residence of Mr. Henry Norton, barber, Wellington street. Finding no one in the house but Mr. Norton's 11-year-old daughter Ruby the man attempted to indecently assault her. The child managed under an excuse to get away from the man and ran to her father's shop around the corner and gave the alarm. Mr.
Norton found the man in the house and gave him a sound thrashing. He was afterwards arrested by Constable Palmerston. At the police court this morning he was remanded on Monday. It is understood that he ex-

Repetition of Job's Great Affliction.

Mr. George Henry Drew, of this city, has been in very poor health for some time. His system was completely run down, and his blood so impoverished that "boils" came out all over his body. In short, it seemed but a repetition of Job's great affliction, for no sooner did they disappear in one part of the body than they returned elsewhere with more severity, and this condition of affairs seemed to increase, although Mr. Drew had tried no end of cures. On the 5th day of August he got one bottle of the Royal Crown Remedy, and a box of Royal Crown Pills at Barkwell's drug store, of which he has taken half, and last evening he called at the above store to return thanks, and in the presence of eight witnesses stated that it did him more than $1,000 worth of good, as he had not felt as well for years, and the benefits derived from it could not be overrated, and it ought to be made known to other sufferers. It establishes throughout the entire system functional harmony, and supplies the blood vessels with a pure and healthy current of new life. The skin, after a few days' use of the Royal Crown Remedy, becomes clear and beautiful—pimples, blotches, black spots and skin eruptions are removed, sores and ulcers soon cured. Persons suffering from Scrofula, Eruptive Diseases of the Eyes, Mouth, Ears, Legs, Throat and Glands, that have accumulated and spread, either from unclean diseases or mercury, or from the use of corrosive sublimate, may rely on a cure if the Royal Crown Remedy is continued a sufficient time to make its impression on the system. xt presses the intention of pleading guilty.

The accused is a man of about 30 years of age, and has a wife, who separated from him, living in London.

Mrs. Morford's Funeral.

The remains of Mrs. Charlotte S. Morford, wife of Supt. J. B. Morford, of the M. C. R., were buried from St. Thomas yesterday. Deceased lay in a handsome casket, which was surrounded by a profusion of floral offerings. A large concourse gathered to pay the last tribute of respect at the funeral. The services, which were held at noon, were conducted by Rev. J. W. Aunis, of this city. Rev.
Messrs. C. T. Scott, D. Spencer, R. Mc-Intyre, and J. E. Hunter, of St. Thomas, assisted. Rev. Dr. Flannery was also present. The remains were taken to the M. C.
R. station, and thence to Port Jarvis, for interment. The casket was borne by Messrs. N. W. Moore, M. A. Gilbert, C.
Macdonnell, Q. C., and W. H. Underwood.
Col. Leys and the W. C. T. U.

"I fear that the Free Press has misreported a discussion that took place at the last meeting of the Western Fair Board," said Col. Leys yesterday. "I refer to the statements which it credits to me on the question of the W. C. T. U. and other refreshment booths. Let me tell you what happened, as can be vouched for by my fellow-directors, and you will see that the denunciation of the W. C. T. U. women, a large number of whom are my personal friends, which the Free Press reporter credits me with, was never indulged in by me. The W. C. T. U. asked liberty to erect an addition to their hall, but as the alteration would block up two of the windows of the poultry hall, and the poorly constructed addition, we declined to let the addition be made. At the same time, I incidentally raised the question whether it would not be advisable to provide some suitable place in the main building, where a confectioner could provide a hot meal for those in attendance there, among others myself, who were generally too busy to wait for a turn at the W. C. T. U. hall, and moreover desired to have an entirely hot dinner close to where called on to work. I did not say the W. C. T. U. place was unfit for any person to go into, or that it was a deception to the public. I merely said that considering the privileges they enjoy the W. C. T. U. did not give any better a meal than should be expected of them. I am at a loss to understand why the Free Press reporter should so misrepresent me, and I desire to give the widest possible publication to this denial. Let me say, further, that several of my fellow-directors agree with me as to the propriety of having a convenient place in the main building for obtaining meals for those in close attendance there."

Home and Abroad.

It is the duty of everyone, whether at home or traveling for pleasure or business, to equip himself with the remedy which will keep up his strength and prevent illness, and cure such ills as are liable to come upon all in everyday life. For instance, Hood's Sarsaparilla as a general tonic, and to keep the blood pure and less liable to absorb the germs of disease, will be well nightly valuable. Change of drinking often causes serious trouble, especially if one has been used to spring water in the country. From a few drops to a teaspoonful of Hood's Sarsaparilla in a tumbler of water will prevent the water having any injurious effect.

Hood's Vegetable Pills, as a cathartic, cause no discomfort, no disturbance, no loss of sleep, but assist the digestive organs, so that satisfactory results are effected in a natural and regular manner.
