I must tell you of a trick he played on some of the guard, and then I will tell you how he got the pass. He was on the outside of the stockade one morning when he saw some of the Johnnies cooking breakfast. They had Johnnies cooking breakfast. They had eggs, And eggs were a luxury in those days. The Yank stopped by the mess and said he was very fond of eggs. One of the Johnnies replied, 'You ought to get some.' The Yank said he thought he would, and that the ones he saw would suit. The Johnnies said they guessed not. The Yank looked on sullenly as the luxuries were being prepared, and when they were placed on the tin the Yank called out: 'I like and as he called the pulled a he wore for a shirt, and placed it by the eggs.
