Coates, Piett and Cratt.

ROUND GOES TO WATFORD

GROCERS PLAY

Referee-M. Elliott.

Seal Brand Coffee (In 1 Pound and) Strong In Its Purity.

Love Affair

'Like any other fellow's sister, mine." This is an artful touch, but Lady Riverdale strengthens herself to receive the shock, and continues to look

'Is it honorable of you to induce girl to marry you on seven hundred "Why, you are always admonishing value your life."
"Nonsense, Tom. What folly! One to ask this girl and that, to share "Nonsense, Tom. What folly! me to ask this girl and that, to share that handsome fortune.
"Not penniless girls."

as monstrous. I feel that with Griselda seven hundred a year will mean af-

Perhaps it would be wise to go into it before coming to such an extra- A breed thatordinary conclusion," says she coldly.
"I know what you mean by that," says he with a good-natured, but rather impatient laugh, "the gas bill, the coal bill, the butcher's bill — all

"Oh, go on!" slowly; "the wine bill, 'If you saw Griselda, you'd understand at once that she would be an excellent substitute for such dull things he appear for her safety, that suspicion as wine and cigars," says Mr. Peyton wakens in the breast of Lady Riverdale. with enthusiasm. His sister turns her pale but contemptuous eyes on him.
"Really, Tom, one would think you to what miserable scrape was this un-taking up the brush she professes to breed unknown—has no part at all. ignore his presence by giving all her [To be Continued.] attention to the deepening of a sunset, that already is far rosier-nay, let us that already is far rosier—nay, let us be truthful at all risks—far more vermillion than nature ever intended. When the silence that follows upon this speech has become too marked be pleasant, Mr. Peyton breaks it. "Look here," he says, using his fa-vorite form of address, "if you won't help me to marry her, I'll induce her like that. You will like it so little that I give you warning of it, because, leave her to wear her heart out in that dun geon, is more than I have pluck for."

"You have a great deal of pluck nevertheless," says she, still trying to be indifferent and still trying to over-color the luckless landscape. "Not enough to see the girl I love fretting herself to fiddlestrings day after day. You won't like to receive a laws of society, but I warn you that I shall get her out of Greycourt, by any

He has risen and is looking with earnest, troubled eyes at his sister, who, however, refuses to meet his glance. all. I may not acknowledge her," says she coolly, a trifle angered by his tone, to faint within her "Oh. if it comes to that, if you really mean what you say," says he stiffly, proceeding to unearth his hat from the dare say we-Griselda and I-will able to manage very well without you. that is somehow so unsuited to his kindly debonair countenance, he moves toward the door with a determination to depart now for ever that terrifles Lady Riverdale, who adores him.

'What on earth is it you want me to do?" cries she, flinging down the dedo?" cries she, llinging down the destructive brush and speaking with tearful wrath. "Come back, Tom, come back at once! What do you mean, by treating me in this way, when you you, you know I didn't — that there is against $1,714,665,116 in 1893, $1,547,020, 216 in 1893, and $1,164,616,112 in 1873. wasn't a word of truth in anything I

"Is that the truth now?" asks he, I can't deny that I am sorry you have selected a girl who, however desirable, cannot help you to more of this world's goods than you already postusions it is without a peer. world's goods than you already pos-sess, but you surely need not go off like a skyrocket just because I offer you a word of advice. I think you might wait and hear what a sensible woman He made the

has got to say before putting your fact that endurance, however stout, can "But what I meant to say Is, that I shouldn't have dreamed of soliciting your assistance, but that I am sure Griselda is everything that you could "I'm sure of it, sure," protests poor the nerve centers.

Lady Riverdale, again; "but if you would only come to the point. How is and restlessness

"If you would ask her on a visit here. I know old man Dysart would refuse any ordinary person, but you know. Seaton is such a chum of yours, and if you were to enlist his sympathies, he might work on the father, and between you the trick might be done. Will you do this for me? I take Diverdals. If your druggist has none in stock, get him to procure it for you.

The sacred fires of India are never allowed to go out. The most ancient of these fires has been burning for twelve centuries. It is fed five times every two hours with sandalwood and other frag-

"Oh, must I?" sighs Lady Riverdale, who has several good matrimonial alliances in her eye for her brother, and who is therefore dismally disappointed by this wayward fancy of his. "Well, I shall do my hear If I fail Town town." shall do my best. If I fail. Tom, you

"Not as I have your word to do your best." says he, regarding her gravely.
"There is one thing." hesitating — ly, $185,000,000.

head."
"Even that wouldn't help you to see C. Stewart, A. F. Steek and coming upon him unawares in the ghastly old rabbit-skin cap. "You have no idea of the sort of man my— Mr. Dysart is a regular fox, my dear girl —a modern Machiavelli. He'd know at once, at the very glimpse of you, and w. he is always on the lookout from some Be secret loophole of his, what it was you W. Andrews, jun., had come for. He would see it was business, not pleasure. And once he found that out— Take my advice, my dear girl, don't enter his gates as you would think we were living in the dark "I couldn't be happy with any girl but Griselda, not if she was the golden-legged Miss Kilmansegg berself As legged Miss Kilmansegg herself. As of having a temper so uncontrollable I tell you, I regard my former ravings that it would lead him to any excesses if provoked. Of course, I know he would not murder you deliberately in cold The Thistles wil blood, but he keeps a breed of dogs that car, via C. P. R. once let loose, would terrify a Hercules. HOCKEY.

Bloodhounds?" puts in Lady Riverdale, nervously.
"I don't exactly know what breed," says Mr. Peyton, now at all events, strictly truthful, "but once they lay hold of anything they never let go. If they caught hold of you," plaintively, "I should never forgive myself,"
He regards her with extreme anxiety. So painfully solicitous indeed does were 14 instead of 30," she says with ineffable disdain.

It seems to her that it is indeed mere for her—for Miss Dysart," she says, with happy boy fallen?

"Very good: I will take your word for her—for Miss Dysart," she says, with the same of the says, and the same of the says, and the same of the says of the says, and the same of the says of the same of the says, and the same of the sa waste of time to argue any further with while all the time a tiny plan is formua person so far gone in folly as this lating in her mind, a plan in which fear one dearly beloved brother of hers, and of those terrible dogs at Greycourt-

AND INSURE THE REGULAR AND HEALTHFUL ACTION OF THE BOWELS BY USING DR. CHASE'S KIDNEY-LIVER PILLS.

The bile is Nature's cathartic. So long as the liver filters the bile from the blood and passes it into the intestines, the bowels will be regular and active. Constipation can never be perman ently cured until the liver is set right Because they act directly on the liver as well as the bowels Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills are wonderfully successful as a cure for constipation and liver troubles. They rid the system of accumulated poisons, thoroughly cleanse the system and invigorate the organs of digestion and excretion. No family medicine was ever s universally used by the people of Canada, and none so generally indorsed.

Constipation, biliousness, kidney disease, liver complaint, backache and stomach troubles are among the ailments which are promptly cured by this treatment. Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, one pill a dose, 25 cents a box, at all dealers Edmanson, Bates & Co., Toronto. To protect you against imitations the portrait and signature of Dr. A. W. Chase, the famous receipt book author, are on every box.

The foreign commerce of the United roll of the world's great men.

States for 1903 was larger than that of It was not given to many of the 316 in 188? and $1,164,616,123 in 1873. IT KEEPS THE MUSCLES PLIANT .-Men given to muscular sports and exerlooking back with his fingers on the handle of the door.

"Have I not said it? Sit down again and let us talk things over. Of course, I can't deny that I am sorry you have selected a girl who, however devices and those who suffer muscular pains from bicycle riding will find Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil something worth trying. As a lubricant it will keep the muscles pliant and free from pains which often follow constant use of them, without softening or imposition their

The world's automobile record was broken at New Baltimore, Mich., on January 12 by Henry Ford of Detroit. He made the mile in 39 2-5 seconds, 6% hat in that abominably aggressive fash-ton, and—what is it I am to do, Tom?" the ice of Anchor Bay.

hat in that abominably aggressive fashion, and—what is it I am to do, Tom?"

"If you will only give us a helping hand," says he, "I wouldn't have come to you," eagerly—"I wouldn't indeed, if I wasn't sure you would love her when you see her. She is the sweetest girl, I assure you, the very sweetest I ever—"

"Yes yes I know," says poor Lady
"Yes yes I know," says poor Lady FOR INFLAMMATION OF THE ito has reigned. "Yes, yes, I know," says poor Lady Riverdale, who, after all, has endured great deal, and is conscious of the a surprisingly active way and the result a surprisingly active way, and the result is almost immediately seen.

The hydrophobia microbe has been discovered by Dr. A. Negri of Paris. He states he has examined more than one hundred dogs afflicted with natural or laboratory hydrophobia, and has in each case found the pacific microorganism in the negro content.

WORMS CAUSE feverishness, moaning and restlessness during sleep. Mother Graves' Worm Exterminator is pleasant, sure and effectual. If your druggist has none in stock, get him to procure it for hours with sandalwood and other frag-rant material, combined with very dry

Commerce between the United States Egypt into the promised land. Yet all that is modern and powerful in Japan

Cherry Pectoral
for hard colds, chronic coughs, consumption, old cases, severe cases. Ask your doctor if he

LONDON'S THISTLES ARE AFTER THE WESTERN ONTARIO TANKARD

Finals Are To Be Played at S.t of 8 to 3. The score at half time was of Florence flung their rings and brace-lets on Savonarola's Bonfire of Van-Marva Today—Some Hard-Fought Hockey Games.

THE W. O. TANKARD FINALS. St. Marys, Ont., Feb. 18. - In the inal W. O. tankard competition, comhere today, Port Elgin was unable to reach here on account of the snow blockade, Owen Sound de-all the world is permitted to see his following are today's scores: house and grounds for so much a Forest. Joseph Green, W. Randall.

M. Gordon, sk. .16 G. H. Milne, skip. Hensall. P. Stewart, W. McKay, M. Ellwood, Dr. Selley.

TO PLAY AT TORONTO. The Thistle Club will send five rinks McLeod; o Toronto on Monday next to play a wards, E. Howitt, N. Gray, A. Orr, R. en City Morgan. match with the Que return match with the Queen City Morgan.

curlers, who recently visited London.

The Thistles will travel in a special car, via C. P. R.

Morgan.

Ramblers—Goal, W. Cripps; point, W. Watts; coverpoint, C. Smith; forwards, G. Dolby, B. Simmons, E. Kings.

RATTLERS SHUT OUT. The Eries defeated the West London Rattlers on Wednesday night at the Westminster Rink, the score being 2 Eries-Goal, McLean; cover point, Saylor; right wing, Smith; left wing, Parnell; center, Evans; rover, Barned Rattlers — Goal, Aben; cover point, Orr; point, Bird; right wing, Clark;

left wing, Kelland; center, McFee; ro-

BEECHGROVES WIN ROUND. Toronto, Feb. 18. - Kingston Beechgroves beat Upper Canada College tonight in the O. H. A. junior series by 8 to 7, winning the round by 18 to 9 They are now in the final against the winner of the Barrie and Listowel game.

Can Keep

Can Keep

The Liver Active

The Liver Meaford, Ont., Feb. 18. - A very fast Dresden-Goal, G. Richards; point, A. ONLY TWO MEN RULED OFF. Simcoe, Jan. 18. - The Simcoe and

MUTSUHITO, THE

Emperor's Name Will Live On

Roll of World's Mighty.

REGENERATION WAS HIS WORK

Modernization of His People-

Results of Thirty Years.

like a dream to Mutsuhito, the emperor great world figures who made history and founded empires to sow the seeds and watch the harvest gathered in England toiled painfully through the centuries, through war and revolution, now suffering long oppresssion now beating down its kings, out of the long night of feudalism into the free dom which she has spread through world it has been given to find a nation bound and to set it free, to ascend

a feudal throne and to base it firm

Mutsuhito has brought Japan to Europe. It is almost as if he had, by a stroke of a magic wand, transformed

England of today. Half a thousand years seem to have slipped by forgot ten in the generation-which Mutsuh

Time and history seem both to b playing tricks when we think of the ise of Japan. The things which should be centudes old are only thirty years, and almost on the same page we find prime ministers and feudal lords. There are men, and men not old, who remen ber when for an Englishman to set of a mighty change, and Europe knew that Mutsuhito, a young man in an old country, the youngest, perhaps, of all the rulers in the world, had broken down the power of centuries, swept night. In a short war the Shogun, the dynasty which had ruled Japan for 700 ty which through all the centuries had ruled Japan in name now ruled in fact

That was in 1868, when Mutsuhito was 16, and it seems an incredible thing outside a novel that a youth in his has come into being since the Emperor was 16, and in his short life is bound up all the strange change which has made Japan the hope of the east to-

SACRIFICE MADE BY NOBLES. Even now there are times when should lead a kingdom out tom, and laid the foundations for new Japan.

the England of the Conqueror into the upon the people's will.

roll of the world's great men.

HOME TEAM WON.

played an exhibition game here last Gravina, 5 to 2; Vestry, 7 to 5; Bumnight, when Simcoe won by the score mer II., 2 to I. of cake and left half of it, no guest need think twice who would carry of the crumbs. When a prince is born, the crumbs. When a prince is born, in great castles, led great armies, and he who presents the babe to Mutsuhito must cover his mouth lest he breathe by chance upon an Emperor of Japan, and Alice in all her dream of Wonderland, saw nothing more strange than she might have really seen if she had been awake in the Land of the Rising

YESTERDAY'S WINNERS.

At New Orleans-Trogon, 6 to 5;

Brantford Intermediate O. H. A. teams | Bengal, 18 to 5; Presentation, 13 to 1;

But there were wonderful things for the world to see in Japan when we were young. Such things as men had rarely looked upon were there to gaze upon when Japan drew up its blinds and threw open its doors to all the continents. Great nobles gave up their lands and castles to the state. The feudal lords, heads of great families which had ruled Japan a thousand the sword bearers who had Japan. Two hundred landed lords gave up their estates to the Emperor, who magician of Japan, the man of the could have no rooom for other lords back to the time when he came to and power had been seen since the der of its glories by a proud nobility, which somebody has said "throws into the shade the achievements of Peter Woods' Fair, 176-178 Dundas Street. the Great, the reforms of Joseph II., and even the French revolution itself." It was, at least, a sight which neither gods nor men had seen more than once or twice since the gentlewomen But Savanarola himself could hardly teresting. Only two men were ruled off.

The following was the line-up: have changed the whole life of a na-Brantford Goal. Robbins; point, T. Kelley; cover point, "Lady" Taylor; And there were crises and storms in forwards, Kauffman, Marlatt, Edgar and Breadon.
Simcoe—Goal, Hurley: point, Cribb; cover point, Smith; forwards, Mason, gime and risings of the old, and once when the streets of Japan ran with Japan's best blood, the tragic close of 30,000 lives marked forever this parting of the ways between east and west, Watford, Ont., Feb. 18.—Before the who had magnanimously laid down the the snow blockade, Owen Sound defaulted to St. Thomas. In the first largest crowd of the season, Watford, or st. Yet so small a thing as the wear-draw Forest was pitted against Platts-winners in group 11, and Welland, winders in group 15, played the second and forbidden, and slowly the old tradition forbidden, and slowly the old tradition. "Well, you couldn't," says he hastily.

"But why not? I hear that that terrible old man has Wednesdays, when all the world is permitted to see his following are today's scores:

"It did not avail, however as the localed and slowly the old tradition and picturesqueness of life in Japan by the home team winning by six shots.

"Well, you couldn't," says he hastily.

"Well, you couldn't," says he hastily.

"But why not? I hear that that terrible old man has Wednesdays, when winners play off with each other. The tollowing are today's scores.

"But why not? I hear that that terrible old man has Wednesdays, when winners play off with each other. The tollowing are today's scores.

It did not avail, however as the localed and slowly the old tradition and picturesqueness of life in Japan passed away before the nation's eyes. Japan was loth to let it pass. We like to remember that story of the wife of a Japanese ambassador, who was at-7, and the visitors had a lead of 3 goals. a Japanese ambassador, who was at-It did not avail, however, as the locals put up a sharp, effective game that proved too strong for their sturdy opponents. Watford took the aggressive in it the physician found a board upon in it the physician in it the physician found a board upon in it the physician in it the physician in it the physician found a board upon in it the physician in it the physician found a board upon in it is the physician in view in v at the sound of the bell, and when nalf time was called the score stood 7 to 1 the soft pillows, lay the old-fashioned in their favor. Welland made a de- headrest common in the old Japan. How termined effort to win out in the sec- hard it is to let the habits of a lifeond half, but they failed to score, time go!

while the home team had 3 to their But all Japan, indeed, lived two lives The final score was 10 to 1. in those strange times. Its young men Watford wins the round by 17 goals came to Europe, saw our civilization, to 11, and will next try conclusions studied our politics and learned in our schools. Marquis Ito, with Count In-EXTRA PLAY NEEDED. ouye, came to London in their teens At the Jubilee Rink on Wednesday night, the Ramblers' and Somerville's should go, and landed at the docks so teams played a tie game, the score at full time being 2 all. In the five hungry and lonely and helpless that they threw down one of the only two dellars they had on a baker's counter, minutes extra play, the Ramblers scorsnatched up a loaf, and ran back with ed another goal, winning the match. The line-up: it to an empty ship, in which th,ey Somervilles—Goal, W. Begg; point, C. IcLeod; coverpoint, F. Morris; forspent the night. In the heart of Japan the desire to throw off the weight of the ages of the east and put on the mantle of the west was not to be kept down. But it is not a simple thing to leave undone today the things we did through all the days of last year, and Japan did not easily conquer itself. Everywhere there remained a lingering af-The team representing Elliott, Marr OLD CUSTOMS ARE REVERENCED. & Co. defeated the Edward Adams & "Among all the innovations of the Co. team at the Jubilee Rink by a era," a great authority on Japan has MADE BOTH TEAMS PLAY.

told us, "the only one that a Japanese could not lay aside at will was the new fashion of dressing the hair. He aban-Thamesville, Feb. 18. - In one of the fastest games of hockey seen in doned the queue irrevocably; but for the rest he lived a dual life. During Thamesville this season, between Bothwell and Dresden, for the chamhours of duty he wore a fine uniform, pionship of East Kent, Referee Gar-net Hubball kept both teams playing shaped and decorated in foreign style. But so soon as he stepped out of office hockey, and there was no stops from or off parade, he reverted to his own comfortable and picturesque costume start to finish. At the end of the first Handsome houses were built and furhalf play was even-1 to 1. In the nished according to western models.But second half play was all with Dresden. each had an annex where alcoves, but by a little hard luck in shooting played a tie—2 to 2. For Dresden, 1. Miller, E. Wells and Rev. W. Haydon did the star work, although the whole knives and forks, came into use on occasions. But rice bowls and chopsticks Bernhardt were the stars for Bothwell. held their place as of old. Japan had grown old in the old paths —and now, 35 years after, there are

But parliaments and constitutions are has taken her place in the front line of nations. The attempt to set up a par-liament without parties failed, and we saw the other day that the Japanese Parliament, the child of the political genius of Asia, had dared to rebuke the Emperor who brought it into being. Men who ruled Japan before Mutsuhito of feudal lords, whose ancestors fived in great castles, led great armies, and ruled great territories, are servants of shopkeepers, and clerks, now. Even the pensions, which were to have gone on forever, were bought up by the state. in its transforming days, and liberty, equality and fraternity have been cut deep in vivid letters across the living Thirty-five short years, and today men tremble to think what 35 short hours may bring for this magical land of the modern world. MORAL-BE SQUARE. It was when the Boer war had brought depression in London financial circles three years ago that Wright's doom was sealed. One of his Australian mining companies was Lake View Cons fought her battles and preserved her property, which, originally bought for fame in war, laid their wealth and dig- about $1,000, was capitalized for more which, originally bought for nities and traditions, their very homes than $1,000,000 in shares which were made and incomes, on the altar of the new active in speculation and hoisted to dizzy figures. They had fallen to one-third of their former high price when Wright, in December, 1900, undertook to stem the de cline by purchasing them in the market through the London and Globe Finance hour in the Far East today, as he looks than he. No such laying down of rank Corporation. This collapsed under the power. As long as Japan has a place nobles sacrificed their privileges in the larly juggled and overloaded affiliated in the world his name must live on the before. It was an event, this surren- exchange firms in the ruins. Then folnational assembly of France, 80 years companies and burying thirteen stock

Here's a Snap! MEN'S OVERCOATS AT HALF PRICE ON SATURDAY.

Our books close on Saturday night for stock-taking, and we are going to place on sale Saturday morning the greatest snap in Overcoats that has been seen in the city this season. Three lines of well-made, strong, serviceable threequarter length Overcoats.

Lot No. 1.-Are Black Beaver, velvet collars, good Lot No. 2.—Plain Oxford Gray, box back, velvet

Lot No. 3.-Dark Stripe Tweed, self collars; a splendid serviceable coat.

Not a coat in the lot that sold for less than $6.00; some

CHOICE SATURDAY, $2.95.

Not all sizes in any one line, but all sizes, 36 to 44, will be found in the bunch.

See Samples In Our East Window.

Japan looks more like a picture in a fairy book than a country on the map. At the Emperor's garden party gray veterans scrape up the soil where his

Woods' Fair, 176-178 Dundas Street, London, February 18th, 1904

tucked sleeves and back, some trimmed with medallions, value

$4.00 and $5.00 Skirts, Saturday $2.50.

only, Ladies' Cloth Skirts, 5, 7 and 9 gore, some silk trimmed, in navy blue and black, three different styles, value $4 00 and $5 00, Saturday $2 50

White Cambric Night Gowns. in four different styles, lace or embroidery trimmed, tucked or insertion yoke, full skirt, in four different sizes, value 75c and $1 00, Saturday 50c

75c and $1 Gowns, Sat. 50c. | $1 and $1.25 Waists, Sat. 50c. Ladies' White Vesting Waists, fleece-lined, slightly soiled, some with drop yoke and in-verted pleats, others with tucked fronts, bishop sleeves, tab collars to match, value $1 00. and $1 25, Saturday

Ladies' Black Waists, Saturday 50c.

Sixteen only, Black Sateen Waists, in dull and brilliant finish, tucked fronts and back, bishop sleeves, odd sizes, clearing Saturday

45c and 50c Corset Waists, Saturday 24c. Ladies' Corset Waists, tucked or full front, sleeves and neck trimmed with wide lace, and some with baby ribbon, value 45c and 35c Tams, Saturday 15c.

Best quality Thread, all 200-yard spools, value 4c, Saturday...

35c Hose, Saturday 25c.

45c Hose, Saturday 39c.

Boys' Heavy Winter Hose, ribbed, spliced heel and toe, seamless feet, value 45c, Saturday 39c

15c Combs, Saturday 5c.

We have just received 900 dozen Best Quality English Made Combs, 5 to 8 inches long, assorted colors, light and dark effects; this Comb preserves the hair better than any comb made; it is made with metal back; the metal does not touch the hair, but is used to stiffen the back of the comb and keep it from breaking. These combs are good for school girls' use, etc. They arrived a little late in the season, so we will sell them Saturday at a price to clear; also a line of beautiful White Ivory Fine Combs, all values, from 8c to 15c. Saturday, to clear, at 5c

Fairbank's Scouring Soap, same as Sapolio, Saturday,

30c Paper and Envelopes, Saturday 15c.

White Satin and Blue Granite Notepaper, extra good quality, new cut in Envelopes, 75 sheets of paper and 50 envelopes, value 30c, 15c Collars, Saturday 10c. Ladies' Silk Collars, stock and tab, all dainty colors and different patterns, in blue, pink,

25c Ribbon, Saturday 15c. Beautiful Taffeta Ribbon, 51/2 inches wide, in pink, blue, black, red and white, all good quality, value 25c, Saturday 15c

10c and 15c Laces, Saturday 5c Yard.

896 YARDS TO CHOOSE FROM. A large assortment of beautiful Torchon and Valenciennes Laces, different widths, dainty patterns, suitable for trimming gowns, children's dresses, etc., also some suitable for fancy work and handkerchief edging, value 10c and 15c yard, Saturday, yard .. 5c

Candy Special.

Fresh Maple Cream, Strawberryand Vanilla flavorings, value 20c, value 20, Saturday, lb. 48 feet best quality Wax Tapers, Saturday, for ...

10c Boxes Licorice, Saturday 2 for 5c. Large Japanned Tin Boxes of best quality English Licorice, guaranteed to cure sore throat, sold by druggists at 10c, our price

Great Value in Basement Saturday. CROCKERY BARGAINS.

We have just received a large asortment of White Ironstone Toilet 100 dozen Cups and Saucers, value 75c and 80c dozen, Saturday. cup and saucer 200 dozen best quality Ironston, Dinner and Soup Plates, value Covered Vegetable Dishes, value 50c, Saturday

Remarkable Bargains in Graniteware. dozen only, Straight Saucepans, with covers, value 40c, Saturday 22c dozen only, Granite Teapots, value 35c and 40c. Saturday dozen Rice Boilers, the regular 65c size, Saturday39c Granite Chambers, in white and gray, value 40c, Saturday Wash Basins, value 30c and 35c, Saturday A splendid lot of large Sponges, worth 25c and 35c, Saturday, to clear at, each 2 cases smaller Sponges, value 15c, Saturday, each Galvanized and Wooden Tubs, Saturday, up Towel Racks, 6 arms, value 25c, Saturday

Brooms, 15c and 19c.

Value 40c. Saturday 25c.

WOODS' FAIR

prit, investigations, exposures and wretched, anxious delays and evasions, shunned by former friends and followed by curses of those he had ruined, until yesterday Whitaker Wright stood condemned as a felon and dropped dead under the sentence. Example is always under the sentence. Example is always

PRESENT DAY FADS.

A Chicago woman's club has made a list of the principal fads of the present day. There they are: Yellow journalism, authors with long names, side talks with girls, treatments to make women beautiful, fish dinners with live fish on the table, dinners for monkeys, the historic novel, books with rough edges, use of "foreword" in books instead of "preface," turned-up trousers, present shape

lowed three years of misery for the cul- cago, the kangaroo walk, the athletic more efficacious than precept, and there are promoters and stock jugglers on this side of the Atlantic who may profit by a study of the closing years of this extraordinary career.—New York Herald.

HOTEL ALBERT,

NEW YORK CITY.

EUROPEAN PLAN.

Corner of Eleventh Street and University