CRINKLAW-JACKSON

Interesting Event at "Cedarhurst"
Home of Mr. Thos. Jackson.

A pretty wedding took place on Wednesday evening, April 6, at "Cedarhurst," the residence of Mr. Thos. Jackson, when his youngest daughter, Miss Lizzie, was united in marriage to Mr. John Crinklaw, eldest son of Mr. James Crinklaw, of White Oak, by Rev. Dr. D. L. McCrae, in the presence of the immediate relatives of the bride and groom.

The bride looked charming as she entered the drawing-room on the arm of her father, to the strains of Mendelssohn's Wedding March, rendered by Miss Ethel Mennell. She was attired in white silk organdy, trimmed with Valenciennes lace, and carried a shower bouquet of white roses. Little Irene Manning, niece of the bride, made a pretty flower girl in white, and carried a basket of white roses and maidenhair ferns.

Following the ceremony the guests sat down to a dainty wedding breakfast, and after spending a few pleasant hours the bridal party took their departure on their honeymoon amidst showers of rice, and with the good wishes of their many friends, to Buffalo and New York.

The bride's traveling suit was of dove-colored broadcloth, trimmed with white silk and applique, with picture hat to match. On their return they will reside on the fifth concession of Westminster.

REPEAT SHIPMENT OF IRISH HAND-EMBROIDERED SHIRTWAIST FRONTS JUST IN. . . .

Many customers have been waiting for these Fronts. We have the names of many, but the great majority are scattered throughout the city, and we have to fall back upon the newspaper to bear the message. These excellent Waist Fronts are of pure linen, genuine hand-embroidery, and include in addition to the Fronts embroidery for collar and cuffs to match. As these Fronts are specially embroidered for us we carry in stock the same Linen that they are made from. This we sell at 40c yard, and in addition to the Front you will require 1½ yards to make each waist.

DON'T WAIT—A minute's delay may be too long. You probably missed the last lot by being a little too late. These will go just as quickly. The embroidering alone is worth more than the price of the whole waist. Many handsome designs, but only two prices. . . . $1.50 and $2.00
