FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL

TUESDAY'S MARKET WILL BE LARGE

Farmers Will Attend the Fair During Wednesday and Thursday.

With the exception of a few loads of hay there were no offerings on the narket today. It is not expected that the market will be harge this week on account of the Fair. Tuesday will be a fairly active day, but on Wednesday and Thursday the attendance will be small, as those are the two days on which the farmers, as a rule, attend the exhibition.

There was no shipment of live hogs loday, b t on Saturday stated that he intended to ship on Wednesday. He did at announce any price, but in all probability it will be the same as that which prevailed at the last two shipments, $8.15 per

Last week was one of the best of the year on the local market, and the sales were brisk every day, except in the vegetable section. Vegetables the vegetable section. Vegetables were so plentiful last week that the supply exceeded the demand greatly. On Saturday the market-was dull for some time, but toward the end the sales became brisk. LIVE STOCK

The Glass Flowers on the Midway are one of the attractions which no visitor to the Western Fair can afford to miss, for besides being a most in- injured man will be off work for some teresting and amusing feature, it is instructive as well.

Mr Johns and his staff of experts provide most excellent entertainment with their demonstration of blowing glass. To the or looker it is a neverfailing source of pleasure and wonder to watch the operators at work spinning the molten glass into a variety of fantastic and artistic shapes.

Every visitor to the tent is presented with a souvenir, sometimes an article that is made while they are watching the progress, and ranging in value from 10 cents to $1 or $2 according to the number of the ticket held.

ANNOUNCEMENT

Owing to the crowded condition of the Palace at the Fair, Mason & Risch, Limited, have found it impossible to secure a suitable space for the regular exhibit of Canada's Greatest Piano. However, rather than disappoint our many friends who have waited for the past month or more to purchase an instrument, we have erected a large waterproof tent, in which we will give an exhibition of the finest stock of pianos ever exhibited in London, no expense having been spared to fit the tent up as homelike as possible, same having been annexed to the old Arts Building, in the south end of the Palace, the rear entrance of same leading into the Mason & Risch Exhibit.

A large stock of Grands, Player-Pianos and Upright Pianos, also Victor Victrolas, will be on exhibition. Mason & Risch, Limited, will deem it a favor if music-loving people will inspect their exhibit.
