Attorney-General Declares the Matter Will Receive Careful Attention From Govt.

[Canadian Press.]

Toronto, Nov. 20 .- J. A. Patterson, K.C., of Toronto; J. B. McKillop, K.C., ilton; E. T. Essery, K.C., of London, and others, waited on the Ontario cabinet today and asked for legislation for the better control of fraternal insurance societies.

They asked that each society be compelled every three or five years to make a valuation of its assets, as in cases where they fall below the amount required on an actuarial basis for the redemption of claims, that they be compelled to meet the deficit by easy additions to the rates collected.

Where the deficit is 90 per cent., the amount asked to be, is 5 per cent., or half the deficit, which is to be raised within three years, and the following Mitchell was acknowledged twice—once as E. C. Mitchell and once as C. 5 per cent. within the next three or five

This will obviate the necessity of been fraternal societies adopting drastic methods of increasing their dates. The legislation asked for has been adopted ANNUU in 16 states. The deputation represented a membership of 416,000 people in general societies.

Hon. J. J. Foy, attorney-general, replying, stated that this matter was a attention by the Government. Any ob- morning from Toronto, were explained by jections to the proposition would also
