Opening Will Be Unique In History of Colored People of the City.

On Sunday, June 24, the official opening of the Hill Street Baptist Church (colored) will take place and promises to be a unique event in the history of the colored people of London Special services have been arranged and prominent Baptist clergymen of the city will officiate including the Rev. R. J. Murphy, Dr Bowley Green, Dr. Sowerby, Rev. Mr. A. Burgess and Mr. Young.

At 10 o'clock the Brotherhood of the city churches will assemble, and ollowing this the pastor, Rev. J. Johnson, will deliver the morning service. Although the congregation of this church is small great credit is due the members for their untiring offorts, which have resulted in such splendid work in helping to better the community life of the colored people of London. Mayor Wenige will be present for the dedication services which will take place o'clock in the afternoon. In their efforts to build the church they were ably assisted by the London Baptist Extension Board of which Mr. Nathaniel Mills is the president. The Baptist Extension Board includes all the Baptist churches in the city. The Rev. . H. Penick of Dresden, moderator of the Amherstburg Baptist Association, will deliver the evening ser-mon at 7 p.m. Special music will be rendered at all three services by tho choir, and in the evening solos will
