SENATORS ARE BETTER THAN 1922 CAMPAIGN

May Not Finish Top, But Will Worry Toters If They Keep It Up.

New York, April 25 .- No matter where the Washingtons finish when the supper bell is ringing next October, as they stand today the Senators are better and more resourceful than last season. If their pitchers fail to become Jupiters of the baseball solar system, still they are a team to be handled with care. When the Senators travel west, the west had better prepare for something

With the big league season only a few days old, there are various and assorted rumors of impending trades calculated to strengthen the various clubs which found the winter acquisitions and results unsaxisfactory.

And one of the bits of gossip spread by the well-known Mrs. Rumor is that Ira Flagstead, slugging Detroit gardener, will soon be handed railroad fare and Pullman diner money to some other American League city. An infielder or pitcher will get his old locker in the Tiger clubhouse.

There are several conditions that make this move on Cobb's part sound reasonable.

Reason No. 1 is Mr. Henry Manush, late of the Western League. This outfielding bozo is hitting so hard and fielding so well when he gets a chance that he seems ready now to step into the shoes of the veterans Bobby Veach or Harry Heilman when needed.

Reason No. 2 is Robert Fothergill, late of the International League, whose Jimmy Wilde, the midget Englishman, has been telling his friends not to worry when he defends the flyweight championship of the world against Pancho Villa in New York June 16. Wilde says he cannot understand the gloomy folk, who evidently fear that he is going to be defeated and keep harping on the fact he is 31 and has not taken part in a bout nearly two years.

Wilde declares the long rest has done him more good than harm. He has taken on some weight, but not so much taken on some weight, but not so much that it will hurt him to get down to the flyweight limit. His fighting poundage always was far below the 112 pound limit, and he figures that when he enters the ring against Villa he will be stronger and more rugged than he was before he retired.

Wilde has asked the local boxing garet Elnora, Lullaby and Whipple commission to submit the names of ran.

Wilde has asked the local boxing commission to submit the names of four or five referees. He evidently thinks he will have some say in the selection of the third man in the ring. He is going to be disappointed in this, as the commission does not consult even world champions about such matters. Wilde will have to be satisfied with the referee assigned, and he will not know who he is until the day of the fight. Wilde seems to be having difficulty in getting sparring partners capable of giving him a real workout. He wants men who fight along the lines of Villa, and there are not many of that type in England. He plans to arrive in America some time before the date of the contest so that he will be accustomed to the climate. He blames his poor showing against Jack Sharkey, when he made his first trip to America, on the fact that he was not used to the climate.

Unless Wilde has lost most of his strength and stamina he may fool many persons who figure that he is going to run second. When he was good, Wilde was the best straight hitter among the little men ever seen in action around here. He had a corking straight right, as well as a lightning straight left.

As Pancho is strictly a swinger, Wilde's style is likely to cause him a great deal of trouble. If the Filipino wins it will be only because his youth and strength proved too much for the veteran.

getting to be a magnet these days. Even Jack Britton has failen for the lure of the soft swat and the cushy set-up. After a period of training, in which he believes he has come a long way back, he will put himself to the test against Jack O'Hara, a young western welter, in Chicago next Monday night. Little is known about O'Hara, but Britton seems to feel that he is good enough to give him a real tryout. The former champion may get by. If he does he will try for bigger game.

Chicago also looks good to Mickey Waiker, the present welter champion, who seems to have developed an uncontrollable dread of decision bouts. Mickey signed with alacrity to meet Augie Ratner on May 30, but, when everything seemed cinched. Augie up and announced he is going to Europe on May 1. So Chicago promoters will have to pick another opponent. If Walker wins he will go against Jock Malone, the best middleweight of them all, in Chicago on a later date. Mickey's reinstatement today was expected.

Now that Carpentier and McTigue!

Keld in the Chamber of Commerce last night, resolved that last year's undecided McCutcheon cup final between St. Andrews and the First W. O. R. be staged May 24 at Springbank Park, providing the district governing body leaves that particular date open. The league's revised constitution was thoroughly gone over. A few alteratins were made as to gate receipts, fixing date of annual general meeting, disciplining of players, control of referees and games. The referee's fee for all league games was fixed at $3, the same rate in vogue last year.

The meeting also resolved to invite to four St. Thomas senior clubs to participate in the London city league series, entries to close on May 2. St. Johns Rovers, who now are full-fledged nembers, were represented at the meeting by Sam Birchall and Harry Latham. A referee examining board, consisting of President Tom Hodkinson, Secretary Fr. Now that Carpentier and McTigue have been matched for a July 14 bout either in New York or in Jersey City—the wise guys say it will be Boyle's Thirty Acres—one wonders what will happen to the projected McTigne-Grebbout. Managers of the two fighters had agreed to fight in Jersey, and bids were shortly to be called for. But now a lot will probably depend upon the outcome of the international battle.

What is the matter with Rockey Kansas? Frank Flournoy, Rickard's matchmaker, offered the Buffalonian a tidy sum for a return fight with Charley White at the Garden. Kansas turned it down. Why? The Buffalo walloper did not have much trouble with White the last time the two met, and should have jumped at the chance of another bout.

have jumped at the chance of another bout.

And as for Johnny Dundee, he, too, is getting skittish. He refused $7,500 to meet Richie Mitchell in Milwaukee next Monday night—wanted $10,000—so that's off. And now Richie himself is getting high-toned, and, replying to a suggestion from Flourney that he come east to do battle with Charley White on May 1, Richie named a sum greater than he has ever received for scrapping here. But they're still talking it over. Sailor Friedman's alleged avoidance of a fight with Sailor Darden completes the day's story of temperamental glove-pushers. pushers.

Two points are emphasized by today's

Two points are emphasized by today's announcement that the New York Boxing Commission has issued Johnny Kilbane a license to fight here. The first is that the Muldoon power is actually lessened, and the second that the fans can look on a Kilbane-Criqui battle as a certainty this summer. Johnny Dundee may be prevailed upon to withdraw his well-known and now musty challenge on condition that he meet the winner. After all, such a scrap would draw many more shekels for Dundee.
