was sent out to scout around the edge of the herd and see that every-thing was all right. On this ride I ran across a little calf, born during he day, that had lost its mother. The ittle fellow was so weak and hungry knew it would die if left alone. To find its mother in a herd of 5,000 was impossible. Besides the calf couldn't have kept'up with the moving herd over my shoulder and carried him into camp. The cowboys all gathered round, offering many forms of advice. We had no condensed milk. "Wait a minute," one of the cowboys suggested. "Come with me," he said to me.

STANDARD STRONGER

Bell Telephone vs. Civil Service.

Perrins vs. McClarys. Standard Drug vs. C. N. R. The Manufacturers' League pro-ram tonight will provide some baseo touches for the fans. Perrins and McClarys meet in the second game of the bill, and it means battle for second place.

Both have the distinction of having been beaten by C. N. R., but more distinction goes to the Biscuit-makers in this connection, because of the fact that they forced the Railwaymen into overtime to win, 3-1, whereas the McClarymen were forced inything may happen.

fourth place. As the Druggists are meeting C. N. R., it looks as if the Bell Telephone gang had the best hance of sticking up, as far as the However, C. N. R.'s victory over the pestle-wielders is not at all a certainty. The Druggists on paper have one of the strongest outfits in the league—on paper, and on the injured list, too, McMillan will likely be back tomorrow, and with Lougheed a fixture on the defence, the Druggists may turn in the surany one game.

BETTER GROUPING SEEN FOR LACROSSE TEAMS

Ingersoll, Jan. 22.—Local lacrosse officers and enthusiasts were interviewed today by C. R. Furness of St. Marys, relative to the formation of a Western Ontario Lacrosse Association. It was pointed out by Mr. Furness that the object of the proposed association would be to more satisfactorily group the teams and the game. The proposed circuit would be entirely independent of the O. A. L. A., but would work in harmony

ST. THOMAS LAWN BOWLING CLUB HAS GOOD PROSPECTS

St. Thomas, Jan. 22.—At a meeting of the shareholders of the St. Thomas Seattle at Saskatoon.

MONEY TO LOAN

Do You Require Money for Building?

¶ Building your own home or store property is a project with which The London Life Insurance Company is entirely in sympathy.

I On good residential or store property well located, the Company is in a position to loan money promptly and on the most favorable terms, advancing funds as the work progresses.

I One-half of the loan may be advanced when the walls are up and the roof is on, with the building ready for the first coat ¶ Prompt report is made by our inspector, usually the day an application is received and the decision of the Company's loaning board-which sits dailyis given the following day.

¶ No charge is made for inspection fees-the only expense being the customary legal costs.

¶ See Mr. Tufts at our Head Office, Wellington Street, opposite tne Y. M. C. A.
