DEATH OF RICHARD COBDEN.

SANDY HOOK, April 12.—The steamer New York, from Southampton, March 27th, has arrived.

The La France publishes an article signed by Baron Duppy, demonstrating that it is greatly to England's advantage to retain Canada.

The Russian ambassador at Rome gave a banquet to McClellan. Among the toasts proposed was one for the friendly maintenance of relations between Russia and America.

The Montenegro rebellion was progressing rapidly.

The Portuguese authorities had ordered the rebel ram Stonewall to leave Lisbon. The U. S. gunboat Sacramento was hourly expected.

In the House of Commons, March 27th, Lord Elcho alluded to the Canadian Parliament, where it has been stated that fifty thousand pounds was all that England would vote for Canada this year. Lord Elcho would bring the matter forward on April 15th.

LISBON, March 28.—The Stonewall has sailed from this port. The Niagara and Sacramento have arrived here. The Portuguese authorities have prohibited their sailing for 24 hours.

The Federal frigates Niagara and Sacramento attempted to sail before the expiration of the time fixed by the Portugese authorities and were fired upon by the Belam fort. The Niagara was struck in the poop and a seaman was killed. The vessels thereupon anchored.

Kath Barnard defended the Encyclical Letter and its syllabus and the conduct of the Roman course.

NEW YORK, April 17.—The City of Baltimore from Liverpool the 5th and Queenstown the 6th has arrived.

Madrid papers state that the Portugese Government accedes to the demand of the American Minister for the removal of the commander of Fort Belam for firing into the U. S. frigate Niagara after the Federal commander had signalled him. He understood the summons.

The pirate Shenandoah was still at Melbourne on the 23d. Waddell threatens to report to Richmond the conduct of the Australian authorities in refusing to furnish his vessel with supplies.

STANTON.

NEW YORK, April 15—The Germania from Southampton with dates to the 5th has arrived.

Richard Cobden died April 2d.

The bill for the abandonment of San Domingo has been adopted by Spain.

The Cortez brings news from Brazil to the effect that Vilaifa surrendered Montevideo to Flores, who assumed the presidency. The Brazilian forces now occupy it, and peace is being established.

NEW YORK, April 14.—Liverpool dates of April 1st, have been received. The West India mail steamer had arrived with over 2½ millions in specie. She also brought several captains of blockade runners, whose occupation was gone.

The French government will probably send one or two steamers to accompany the two that are sent by the English Government with the Great Eastern across the Atlantic, at the time of laying the Atlantic cable. It is hoped the United States Government will do the same.

In the French Chambers, March 30th an amendment in favor of the liberty of the press was debated but rejected by a large majority.

It is stated that Napoleon will leave Paris early in May, not returning until November, his physicians having recommended several month's absence in the country.

In an allocution delivered at the last consistory, the Pope expressed surprise and sorrow at the sad events which have recently taken place in Mexico. His Holiness hoped Maximilian would abandon the course upon which he had entered, and satisfy the just desires of the Holy See. The Pope further thanked the bishops of the Catholic world, and especially those of Italy, for defending religion and the liberty of the church, despite the decrees of the secular authorities.

LIVERPOOL, April 1st.—The London Times of to-day has an editorial on the amended tariff law of the United States, and says it is impossible to find an excuse for it. Tried by the light of reason, or the results of experience it is alike condemned. It laconically credits the framers of the scheme with peculiar wisdom in selecting the first of April for the inauguration.

CALIFORNIA NEWS.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 18—The encouraging news received to-day has greatly relieved the public mind, and apprehensions of disturbance are at an end. The Board of Supervisors last evening passed proper resolutions and a request that all loyal citizens will wear some badge of mourning for thirty days. They also appropriate $10,000 towards military and police expenses at the funeral.

John Donovan, the miserable wretch who expressed gratification at the assassination of President Lincoln, was yesterday held by Judge Sheppard to answer before the County Court. His bail was fixed at $500.

Chas. Maltby had been appointed Superintendent of Indian Affairs for California, vice Wiley, removed. Mr. Maltby was an early and intimate friend and an old time business partner of President Lincoln.

A correspondent writes that the American Transit Company's steamer Western Metropolis from Greytown via Havana, which arrived at New York had a narrow escape from the pirates. Several passengers of this class were taken on the steamer at Havana, with the intention of seizing her after they had got out to sea. The Captain of the Metropolis was, however, forewarned by the American Consul and put the fellows on shore.

The fire alarm and police telegraph was successfully used during Saturday and Sunday. It will probably be accepted on Friday evening. Five houses were burned at the Mission this morning.

Flour moderate; jobbing trade at $15 50 for local and extras; $14@$14 50 for superfine.

A large operation in Chili is understood to be pending, but whether for home consumption or for export we are not advised.

Wheat is dull. A lot of 424 sacks of common was placed at 4½ cts. and 200 prime at five cents.

Barley—there is rather more inquiry for domestic, resulting in the sales of 3,200 sacks of good to prime at $3 10@$3 60; do Prince, $3 17½ and $3; do, private.

Oats are dull—sales of 500 sacks at $2 87½ @$2 94.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 17.—The city was perfectly quiet last night, and business has been generally resumed to-day. The military have been withdrawn from the streets, but a sufficient force is kept under arms ready to be called out on the first indication of a disturbance. It is hoped the people will have become more composed by to-morrow, and render any further military interference unnecessary. The city during last evening and to-day was flooded with rumors of riots in New York, Philadelphia, and Richmond, and that a general massacre of secessionists had been inaugurated in the North, etc., etc. Threats have been made against the lives and property of a number of prominent Southerners in this city whose sympathies are supposed to be against the Union cause.

An immense audience attended the meeting at Platt's Hall yesterday. A committee of fifty citizens was appointed to make preparations for the funeral obsequies on Thursday next,

The following order was issued by Major General McDowell this afternoon, and explains itself:

HEADQUARTERS, Department of the Pacific, San Francisco, April 17, 1865.—It has come to the knowledge of the Major General Commanding, that there have been found within the department persons so utterly infamous as to exult over the assassination of the President of the United States. Such persons become virtually accessories after the fact, and will at once be arrested by any officer or Provost Marshal, or member of the police having knowledge of the case. Any paper so offending, or expressing any sympathy in any way whatever with the act, will be at once seized and suppressed.

By order of Major General McDowell.

(Signed) R. C. DRUM, A.A.G.

OFFICE PROVOST MARSHAL-GENERAL OF CALIFORNIA AND NEVADA, and Superintendent Volunteer Recruiting Service, San Francisco, California, April 14, 1865.—Circular. The following telegram has been received at the office:

Capt. H. B. Fleming: The Secretary of War directs that you discontinue the business of recruiting and drafting in all your districts until further orders. In compliance with the above order all recruiting of troops by volunteer enlistment is hereby suspended. Mustering Officers, Provost Marshals, and all other officers under my orders will govern themselves accordingly. Officers detailed by the Department commander will, upon being relieved by him, close their offices and make the proper returns to this office. All other officers, on volunteer recruiting service (Provost Marshals excepted), will, upon the receipt of this order, close their offices and make the proper returns, and report to this office.

(Signed) H. B. FLEMING,
Captain 9th U. S. Infantry and Provost Marshal General and Superintendent Vol. Cal and Nevada.

Major General McDowell, commanding the Pacific Department, has in accordance with the above, revoked the order for recruiting the 9th regiment in this State.

The Bay City Laundry, corner of Eighth and Brannan streets, was destroyed by fire this morning.

Callahan and Summerville were held to answer on a charge of manslaughter in firing the building wherein Patrick O'Keefe was burned to death.

MEXICO.

NEW YORK, April 16.—The Herald's City of Mexico correspondent of the 27th ult. says: Maximilian's subjects are agitated over the news that the Empire is shortly to be invaded by a large number of soldiers who have heretofore been fighting for the Confederacy. General Price is said to be one of the leaders in the movement which is expected during the summer. An immense rebel force crossed the Rio Grande, provided with arms, to march to the assistance of Juarez, for the purpose of expelling the Europeans.

ARRIVAL OF THE G. S. WRIGHT.

Additional Eastern News.

[DATES TO THE 21st.]

The Herald's Richmond correspondent says: General Ord has been superseded in command here by Halleck. The former officer reports at Charleston, S. C. Gilmore lately commanding the latter place is directed to report for duty at Washington.

The Tribune's Washington special says: Parties from Richmond report as unsatisfactory the condition of affairs. Two Union soldiers had been assassinated. Several assaults have been made on Unionists. Colton Green, son-in-law of Father Ritchie, has been arrested on the charge of complicity in the late conspiracy. Mrs. Lincoln is still ill.

MEMPHIS, April 20.—The entire population of Memphis turned out to-day to testify their respect for the late President. Fully 20,000 participated, including the militia and all the Federal troops.

NEW YORK, April 22.—The Herald's dispatch says: Sheridan was at City Point Thursday night, and received a communication from Sherman announcing the full surrender of the rebel General Johnson's army. The Herald's Goldsboro correspondent says Sunday last the disposition of Gen. Stoneman's forces was such as to secure Johnson's capture in a very short time.

Kilpatrick pushed the rebels some thirty miles beyond Raleigh without any resistance. Raleigh is ours. The railroad is being repaired, and trains will be running through to that city from Wilmington and Newbern in a few days.

The majority of the people of North Carolina, wherever Sherman penetrated, are represented as being desirous to resume their former position in the Union, even though slavery is sacrificed entirely.

The tenth army corps is organised and commanded by General Terry.

NEW YORK, April 21.—A movement has been started here to raise one hundred thousand dollars by one dollar subscriptions, to be presented to Mrs. Lincoln as a token of respect and veneration felt by the people for their deceased President.

NEW YORK, April 21.—The Herald's correspondent says: The paroling of Lee's army was completed April 13th. The official reports put the number of men at 26,115, with 59 pieces of artillery, 71 stand of colors, 15,918 stand of small arms, 1,100 wagons, caissons, etc., and 400 horses and mules.

BALTIMORE, 21.—The remains of President Lincoln arrived at ten o'clock. The escort was very large. The stores are all closed and the whole population is in the streets. The remains will lie in state until two o'clock.

TAMAQUA, Pa., April 21.—Booth has not been arrested, but is been traced as far as Tamaqua. The man arrested on suspicion has been discharged.

NEW YORK, April 20.—Colonel Gurney, commanding at Charleston, issued an order advising freed people collected there to proceed to the islands in the department and settle on the plantations.

A large incendiary fire occurred at Charleston on the night of April 9th.

Later.

Special Telegram to the Colonist.

[DATES TO THE 24TH.]

NEW ORLEANS, April 18.—It is reported that Jeff. Davis crossed the Mississippi river at Tucker's Bend, which was occupied by cavalry on the night of the 18th, escaping observation of the naval forces.

NEW YORK, April 23.—Toronto papers contain an affidavit stating that the notorious McDonald, of that city, together with a man named Dennison, was preparing piratical vessels at Collingwood, for the purpose of plundering on the lakes. The scheme has been frustrated by the seizure of the vessels.

NEW YORK, April 22.—The Times' special dispatch says Gen. Chapman had secured the basis of an agreement similar to that obtained by Johnston.

Persons present at the consultation informed the correspondent that a memorandum on the basis of an agreement was drawn up by Gen. Chapman in the presence of 22 Federal officers, and 20 rebel officers, and provided that Mosby should surrender upon the same terms as Johnston, if the latter should a twenty days' armistice would be allowed to submit an agreement to General Hancock for his approval. That if Hancock approved, Mosby was to be allowed time to get a reply from Johnston, and meantime no skirmishing should take place in Farquhar and London counties, but if Johnston failed to surrender, or got whipped, Mosby should surrender on the same terms upon which Lee surrendered.

WASHINGTON, April 24.—To Dix: Wilson held Macon, Ga., on the 20th, with Howell, Cobb, C. A. Smith and others as prisoners, but they claimed the benefit of the armistice. He has telegraphed me through rebel lines what to do.

Here the line broke down south of Seattle)

SANDWICH ISLANDS.

(Dates to Feb. 25th.)

A cotton plantation and a factory are in prospect for the Islands. The weather during the month of February had been very cool, thermometer ranging at night from 58° to 68°, with north winds. The sugar interests of the Islands are prospering finely. It is proposed to send Commissioners to China, India and East Indies, to make inquiries concerning future supplies of Coolie laborers as an experiment. Three American ships were in the port of Honolulu on the 25th of February.—Oregonian.

NEW ZEALAND.

HOSTILITIES RESUMED.

MELBOURNE, Feb. 28.—The war has recommenced in New Zealand. The British troops had suffered considerable loss.

CANADA.

We have our files of Canadian papers to March 17th.

RAILWAY ACCIDENT.—The express train G.T.R. from Montreal to Quebec, ran off the track on Feb. 18th, and a first class sleeping car containing Hon. George Brown, several other prominent men, and a number of ladies, was precipitated down a bank 40 feet high. The passengers all escaped with some slight bruises, but the car was completely wrecked.

Mr. Magill, the new member for Hamilton, has made his debut in the House most successfully. He is likely to take a prominent position in the House.

The Canadian merchants have agreed to make a discount of four per cent. on American silver, with which the country is flooded.

The Confederation scheme passed in the House of Assembly by a vote of ninety-one to thirty-three. The result was received with great cheering, and the singing of the National Anthem by the members.

The people are jubilant at the abolition of the passport system.

[TELEGRAPHIC DATES TO 10TH.]

NEW YORK, April 19—The Petrel from Liverpool the 8th and Queenstown the 10th, has arrived.

In the House of Commons on the 7th, Lord Elcho moved for the correspondence relative to the Canadian defence. He took the ground that the defence could only have the effect of inviting the Americans to make Canada a battle ground.

On the following day Elcho inquired as to the approaching conference with the Canadian Deputation.

Cardwell said that four members of the Canadian Council were expected to confer with the Government. The result of the conference will be communicated to Parliament, and nothing will be done to bind the country without the full knowledge and consent of Parliament.

The plague continues at St. Petersburg. The total number of cases was 10,000 and 2,000 deaths. The cases average 100 per day.

NEW YORK, April 21—The Herald's Paris correspondent says: Maximilian's Minister in London has resigned, declaring that he is satisfied the Mexican Empire is collapsing, and that Maximilian will soon abdicate and return to Austria, being completely disappointed in his two most important expectations—recognition by the United States and the support of the Pope and the Mexican clergy. In confirmation of this report, it is stated that Maximilian has retracted the renunciation of his family rights to the throne of Austria made before leaving Europe.

CALIFORNIA.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 21.—The procession yesterday was three miles in length, and contained near 15,000 people. The arrangements were necessarily made in great haste, but everything went off satisfactory. Great credit is due to Col. Mackenzie, Grand Marshal of the day.

W. E Davis and Jesse Huttick were arrested at Pachecoville, Contra Costa county, charged with proposing three cheers for the man who killed Lincoln. They have been handed over to General McDowell, who will mete out to them the proper punishment under military law.

Last evening James Lyons, special police at Gilbert's Museum, attempted to shoot his wife, and supposing he had accomplished his murderous object, shot himself through the left lung, inflicting a wound which may prove fatal. He is supposed to have been either intoxicated or laboring under a temporary derangement of the mind. It is reported that they have had frequent quarrels on political subjects—Lyons accusing his wife of being a secessionist.

Dispatches from all parts of the East state that the day was almost universally observed, and all business suspended. The churches were filled and discourses appropriate to the occasion delivered.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 22—The Golden City sailed at noon for Panama, carrying a large number of passengers and $850,938 98 in treasure.

Hereafter the Pacific Mail Steamship Company will run but two steamers a month, leaving on the 3d and 18th of each month.

The Supreme Court, represented by Justices Shafter, Curry and Rhodes, are to-day in session in the Fourth District Court room in this city, hearing the application of Thomas J. Stewart, of Sonoma county, to be admitted to bail. Stewart is charged with having murdered Wilhelm, in Sonoma county, in 1861.
