

The Colonist

FRIDAY, JULY 19, 1899.

AN ORGAN OUT OF TUNE.

The organ of the Opposition is evidently passing through the stage of imbecility, which, of all others, is the most pitiable. When illiterate men are the members of the body, it is not surprising that it should be so.

Because we commented on its excessive stupidity in criticising the report of the Board of Trade from a political point of view it declares we are trying to oblige the politicians by the members of that body. We have yet to learn that there is anything the matter with the political reputation of any member of the Board of Trade.
